FIRST ASSEMBLY IN PENN-HARRIS

This Evening's Event Will Bring Together Many of the Older Residents

There's always a grace and dignity about the Harrisburg assembly, brought about by the presence of the older residents of the city who come to greet old friends rather than dance. When they were first organized it was always the wife of the Governor who took precedence in the receiving line, and in later years the wives of members of the committee were the hostesses.

The decorations are full of holiday suggestions, with huge wreaths of holly and mistletoe hanging on the wall, little Christmas trees in the corners and festoons of laurel and holly. The Myers orchestra, of Philadelphia, will play and supper will be served at intermission. On the committee of arrangements are: Henry B. Ciar, George Comstock, Frank Robbins, Emerson Gilbert, Vance C. McCormick and Edward J. Stackpole, Jr.

Little Dinner Parties
There will be quite a number of little dinner parties preceding the assembly this evening, among them one given by Mr. and Mrs. A. Carson, of West Chester, and another given by Mr. and Mrs. George Comyns Thomas, Jr., of Elizabeth, N. J.

The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Miss Mary Creighton, Miss Almada Herman, Miss Eleanor Eiter, Mrs. Mary Mitchell, Miss Kathryn Starnum and Miss Maude Stamm, of Harrisburg; Howard Ingerson, of Philadelphia; Mr. Weimer, of Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jordan Hall will be hosts at dinner at their home, Front and Harris streets, with the following guests: Dr. and Mrs. William E. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John Fox Weiss, Miss Ethel Calder, of Bryn Mawr; Miss Mary H. Armstrong, of New York; Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted, John Ericsson and Frank Brady.

Example of Co-Operation With New York Railroads

"Don't Take Chances," is a warning that is being sent by the State of New York to 400,000 of its citizens, owners of automobiles, addressed personally to each individual in the shape of a card. Frank M. C. Johnson, secretary of state, is sending the cards in the envelope with his regular annual circular advising automobile owners of the approach of the date when their licenses expire and need to be renewed. This is an example of co-operation between the State and the railroads, the cards being furnished by the New York Central Railroad.

Christmas Greetings For Middle Division Men

Superintendent J. C. Johnson of the Middle Division, extended Christmas greetings to all employees of the division. They were posted on the various bulletin boards and read as follows: "In wishing you and your family a Happy and Prosperous New Year, I want to take this occasion to thank you for your co-operation in our efforts to get near a 100 per cent performance as possible. We are proud of a great railroad and if we pull together we can make it so." J. C. JOHNSON, Superintendent.

The will of Margaret Gerberich, late of East Hanover township, was probated to-day and letters on the estate were issued by Register Ed. H. Fisher to W. E. Shell.

CHILDREN SELL 470,000 RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEALS

Almost Every Borough and Township in County Exceeds Quota

City school children sold more than 470,000 Red Cross Christmas seals during the recent campaign. D. P. Hammebaugh, chairman of the seal sale committee, reported to-day. This is an average of forty seals sold per pupil in the Harrisburg district.

Two years ago in the last seal campaign the total sales in the city and county combined were 494,708. This year the Harrisburg school children alone disposed of almost that many, while the total city and county sale will be almost 800,000. Children in Harrisburg schools sold 267,000 seals in 1917.

Reports have been received from practically all the buildings, and in almost every instance many more seals were disposed of than two years ago. At the Open-Air school the pupils averaged 237 seals for each one, while in many of the other buildings the average sale per pupil ranged from 50 to 80.

Reports are missing from some of the county districts but indications are that almost every borough and township will exceed its 1917 record, some of them reporting sales double and treble those of two years ago.

Big Railroad Leaders Express Satisfaction Over Railroad Return

Philadelphia, Dec. 26.—Thomas Dewitt Cuyler, Jr., director of the Pennsylvania railroad and chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, representing virtually all the important railroads of the country, said to-night the President's announcement regarding the return of the roads to their owners on March 1, is admirable in its tone and substance and is entirely satisfactory to the railroads. Mr. Cuyler's statement follows: "The President's statement is admirable in its tone and substance and is entirely satisfactory to the railroad companies. They will be prepared and organized to take over their properties. I entertain no doubt that by March 1 Congress will have enacted a sound and constructive law for the protection of the railroads and the public alike."

Baltimore, Dec. 26.—Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, said to-night that he considered March 1 a very satisfactory date for the turning back of the roads.

"I am very glad that the President has seen fit to turn the roads back and to defer the date from January 1, because if proper legislation will be lacking."

American Sailors Held Under Common Law

Mexico City, Thursday, Dec. 25.—Hilario Medina, in charge of the Mexican foreign office, declared to-day, in answer to a question that the two American sailors arrested at Mazatlan for assault upon a Mexican citizen, were so far as the foreign office knew, still held there under provisions of the Mexican constitution.

Senator Medina said the foreign office had asked the Mazatlan authorities for further particulars regarding the case and asserted the American embassy had made no further move relative to the incident since it had handed its first communication to the foreign office.

TREE SPECULATORS HIT HARD

New York, Dec. 26.—Speculators in Christmas trees were hard hit in New York this morning and to-day dealers who had hoped for big profits hired truckmen to cart many remaining trees to the bay. Others were turned over to janitors to help heat apartments.

McCLAIN READY TO TAKE CHARGE

Says He Will Act as Fair Price Commissioner as the Governor Desires

Director Frank B. McClain, of the Public Welfare Commission, has accepted the position of fair-price commissioner for Pennsylvania and says he will fight food gougers with publicity as well as the law. As soon as the appointment is confirmed by Attorney General Palmer, Mr. McClain will make his headquarters in Philadelphia at the present offices of the State welfare commission.

"During the public welfare commission's fight against extortionate rents and the unfair practices of landlords, the help of the newspapers was invaluable to me," he says. "Thousands of families would have been put out in the streets this winter had it not been for the intervention of the commission and the threat of publicity held over the heads of the profiteers. Called some of the gougers Shylocks and they came around."

I hope to be able to accomplish a great deal in the fight against food profiteering by similar methods. The situation will have to be handled with tact and intelligence, but it is a situation which can be controlled, I am confident, by proper methods.

"I feel that the co-operation of the newspapers will be more helpful than the law itself. Men take a great deal in the fight against the law, but the wrongdoer cannot stand publicity. It is more potent than the act of Congress."

Copies of the final account of Effingham B. Morris, the Philadelphia banker, as treasurer of the Pennsylvania Council of National Defense and Committee of Public Safety, have been received at the Capitol. Mr. Morris' report is in printed form and includes an appreciation of his services by Auditor General Charles A. Snyder.

J. C. Knauts, former messenger in the Department of Public Instruction, has been appointed court clerk in the new Lehigh county court.

The men behind the new company of the National Guard at Doylestown have arranged a tour to cover the whole county to get recruits. The drive started to-day.

According to the Philadelphia Record there will be a general shake-up of the Philadelphia police department when James T. Corbett becomes director of safety. Superintendant Robinson will be demoted and so will Captain of Detectives Souder, both well known at the Capitol.
