UNIVERSITY CLUB INVITATIONS OUT

Interest Runs High as Brilliant Holiday Ball Plans Develop

Invitations have just been issued for the big holiday ball of the University Club to be held in the Penn-Harris hotel, January 2. Applications for reservations have begun to pour in. These include many from out of the city for members and their friends who will visit the "home town" at Christmas time.

The Sourbeer-Meyers orchestra has been engaged to provide the music and the dancing contingent of Harrisburg is eagerly looking forward to the gala occasion. The decorations for the large banquet hall will be most elaborate and the committee in charge is working hard to offer a real treat to the artistic eye.

A new feature is a card party to be held simultaneously with the dance, by special request. Tables will be provided for the cards in the smaller banquet halls on the same floor with the ballroom. These halls will be used for the delicious buffet supper enjoyed later in the evening of gaiety.

Members will be given preference on the acceptance list and after they have been provided for, the guests of the members will be arranged for in the order in which members have made application for them. No invitations were sent out to any outside of the club membership. In view of the great demand for reservations the invitation committee suggest that members who want guests act promptly.

The chaperons have not been announced but the general committee includes: Robert T. Fox, chairman; Donald W. Huber, P. B. Rice and C. O. Shaar, with the following committees: Music and Program, Donald W. Huber, Russel A. Prebie; reception, W. H. Earnest, Arthur E. Brown, Dr. H. M. Kirkpatrick; publicity, C. Fredrick Kammerer, J. Douglas M. Royal; invitations, Henderson Gilbert, Mark T. Milnor, P. B. Rice, C. O. Shaar; Mercer E. Tate; refreshments, Dr. Karl A. Schaffe, C. Holmes McDonald, Lester A. Switzer; decorations, P. M. Hall, Elmer E. Erb and Bruce E. Butt.

LITTLE FIR TREES WHISPER SECRET

Miss Elizabeth Killinger Is to Marry Earl Lyter Kunkle By and By

MISS ELIZABETH KILLINGER

Miss Elizabeth Killinger entertained last evening at her home in Paxtang in compliment to her guest, Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Bellefonte. The house was attractively decorated with Pine trees and other evergreens and in the dining room where supper was served a small Jerusalem cherry tree graced the table. The favors were tiny candy-filled boxes of white bearing miniature fir trees. Beneath the trees a red wax concealed in an envelope which, when opened, disclosed a card with the announcement of the engagement of Miss Killinger and Earl Lyter Kunkle.

Miss Killinger, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Killinger, is a graduate of Central High school, class of 1913, and is popular in the city among a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Kunkle, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kunkle, of Paxtang, is a graduate of State College, class of 1916. He was a lieutenant in the Ordnance Department of the Army, receiving his commission at Camp Raritan, N. J. He is manager of the Autocar Service station here. No date has been set for the wedding.

The guests at last evening's event were: Misses Marjorie Bolles, Wynne Cassell, Frances Brown, Agnes Hess, Pearl Yahn, Elizabeth Yahn, Constance Belaman, Helen Belldaman, Matilda Ritter, Elizabeth Bender, Eleanor Watts, Marie Hartman, Eva Kunkle, Ruth Kunkle, Ethel Pray, Rachel Lingle, Elizabeth Wilson, Edna Hummel, Donna Wilson, Stella Runkle, Jane Killinger, Mrs. Stuart Wallace, Mrs. Earl Killinger, Mrs. W. H. Killinger.
