FOUR COACHES ARE IN RIGHT

Princeton Tutor Got Knocks But Is Now in For Life

New York, Dec. 26.—King of the "fall guys" that's the coach. When he develops a winner he gets a bigger hand than the well known prince. When his team loses, he's as popular as "Puss" or "John" would be in Havana.

Four coaches—Gill, Dobie, Bill Roper, Bob Zupke and Charles Moran—are eating the proverbial white bread now. Next year they may be feeding on the biblical husks. If the experts had to pick an all-American coach it is almost a cinch that one of the above four would be named.

Bill Roper got a lot of mean knocks before Princeton was willing to let him have the goods. After the West Virginia and Colgate games, the Tigers following began to take about changes.

Want to Keep Roper. But when McGraw, Thibault, Murray, Scheerer and company tried Harvard and beat Yale, they changed their tune and expressed their favor of a lifetime contract for Roper.

Gill Dobie came to the Navy in 1917 known as the "wizard of the West." For 13 years he turned out a team at Washington that didn't lose a game. He didn't have much to work with among the midshipmen but he turned out a team good enough to beat the Army after he had led everyone to believe that the Midshipmen would be crushed.

Zupke is one of the "old war horses" of the western conference. He has a long list of citations, not the least among which is the one acquired this year when Illinois defeated Ohio State and won the conference championship.

Charles Moran, National League umpire, coached Center College. Roses are in the bouquet handed to this quartet; raspberries and lemons went the way of Bob Fawell, Speedy Rush and Fielding.

New Coach For Penn. Fawell is being appointed for the gate at Pennsylvania and Dr. Williams is the favorite as his successor; Speedy Rush, who was hustled to Cornell on a recommendation of Charles Bartlett, is being urged for a hustling out on recommendation of the Illinois because he could not fill eleven places with Fritz Shiverick.

Michigan was booted around by every team in the western conference and the Ann Arbor contingent, blame Yost for it. They have been feeling out Larry Bankhart, the Colgate mentor, Yost's contract has expired at Michigan and unless the athletic authorities believe in the "scrap of paper" theory he will be back next year.

Columbia is without a coach since Bob Dawson resigned.

How to fill the places at Stanford, the tutors who are sure of their jobs include "Joek" Sutherland, Larry Fisher, Buck O'Neil, Sydney Lavelette, Robert Glenn Warner, Pittsburgh at Spears, Dartmouth, and Robinson at Brown.

Harvard Is Coming Right; Crimson Is Now Favorite

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 26.—Weather ideal by Trainer Donovan, who has been in charge of conditioning the football team for its game on New Year's day with the University of Oregon. Donovan said the weather was just enough to make the needs of the men who he indicated to-day were still overweight. Coach Huntington, on the other hand, has decided after observing the easterners that this team is putting the men through only one light practice daily. Harvard is regarded as the slight favorite among followers of the game.

BALL PLAYERS EXORCISED

Chicago, Dec. 26.—Rumors that three members of the Chicago American League team had made an offer to a St. Louis gambling syndicate to throw baseball games during the 1919 campaign, were investigated at a meeting yesterday. Following the meeting, Harry Grabner, secretary of the White Sox, said that two members of the syndicate had stated that they knew of the throwing of games was based on hearsay, and that no direct evidence, involving members of the Chicago team, had been produced.

FREAK THROWS WILL PASS OUT

Americans Give Notice to Twirlers That There Will Be Changes

Chicago, Dec. 26.—Pitchers in the American League are not going to have anything on those in the National when it comes to operating on the rubber, as all freak deliveries are to be barred from the Ban Johnson circuit, the same as they have been in the National League, according to information released from President Johnson to-day. The younger major organization has taken any action on the subject yet, but when the time comes it will legislate against the artificial means of hurling, the same as the other league has done.

"All freak deliveries will be barred from coming into our league," said President Johnson, when asked what the American League purposed doing on the question. "We have not made any definite decision yet, but I am sure that the shine ball, spit ball and other artificial means of throwing will be eliminated."

"Spitters to Break Slowly." Of course, it would be unjust to ask spit ball twirlers to discard that mode of flinging immediately, but they will be given to understand that they will have to acquire a new style in a year's time. Youngsters just breaking in will not be allowed to use anything except speed, curve, and a change of pace.

The National League has already prohibited the shine ball, emery ball and other forms of freak deliveries. Pitchers who have been in the league for years are permitted to use the spit ball next season only, after which that particular delivery, too, will be tabooed.

