Willie Spencer Wins Out
In Ten-Round Ring Battle
Reading, Pa., Dec. 26.—Jabbing at will a left that had his heavier opponent baffled, Willie Spencer, of Providence, outpointed Max Williams son, of Philadelphia, in the ten-round windup of the Watson Athletic Club's holiday show. Spencer's effective jabbing had the Quaker City lad looking foolish. Joe Dorsey, Fairmount, beat Young Coster, Kensington, in the ten-round semiwindup, which was a whirlwind from bell to bell. Battling Paskos, of Reading, won from Charlie Ray, New York, while Battling Deemer, of Reading, shaded Young McCarty, Pottsville, after a hard fight. Tommy Murray and Young Tendler, Philadelphia lads, stalled through six rounds.
