

$7.50 PER MONTH FOR GUARDSMEN

New Order Gives Privates Opportunity to Add to Their Incomes

Enlistments for Company D, Headquarters Company, Supply Company and Sanitary Detachment, of the Eighth Infantry, may be made at the Armory between 7.30 and 9.30 o'clock this evening. Officers of the new units will be on hand to answer questions and provide the blanks necessary to enlistment.

The pay features of men who resume old relations with the National Guard will be more generous than ever before. Old-timers who used to dig down in their pockets in order to keep themselves in white gloves and other parts of uniform, are remarking enviously on the "soft snap" that the modern day Guardsman has. The pay for enlisted men is fixed by regulations as 25 per cent. of the initial pay now provided by law for enlisted men of corresponding grades of the Regular Army. Consequently, as is pointed out, a private who attends every drill will receive pay at the rate of $7.50 a month for approximately six hours' drill for the period, (one and one-half hours per week).

Commissioner For R-1th

Captain Wilbur, commanding Company D, announces as an acquisition to his commissioned personnel Lieutenant Edward B. Roth, Harrisburg, whose name has been recommended to the commanding general for appointment as second lieutenant and assigned to Company D. Lieutenant Roth served in the World War and was on the border in 1916 with the Governor's Troop.

"Tuesday evening is Company D's regular drill period," said Captain Wilbur to-day. "Service men may enlist in the National Guard for a period of one year, and may re-enlist for like periods. New men must enlist for three years.

All men desiring to enlist for one year should do so at once, as this privilege expires January 11, after that date all enlistments will be for three years.

The law requires each company to have 100 enlisted men, but the Federal government will recognize an organization as soon as it has ninety men enrolled.

FORMER DEAN OF WILSON ADDRESSES COLLEGE CLUB

She Tells of World Program Arranged by Y. W. C. A. of Service by Women For Women

The world program of the Young Women's Christian Association was a part of the program of the College Club at its meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph Baker, 2911 North Second street. Mrs. John Jessup, Jr., the chairman of the world program work for Harrisburg, was able to secure the state director for Pennsylvania, Mrs. Anna Martin Crocker, former dean of Wilson College, to present this important work of the Y. W. C. A. to the local college women.

"A greater opportunity for service to women has never been offered to the women of America," Mrs. Crocker said. This effort is part of a thorough educational campaign through which the national board wishes to bring its great peace program to the attention of organized groups of women everywhere and secure their co-operation in this movement of American women for the women of the world. The Young Women's Christian Association is the great organization with the machinery and equipment for effective service for women and girls and the war record of the organization is its best recommendation in considering its plans for the future.

Threefold Program

"Our program is a threefold one, work in the United States, overseas and our foreign advance work. In this country we have five special programs that we are stressing, in addition to our regular association activities. In our work with foreign-born women we are working through foreign language workers to establish friendly relations as the basis of real Americanization work, because we feel that so long as the woman in the home is foreign, the home itself is foreign. In our work with colored girls we are seeking to train and develop leadership among them, because we believe that the colored woman herself is the key to the race problem. Our third important program is our industrial work and here we are seeking to find a Christian solution through standards of responsibility not only for employers toward the girls but from the girls toward their employers. The other two work efforts, health and social morality, are closely connected. We are establishing health centers, where women physicians and physical directors can date through physical examinations, corrective gymnastics, and health standards to develop strong and efficient womanhood. Equally we are striving to disseminate the principles of social morality and social hygiene which were put forward by the great International Conference of Women Physicians which was held recently in New York through the instrumentality of the Young Women's Christian Association.

In Work Overseas

"Overseas our work consists of the follow-up of our war activities and the establishment of new work which has become possible in the five devastated countries of Europe since the armistice. The women of Europe have neither the strength, the machinery nor the resources to carry on effective work for recovery and we are constantly being called on to undertake new responsibilities. We are working in France training the women to carry on the work for themselves, and we are going into Belgium, Poland, Armenia, Serbia, Rumania and Czechoslovakia in response to urgent appeals.

"Our foreign advance work in the Orient and South America represents our missionary activities which we never undertake except at the direct request of the missionaries of the district. There we are working with two great groups of women and girls, the students and the industrial workers in particular. All this work has its international value, because through our work with the women we are able to help in the establishment of more friendly relations with this country.

"We believe as the women of the United States learn of the work we are doing they will be eager to take part in efforts that mean so much for the women of the world, and they will wish to assume a share of the responsibility toward making the accomplishment of this program possible.

Talk on Bolshevism

Mrs. John C. Stine, president of the College Club, presided, and Miss Dorothy Stillman read a paper prepared by Mrs. Paul Johnston on "Bolshevism." There was a discussion afterward, led by Mrs. Jacob Crane, and attention was called to the lecture by Dr. Raiguel Thursday morning, on current events, continuing his talks on "The Far East."

INSPECT SCHOOLS

City school directors with other officials of the district met at 12.30 o'clock to-day at the Edison Junior High school building for luncheon, after which they began an inspection trip through the new school. It was planned also by directors to go to the Camp Curtin building late in the afternoon to make an inspection there, so that at the next meeting of the board the contractors may be released and the schools accepted.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 9.—Robbers who attempted to raid the safes of the Virginia passenger and power Company here early to-day were intercepted by the police, who killed one and arrested three others after a pistol duel. Plans for the robbery had reached the authorities and officers were waiting for the men at the car barns.