The season the shine ball was apparently overdone. Nearly every pitcher with a few exceptions tried to throw the shine ball, with the result that some became remarkably effective and others lost their effectiveness. The most of them, however, developed so much ineffectiveness that the game in pitchers' contests. The hitting decreased and a howl of protest was heard from the batters.

It was the consequence of the deceptive shine ball.

YOUNG CHANEY OUTPOINTS CHAMP

Kilbane Unable to Land Effective Blow; Other Good Bouts

By Associated Press
Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 30.—Young Chaney, of Baltimore, out-fought and out-pointed Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion, in an eight-round bout here last night. In the opinion of the majority of the New York morning paper writers.

Chaney weighed 122 pounds and the champion 125. The Baltimore boxer took the aggressive at the start, although not as clever as Kilbane, often sent in blows so fast that the titleholder was frequently forced to clinch. Chaney took the first, third, fourth and seventh rounds, and Kilbane the second and eighth. The fifth and sixth were even.

The best blow Kilbane landed was in the second round when he placed a right smash to the right eye. In the last round Kilbane tried to score a knockout, but Chaney fought back hard.

Other Fast Bouts

Jeff Smith, of Bayonne, knocked out Jack Conn of Orange, N. J., in the second round. Smith weighed 157 and Coyne 155.

Gene Turner, light-heavyweight champion of the American Expeditionary Force, scored a knockout over Bob Pearce, of Chicago, in the second round of an eight-round match here last night. Turner weighed 175 pounds; Pearce, 166. The bell saved Pearce in the first round when he was down from a right uppercut to the head. His seconds threw in the sponge in the next round after the second knockdown.

Tom Cowler, the English heavy-weight, won in the third round from Al Reich, of New York who was disqualified when his seconds sprayed him with water while on the canvas. The weights were: Cowler, 212; Reich, 205.

Reich did well for a minute for the first round, but took the defensive thereafter. He was floored twice in the second round, the bell ringing as the count reached six on the second knockdown. In the third round, he went down from a light push blow.

Illness prevented Harry Greb, of the United States Navy, from meeting Augie Ratner, the A. E. F. middle-weight champion.

Harrisburg Independents Meet Fast Team When Locust Gap Five Plays

Harrisburg Independents will meet a much stronger team New Year's night when they go up against the Locust Gap five. This will be the second game. In the previous game, Locust Gap lost out by a score of 50 to 37. For the game Thursday the visitors will have a squad of eight stars.

The locals will have their regular lineup. Ike McCord, who was out Saturday night, will be back in the lineup. Eddie Wallower will be on hand along with Kline, McLaughlin, Ford and Gerdes. The Independents had a hard practice last evening in the P. R. Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

Jimmy Doyle will head the Locust Gap crowd. He has been putting up a great game since he played here and has been doing some long distance shooting. With him will be Sebastian, McHugh, Betz, Mariaki and McGinn. The game will start at 8.15 and will be followed with a special New Year's dance program.

DISCUSS COLLEGE SPORTS

New York, Dec. 30.—The National Collegiate Athletic Association opened its fourteenth annual convention here to-day with a review of the work accomplished during the past year. The forenoon session included several other speakers, notably Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, who spoke in a general way, on "Efficiency As a National Asset."

HOT IN CALIFORNIA

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 30.—The exceptionally hot weather of the last few days has resulted in a decision to begin the annual New Year's day Tournament of Roses football contest, between teams representing Harvard and Oregon Universities, this year, at 2.30 p. m. instead of at 2 p. m. It was announced to-day by the football committee.

BALL CLUBS CHANGE CAMPS FOR ANNUAL TRAINING; TEN TEAMS MAKE SHIFTS

New York, Dec. 30.—Changing training camps continues to be a popular diversion of major league club owners during the off-season. A year ago 12 of the 16 clubs were sent to pastures other than those where their training had been done in 1919, and the announcement of plans for the 1920 conditioning campaign shows that ten are to desert the cities where they worked out a year ago.

The ten changes are evenly divided between the two leagues. It is interesting to note that only two clubs, the Chicago Cubs and the Cleveland Indians, have not made a change in the brief space of three years.

An odd feature concerning the 1920 training rests is the fact that the ten teams which tried out the home training system last year are going far from home this time. The St. Louis Cardinals, after a season of conditioning at home, are scheduled to work the kinks out of their arms next Spring in Brownsville, Texas, said to be the most southerly point ever chosen for a training camp by a major league club. The Philadelphia Athletics, the other home trainers of 1919, will get into condition at Lake Charles, La.

