

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME Founded 1831

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO. Telephone Building, Federal Square

Member American Newspaper Publishers Association, Eastern Office, 200 Broadway, New York City

By carrier, ten cents a week, by mail, $3.00 a year in advance.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1919 Moderation is the silken string running through the pearl chain of all virtues.—FULLER.

WANT SAFE BRIDGE THE Rotary Club has voiced the opinion of many Harrisburg people in petitioning Council for the erection of a guardrail or curb between the roadway and sidewalk

LABOR IS ORDERLY THE New York World's observations on the recent coal strike are interesting from the standpoint of those who mistakenly believe that labor as a body is likely to be swayed by reds and radicals

WEST SHORE SCHOOLS EVERY resident of the West Shore should read what Professor Clyde Hoover has to say with regard to the schools of that district in an interview appearing in Wednesday's issue of the Telegraph.

PROTECTING THE LAW DECLINING to permit the brewers to make beer in the face of the war-time prohibition act, Judge Van Valkenburgh set an example the principles of which extend far beyond the case at issue.

NEW MEXICAN PRESIDENT It is rather satisfactory news that it is brought by a Mexican lawyer who has just arrived in New York, that Ignacio Bonillas, Liberal candidate, is likely to be elected president.

CHRISTMAS SNOW Seems to me in the Long Ago We always had more of it—Christmas snow!

PORTABLE HOUSES WANTED Due to the considerable advance in rents the mayor of Seville, Spain, considering plans to house the workmen.

FEMINE vs. MASCULINE If masculine and feminine comedy really differ it may be in their attitudes toward youth.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE John Cadwalader, well known in Philadelphia affairs, has been elected president of Academy of Natural Sciences.

DO YOU KNOW That Harrisburg made material for gun sights during the war?

Wormleysburg, at least, will be one borough or city, with a possibility of West Fairview and Enola under the same governmental roof.

LONG AGO AND so we are to have a community Christmas pageant this year, with Yuletide music by trained singers, wise men in the costumes of the ancient East, shepherds feeding real flocks by night

Politics in Pennsylvania By the Ex-Committee man "The Commission made splendid progress in the short time that it was in session, in fact, it did more than I thought that it would be able to accomplish.

Optimism in Czecho-Slovakia [From the Philadelphia Ledger.] There is so much heart-rending horror and misery attendant upon the efforts of war-bankrupted Europe to pull itself together that

Christmas Snow Seems to me in the Long Ago We always had more of it—Christmas snow!

Paderewski Resigns [From the New York Sun] The fact that the great Polish musician has left the direction of affairs at Warsaw is no proof that piano playing and the premierhip are incompatible.

Failure of Watchful Waiting [From the Kansas City Star.] The existing situation in Mexico is the direct consequence of the policy of watchful waiting.

Ring-Nosed Senators [From the New York Tribune.] The latest from the White House, that the President "has no compromise or concession of any kind in his mind," explains why Senator Hchcock, when in New York last week,

Well Known People John Cadwalader, well known in Philadelphia affairs, has been elected president of Academy of Natural Sciences.

Do You Know That Harrisburg made material for gun sights during the war?

Historic Harrisburg The so-called "Bucksfoot" wall which was fought on Capitol Hill, took place in 1538.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'? WHEN YOU WAKE UP ONE AWFUL COLD MORNING REALIZING YOU HAVE ONLY A SMALL AMOUNT OF ALCOHOL IN YOUR RADIATOR (AUTO)

AND YOU CAN HARDLY EAT ANY BREAKFAST FOR WORRYING ABOUT CRACKED CYLINDERS AND BUSTED RADIATORS

OH-H-H-BOY!! AIN'T IT A GR-R-R-RAND AND GLOR-R-RIOUS FEELIN'?

Let Us Have Daylight Saving By Samuel A. Welldon Vice-President National Daylight Saving Association

THERE are practically no opponents of daylight saving among the residents of municipalities. The opposition that caused Congress to repeal this health-giving measure over the President's veto

Treatment For Radicals [From New York Herald.] In a recent speech in this city United States Senator McKellar, of Tennessee, said: "Give the foreigner who comes to our shores five years to become an American citizen."

Failure of Watchful Waiting [From the Kansas City Star.] The existing situation in Mexico is the direct consequence of the policy of watchful waiting.

Ring-Nosed Senators [From the New York Tribune.] The latest from the White House, that the President "has no compromise or concession of any kind in his mind," explains why Senator Hchcock, when in New York last week,

Well Known People John Cadwalader, well known in Philadelphia affairs, has been elected president of Academy of Natural Sciences.

Do You Know That Harrisburg made material for gun sights during the war?

Historic Harrisburg The so-called "Bucksfoot" wall which was fought on Capitol Hill, took place in 1538.

