Masses of Hot Ashes Thrown by Volcano

By Associated Press

Tokio, Dec. 26.-Mount Aso, an active volcano in Kyushu, has been unusually active of late. Rumblings, small eruptions and showers of ashes were frequently experienced. A comparatively big eruption occurred a few days ago when masses of ashes fell over the surrounding country.

The atmosphere above the vol-The atmosphere above the vor-cano district was a mass of reddish yellow clouds and the mountains and fields were mantled with a thick layer of greyish ash from the crater. acted the part of Joseph and Miss Eva Irving, as Mary.

Combined Choruses
Three selections, "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem." "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," and "Away in the Manger," were sung by the combined choruses of several hundred voices with pleasing effect.

Accompanied by the singing of "We Three Kings of the Orient Are," the Three Wise Men of the East were seen to enter and inspect the conents of the manger. The presentation of "Silent Night" marked the conclusion of the pageant. As the last strains died away, a brilliant star, representing the "Star of Bethlehem" shone forth.

The cast of characters follow: "Spirit of Christmas," Miss Geraldine Powell; "Mary," Miss Eva Irving; "Joseph," Elmer H. Ley; "Three Wise Men," William S. Essick, B. F. Dickinson and William H. Patrick; "Ten Shepherds," Wirt S. Mosser, John W. German, Jr., W. D. Bottgenbach, E. C. Lamey, Allison Skinner, T. W. Smedley, William Patrick, Jr., Harry Kochenour, H. W. Lindenfelter and William T. Dimmick. The "angel," Miss Ethelyn MacCloskey.

Pleasing Numbers
A number which pleased particularly was the choral selection by the Camp Curtin Junior High School children under the direction of Miss Midred Conkling, a teacher at the school. The Girl Scouts, under the direction of Mrs. Charles C. Stroh, furnished another beautiful number on the program.

Miss Snavely, president of the Wednesday Club, and Mrs. Decevee, leader of the club's chorus, received considerable praise from the Community Service Bureau for their efforts, and the selection by the George Hoyer, of the State Department of Public Grounds and community Service Bureau for their efforts, and the selection by the Wednesday Club chorus was well received.

George Hoyer, of the State Department of Public Grounds and Buildings, had charge of arrangements inside the Capitol buildings, and co-operated in directing the participanis to dressing rooms, rest rooms and seeing that everything inside the building went according to program.

New City Choir

A number of the choral numbers last evening were by the newly-organized City Choir, which will be a permanent feature in the musical life of Harrisburg, and under the directorship of the Community Service Director of the Chamber of Commerce take part in municipal pageants in the future. It is comprised of employes from the following organizations:

The Moorhead Knitting Company, the Harrisburg Sik Mill, "44" Cigar Company, Harrisburg Shoe Company, City Star Laundry, Race Street Cigar Company Elliott-Fisher Bookkeeping Machine Company and New Idea Hosiery Company and New Idea Hosiery Company, Church of God, Zion Lutheran, Messiah Lutheran, United Brethren, Church of God, Zion Lutheran, Messiah Lutheran, United Brethren, Church of God, Zion Lutheran, Messiah Lutheran, United Brethren, Church of God, Zion Lutheran, St. Paul's Episcopal Church choirs, in addition to the choral societies from the S. S. Kresge, Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Soutter's Twenty-five Cent store and Kaufman's store. Mrs. Florence Ackley Ley directed this chorus in the pageant.

All of the Boy Scouts of the city were on the Job last evening and rendered excellent service. The sheep were secured through Farm Agent H. G. Niesley from the Bonnymead farms. They formed an effective part of the realism produced in the pageant.

The organ, which furnished accompaniment for a number of the selections, was furnished by Miss Ellia McKelvy. One of the spot lights was operated by Theodore N. Davis, operator at the Wilmer & Vincent theaters.

"Special credit for the success of the pageant is due to Mrs. Florence Ackley. Ley, director of the community service bureau of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce. The newly established community service bureau was in charge of the affairs, the pageant being its official debut in presenting spectacles on an elaborate scale.

"V. Grant Forrer, assistant superintendent of parks, was also one of the greatest factors in the success of the pageant. He proved a capable manager of details, from procuring the sheep to constructing and setting up the stage.

"Frank E. Hoffman, State electrician, was responsible for the clever light effects which enhanced the spectacle so materially. Mr. Hoffman and the State Board of Public Grounds and Euildings, co-operated and lent their active support and assistance throughout all the arrangements. C. Floyd Hopkins, manager of the Wilmer and Vincent theaters in Harrisburg, lent his 'assistance also in providing an operator for the spotlight.

"Those who made up the cast of characters took an immensurable part in assuring the success of the splendid pageant. Every one of these persons fulfilled all expectations in carrying out his or her part. "The splendid co-operation of the Municipal Band which volunteered its services for the occasion, and the 700 members of the variouse choruses who furnished vocal number's, also belong to the category of those whose activities made the pageant a success."