Official announcements as to training locations have not been made by the owners of the Chicago Cubs, St. Louis American League clubs, but it is generally believed that the White Sox will go to Wabash, Texas, and the Browns to Mobile, Ala. It is known positively that the Sox will not return to Mineola, Tex., where they have trained for several years past, and the Browns have passed up San Antonio, Texas, where they have stayed for the New York Giants. McGraw goes back to Texas after one try on the Atlantic coast, but he has named up Martin, where the New York teams trained annually from 1908 to 1918, in Louisiana.

In many instances cities which have been passed up by one major league club are taken by another. Washington makes Tampa, passed up by the Red Sox; the Giants go to St. Antonio, which the Browns passed up. The White Sox are slated for Wabash, where the world's champion Reds got a National League pennant and then a world's championship, while the Reds go to Miami, Fla., a city which the Braves gave up a year ago after conditioning there for several years.

Same Old Place
The Yankees, Tigers, and the Cubs, Robins, and Braves of the National League are the clubs which will return to the scenes of the 1919 conditioning campaigns.

Florida is again the leader among the States chosen for training purposes, having been selected by four clubs. Texas is next in line with three, while Arkansas, Louisiana, Georgia, and Alabama will each entertain two major league teams. California will have one club.

The Boston Red Sox and Pittsburgh Pirates, after training for several consecutive years at Hot Springs, gave up that city within the last two years, but both will return to the Arkansas resort next March. The training camps for 1920 and the cities where the clubs worked out last Spring are as follows:

American League
New York—1920, Jacksonville, Fla.; 1919, Jacksonville, Fla.
Boston—1920, Hot Springs, Ark.; 1919, Tampa, Fla.
Washington—1920, Tampa, Fla.; 1919, Augusta, Ga.
Philadelphia—1920, Lake Charles, La.; 1919, Philadelphia, Pa.
Chicago—1920, Wabash, Tex.; 1919, Mineral Wells, Tex.
Cleveland—1920, New Orleans, La.; 1919, New Orleans, La.

St. Louis—1920, Mobile, Ala.; 1919, San Antonio, Tex.
National League
New York—1920, San Antonio, Tex.; 1919, Gainesville, Fla.
Boston—1920, Jacksonville, Fla.; 1919, Jacksonville, Fla.
Brooklyn—1920, Hot Springs, Ark.; 1919, Hot Springs, Ark.
Cincinnati—1920, Pasadena, Cal.; 1919, Pasadena, Cal.
Cincinnati—1920, Miami, Fla.; 1919, Wabash, Tex.
Philadelphia—1920, Hot Springs, Ark.; 1919, Hot Springs, Ark.
St. Louis—1920, Brownsville, Tex.; 1919, Louisville, Ky.
Probable selections.

TWO GAMES FOR TECH TOSSERS

Maroons Meet Alumni Team Tomorrow Night; Baltimore Plays Friday

Tech tossers have two games scheduled for this week. To-morrow night the Maroon meets the Alumni Five and Friday night the Baltimore Polytechnic tossers will be the attraction. At these games and all others scheduled for this season there will be dance programs. An added feature to-morrow night will be a game between Tech Reserves and an all-star team.

The Alumni aggregation includes all college cage stars, including Glenn Killinger, the Penn State athlete; Houston, of Penn State; Elmer, of Bucknell; and W. Scheffer, formerly of Gettysburg; R. Shroy, of the Galahad R. C. city; "Dutch" Miller, of the University of Michigan; "Midge" McGann, of Bucknell; Eddie Harris, Elwood Sourbier and Johnny Beck.

Beck's Injury Bothers Him
From present appearances the Tech varsity lineup will include Lingle and Beck at forwards; Willsbach at Center, and Smith and Frank at ends. Emanuel, of Snyder, two players who have figured in little with the Tech Reserves so far this season, are regarded as being strong candidates, and will make hard fights for positions.

Beck is not in the best of condition to play Wednesday night, owing to a football injury which has been bothering him, somewhat, and it is probable that he will alternate with Emanuel during the Alumni battle. All the other Tech varsity men appear to be in good shape.

CLUBS TRADE PLAYERS

By Associated Press
Boston, Dec. 30.—A trade of players between the Washington and Boston clubs of the American League was announced yesterday. The Red Sox gave Roth, an outfielder, and Maurice Shannon, second baseman, and received in exchange Harper, a pitcher; Eddie Foster, second baseman, and Menosky, an outfielder. There was no money involved, it was said.