Politics in Pennsylvania By the Ex-Committee man "The Commission made splendid progress in the short time that it was in session, in fact, it did more than I thought that it would be able to accomplish.

Optimism in Czecho-Slovakia [From the Philadelphia Ledger.] There is so much heart-rending horror and misery attendant upon the efforts of war-bankrupted Europe to pull itself together that

Christmas Snow Seems to me in the Long Ago We always had more of it—Christmas snow!

Paderewski Resigns [From the New York Sun] The fact that the great Polish musician has left the direction of affairs at Warsaw is no proof that piano playing and the premierhip are incompatible.

Failure of Watchful Waiting [From the Kansas City Star.] The existing situation in Mexico is the direct consequence of the policy of watchful waiting.

Ring-Nosed Senators [From the New York Tribune.] The latest from the White House, that the President "has no compromise or concession of any kind in his mind," explains why Senator Hchcock, when in New York last week,

Well Known People John Cadwalader, well known in Philadelphia affairs, has been elected president of Academy of Natural Sciences.

Do You Know That Harrisburg made material for gun sights during the war?

Historic Harrisburg The so-called "Bucksfoot" wall which was fought on Capitol Hill, took place in 1538.

Let Us Have Daylight Saving By Samuel A. Welldon Vice-President National Daylight Saving Association

THERE are practically no opponents of daylight saving among the residents of municipalities. The opposition that caused Congress to repeal this health-giving measure over the President's veto

Treatment For Radicals [From New York Herald.] In a recent speech in this city United States Senator McKellar, of Tennessee, said: "Give the foreigner who comes to our shores five years to become an American citizen."

Failure of Watchful Waiting [From the Kansas City Star.] The existing situation in Mexico is the direct consequence of the policy of watchful waiting.

Ring-Nosed Senators [From the New York Tribune.] The latest from the White House, that the President "has no compromise or concession of any kind in his mind," explains why Senator Hchcock, when in New York last week,

Well Known People John Cadwalader, well known in Philadelphia affairs, has been elected president of Academy of Natural Sciences.

Do You Know That Harrisburg made material for gun sights during the war?

Historic Harrisburg The so-called "Bucksfoot" wall which was fought on Capitol Hill, took place in 1538.

Politics in Pennsylvania By the Ex-Committee man "The Commission made splendid progress in the short time that it was in session, in fact, it did more than I thought that it would be able to accomplish.

Optimism in Czecho-Slovakia [From the Philadelphia Ledger.] There is so much heart-rending horror and misery attendant upon the efforts of war-bankrupted Europe to pull itself together that

Christmas Snow Seems to me in the Long Ago We always had more of it—Christmas snow!

Paderewski Resigns [From the New York Sun] The fact that the great Polish musician has left the direction of affairs at Warsaw is no proof that piano playing and the premierhip are incompatible.

Failure of Watchful Waiting [From the Kansas City Star.] The existing situation in Mexico is the direct consequence of the policy of watchful waiting.

Ring-Nosed Senators [From the New York Tribune.] The latest from the White House, that the President "has no compromise or concession of any kind in his mind," explains why Senator Hchcock, when in New York last week,

Well Known People John Cadwalader, well known in Philadelphia affairs, has been elected president of Academy of Natural Sciences.

Do You Know That Harrisburg made material for gun sights during the war?

Historic Harrisburg The so-called "Bucksfoot" wall which was fought on Capitol Hill, took place in 1538.

Let Us Have Daylight Saving By Samuel A. Welldon Vice-President National Daylight Saving Association

THERE are practically no opponents of daylight saving among the residents of municipalities. The opposition that caused Congress to repeal this health-giving measure over the President's veto

Treatment For Radicals [From New York Herald.] In a recent speech in this city United States Senator McKellar, of Tennessee, said: "Give the foreigner who comes to our shores five years to become an American citizen."

Failure of Watchful Waiting [From the Kansas City Star.] The existing situation in Mexico is the direct consequence of the policy of watchful waiting.

Ring-Nosed Senators [From the New York Tribune.] The latest from the White House, that the President "has no compromise or concession of any kind in his mind," explains why Senator Hchcock, when in New York last week,

Well Known People John Cadwalader, well known in Philadelphia affairs, has been elected president of Academy of Natural Sciences.

Do You Know That Harrisburg made material for gun sights during the war?

Historic Harrisburg The so-called "Bucksfoot" wall which was fought on Capitol Hill, took place in 1538.

Portrait of a Man A portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking thoughtful.

Portrait of a Man A portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking thoughtful.

Portrait of a Man A portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking thoughtful.

Portrait of a Man A portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking thoughtful.

Portrait of a Man A portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking thoughtful.

Portrait of a Man A portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking thoughtful.

Portrait of a Man A portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking thoughtful.

Portrait of a Man A portrait of a man in a suit and tie, looking thoughtful.