Four Cars Off Track in P. R. R. Yards Delay Trains

Four cars on an eastbound freight jumped the tracks at North street this morning and blocked traffic on the Pennsylvania Rainvad for sev-eral hours. It is said that the wreek was caused by one of the cars pick-ing the switch. Passenger trains were greatly delayed. Conditions on both the Pennsyl-vania and Reading lines were re-ported improved to-day. There is still trouble because of a scarcity of motive power, Working forces at the Pennsylvania Railroad en-ginehouse are working overtime in
