DEER HUNTING IN STATE ENDS TODAY AT MIDNIGHT; HUNTERS REPORT BIG SUCCESS

Deer hunting in Pennsylvania ended tonight at midnight. It has been a successful season. According to reports more deer have been killed this year than in several years past.

County Treasurer David Chambers and party, camped at what is known as Box Lick, in the Alleghenies, for two deer early in the season.

When the deer hunters who for two weeks have covered almost every foot of mountain land in Adams, Franklin and Cumberland counties, finally break camp and return home today, the toll of their killing will run well into the hundreds.

GOOD CIGARS. Are as essential as proper food. If the after-effect of your smoking is not pleasing or results in feeling of dizziness, try a healthful smoke.

HOW TO GET THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT. You can't enjoy the holidays unless you FEEL the Spirit of Christmas. The ALL-CHRISTMAS NUMBER OF THE SUNDAY NORTH AMERICAN, DECEMBER 21, has been planned to do this.
