New York, Dec. 20.—Milburn Saylor, for years a contender for the lightweight championship of the world, looking up his gloves, he was knocked out in a couple of rounds by Jack Perry last week and decided that it was time to cease his serious efforts in the roped arena. He never was in the flying and was floored seven times before his seconds tossed in the towel.

After the bout Saylor admitted his inability to do what countless hundreds of other fighters have unsuccessfully attempted to do, defy Father Time. He was accompanied by his manager and would return to Indianapolis to devote himself entirely to the railroad business, which line he adopted several years ago.

Great Career

Five lightweight titles in the history of fistiana have had more active or brilliant careers than Milburn Saylor. NO "PINK TEAS" FOR GRID TEAMS

Next Season's Schedules to Include No "Set-Ups" After Title Honors

New York, Dec. 20.—Schedules full of "set-ups" will be scarce on the gridiron next fall. Instead of the "ducking" policy of the past, managers are showing a tendency to take on everything big in sight. Enough intercollegiate games are in the making to give promise of a national title if the dope doesn't run another checkered career. Harvard, so far, has been the sensation of the winter football league.

The Crimson breaks all precedents by booking a post-season game to the Pacific coast for a game with the Oregon team. Then the schedule committee selects Notre Dame, Cornell College, Maine and Virginia for their fall schedules. And lastly, proposals of double headers are made and favorably received by Yale.

Harvard, Yale, the Army and the Navy were roundly condemned last season for "set-ups" in their schedules. Harvard got busy and it is known that they wouldn't be the same next year.

Yale is showing the same spirit by ducking for games with the Army, Columbia, Syracuse, Colgate, Dartmouth, Williams, Cornell and Brown. The Navy is trying to get away from the "stacked card" charge by negotiating with Pennsylvania, Princeton, Georgia Tech, Nebraska and Washington and Lee.

Dartmouth wants Harvard and Princeton, but has turned down Colgate on a Himsy excuse. What Others Will Do

Washington and Jefferson has Syracuse, Carnegie Tech, Pittsburgh and West Virginia. The Tigers also want the Navy, Princeton, Penn. Brown and Yale for a nucleus.

Center College, sensation of the past season, will break into the eastern circles with Harvard. The Kentuckians are trying to get games with Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Ohio State, Navy, West Virginia and Colgate.

Lehigh is after Pennsylvania, Lafayette, Penn State, Syracuse, Rutgers and West Virginia. Ohio State will mingle with eastern notables. Princeton claims a date with the Buckeyes October 26. The Tigers also want the Navy, West Virginia, Colgate, Dartmouth, Rutgers and Lafayette.

Camp Hill High Girls Swamp Newville Five

Continuing its aggressive playing, the Camp Hill girls' team last night swamped the Newville quintet on the "cross-river" floor by a score of 31 to 3. The Camp Hill outfit demonstrated remarkable skill in team work and good shooting. The team has not lost a game this season. The score:

CAMP HILL NEWVILLE
Denison, f. Ficht, f.
Naylor, f. Brown, f.
Bishop, c. McKenzie, c.
Shuster, g. Earnest, g.
Hawbecker, g. Miller, g.
Field goals—Denison, 7; Naylor, 3; Earnest, 1; Foul goals—Denison, 1; Bowman, 1. Referee, Neil.
