Famo kills the seborrhea germ that causes dandruff.

But it isn't fair—to FAMO or your hair—to expect a weekly FAMO treatment to rout all dandruff bacilli, and keep your head iree from sebor-rhea.

It is true that FAMO does drive out the dandruff germ after the first few applications.

But the deadly germ will surely come back unless the use of FAMO is continued regularly and faithfully.

care why not your hair?

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Dec, 10.—Choto, the Health Clown, arrived here last evening and delighted a large audience of college students, high and grammar school pupils and faculties at Columbian Hall, Irving College, He kept the young people in constant laughter with his pranks and antics and drove home, at the same time health rules and values of food. The boys applauded when he displayed his chest, covered with medals and diamond ring won in contests because he kept himself fit and muscles hard by proper food and exercise.

Cho-Cho left a splendid impression, as well as new rules and resolutions for good health.

MANY MOURN AT BRIDE HE SEEKS STEEL COMPANY

Columbia, Pa., Dec. 10.—Fuel conditions in this place will make it hard for some of the iron mills to continue operations. The mill of the Jansen Iron and Steel company has not been in operation this week and there is not much prospect for fuel. The East End and Union Street Mills will be able to operate a week or ten days with the coal now on hand, but can see no prospect for further work in the present situation.

Some of the larger manufacturing plants and some small concerns will be able to continue work under present regulations with the supply they have on hand. A few plants in this place get their power from the big water-power plant at Holtwood and they are not seriously affecttd.

will take up his new duties on January 5.

With the election of Pryor to the Commissionership West Shore residents are hoping for road improvements to thoroughfares. Asked whether he would encourage any improvements of this nature, Mr. Pryor said he would not commit himself until in office. Mr. Pryor is also connected with the operating management of the West Shore bakery.

Sentences Murderer to Imprisonment For Life

Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 10.—
George M. Kauffman, the slayer of Mrs. Nettie Hose, his mother-in-law, will shortly be taken to the penitentiary by Sheriff Duffey to begin his term. Kauffman was arraigned before Judge Wagaman when the afternoon session of court met and sentenced him to prison for life in accordance with the recommendation of the jury, which found the prisoner guilty of first degree murder without capital punishment. The court made no comment, and Kauffman had nothing to say.

Sunbury Citizens Will Fight Rate Increase

Sunbury, Pa., Dec. 10.—Solicitors for the funds to fight the Sunbury Water Company's increase in rates started their canvass of the city yes-terday, and have received encour-aging support from the general pub-lic.

The town has been districted, and in a short time it is expected that every house will be canvassed, and every householder given an opportunity to subscribe.
