REV. A. G. FLEXER

An "Old Home-Coming" evange listic campaign will begin in Harris Street United Evangelical Church Street United Evangelical Church next Sunday morning.

The three weeks' campaign will be conducted by Evangelist A. G. Flexer, pastor of the church, and Prof. Harry Dudley Clarke, of the Moody, Institute, Chicago.

Evangelist Flexer is an energetic and forceful speaker. He is an infinential leader among men and organized a big Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip during his pastorate at Lancaster. At Shamokin unusual success was manifested when the organization flourished from asmall beginning to a membership of 253 men.

Prof. Clarke was born in Wales and is a typical Welshman. He came to Canada in early life where he was for many years a choir boy in the Episcopalian Church. He attended the Moody Institute from which school he was graduated in the musical department in 1914. He has traveled over the greater portion of the United States with some of the leading evangelists as a choir leader and singer. He has had large experience, is a capable leader and has an unusually effective voice. During the past two years he has been on the extension depart-ment work of the Moody Institute.
