

Jos. H. O'Brien Will Speak on R. R. Terminals at the Engineers' Club

Joseph H. O'Brien, engineer and building expert of the Central Construction Corporation, will deliver an address at 8 o'clock this evening at the Engineers' Club on railroad terminals in the United States, which may have a bearing on the proposed changes in Harrisburg which are occupying the attention of engineers of the State and the Pennsylvania Railroad and have not yet been fully developed. The public has been invited.

Mr. O'Brien, who is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, has had more than twenty-six years' experience in general engineering and construction work. He began his engineering career with the Boston Terminal Company, where he had direct charge of the design and construction of every important feature of the Boston Terminal, known as the South Station. Subsequently as assistant engineer in charge of construction he designed and supervised the construction of important works for the street railway system of Providence, R. I., including the Manchester Street Power House, the Cranston Street Shops and the Elmwood Avenue Car Barn.

He was first assistant to the terminal engineer in the original organization charged with the design of the New York Central and Hudson River Terminal Improvements in New York City, and later had direct charge of the design and execution of all civil engineering work of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's terminal improvements in New York City, including the station building, in connection with which he co-operated with the architects.

OVERLAND 4 THAT CLIMBED THE CAPITOL STEPS SATURDAY

The above illustration shows the Overland 4 touring car coming back down the Capitol steps after it had climbed up them, circled the Hartman monument and mounted to the upper level to the entrance to the main building. This is the first time a touring car has climbed these steps, according to local automobile men. After the touring car had successfully made the ascent with four passengers, Carl Hanson, driving, and B. M. Ogelsby, A. P. Davies and J. A. Stine as observers, a stock Sedan was taken up also. Both cars negotiated the steep incline without a mishap or any trouble whatever. This demonstration was to test out the new "Triplex Springs" that are an exclusive Overland feature.

Newspaper Printed on Wrapping Paper

St. Louis, Dec. 22.—The East St. Louis Daily Journal will be printed this afternoon on light brown wrapping paper, according to an announcement in yesterday's issue. The publisher of the journal, Allen T. Spivey, president of the Illinois Republican Editorial Association, printed a statement in his paper yesterday that the Sunday issue was made possible by using borrowed print paper at one cent a page for the other eight pages. The price of the Sunday paper is five cents.

The Journal has obtained an option on a quantity of light brown wrapping paper, which will be used this afternoon, unless something happens to replenish the stock, good fortune that is not much hoped for. Mr. Spivey had a consignment of print paper on the way to East St. Louis and was resting easy until he received a telegram that the car containing his paper was smashed in a railroad wreck at Tiffin, Ohio, and the paper ruined.

This afternoon's issue of the Journal, if printed on wrapping paper, will attract much attention and be in demand for souvenirs. Old-timers recall that a newspaper in Memphis, Tenn., was printed on wall paper during the war, and that the Chicago Times issued a handbill the day after the great Chicago fire, but so far no one recalls seeing a newspaper printed on wrapping paper.

Much Sugar Exported Despite Growing Scarcity

Washington, Dec. 22.—In the face of a growing scarcity of sugar more than a billion and a quarter pounds of sugar, valued at nearly $27,000,000, were exported from the United States during the first 10 months of the present year, a Department of Commerce report issued yesterday shows.

Exports, which went largely to the United Kingdom and France, exceeded in quantity 23 per cent the amount sent out of the country during the same period last year.

While this sugar was being shipped out of the country, American importers brought in more than eight and a quarter billion pounds valued at $481,242,000. The imports increased only 27 per cent which in comparison with the much larger export increase, officials were of the opinion, undoubtedly accounts at least in part for the difficulties the American housewife is having in obtaining sugar from her grocer.

Courthouse Note

Petition Withdrawn.—A petition to have Mrs. Mary Heck, in jail serving a three-month sentence after conviction on a charge of being a common scold, released on parole was withdrawn by counsel for John N. Heck, her husband. The woman has served about a month. The court intimated it would not establish a precedent by releasing a prisoner from the jail on parole before the expiration of the sentence.

Two of the children, Lillian and Harry, appeared in court to make their choice of a guardian.
