MARSH RUN FOLK HOLD A DANCE

Event on Birthday of Col. Thuis; Gifts Presented and Good Wishes Extended

Several hundred guests attended the dance held last evening in Winterdale by the employees of the Army Depot at Marsh Run. Happening on the birthday of Lt. Colonel Charles A. Thuis, J. G. Gredler, formerly a captain in the Army, made a brilliant speech of congratulation and presented Mrs. Thuis, on behalf of the depot, with a handsome pair of mahogany candlesticks and a vase of hammered silver. Mrs. Thuis responded cleverly, voicing the appreciation of her husband and herself for the lovely gifts.

Between the dances there was a musical program with Mrs. Florence Ackley Key, Elmer Hobbs Ley, Mrs. Ernest Keys and Miss Naomi Ackley singing. The numbers receiving especial favor were "Sometime," "Fiddle and I," and "Somewhere a Voice is Calling." There was a grand march during intermission and favors for each lady.

On the committee were L. L. Carroll, C. Henderson Hummerich, Russell J. Yester, A. S. Cooper, Eldred Buffington, R. W. Young, Miss Carrie Givler and Miss Ruth Throckmorton.
