REPUBLICAN CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Plans For Coming Year to Put Organization Well to the Front

WILLIAM H. HOFFMAN

Members of the Harrisburg Republican Club, meeting at their headquarters, 25 North Second street, last night elected William H. Hoffman, chief deputy sheriff of Dauphin county, as president for the coming year.

Other officers who were elected were Otto M. Baker, vice-president; LeRue Metzger, secretary; DeWitt A. Fry, treasurer; William D. Block, Herman Geiger and George B. Nebinger, trustees; Hiram Eisenberger, Charles McKay, C. A. Tress, Edward A. Falter and A. J. Bohl, membership committee.

President-elect Hoffman has been deputy sheriff in Dauphin county since 1909 when he took office under ex-Sheriff J. S. Reiff, of Lykens. He has been reappointed each term and recently Sheriff-elect George W. Karmy announced that he had retained Mr. Hoffman again.

The meeting last night was well attended and was an enthusiastic one. Plans for the coming year were discussed and a number of activities are being considered.

To-night the West End Republican Club will meet to elect officers. Alderman C. J. Householder, of the Tenth ward, has been nominated for the presidency.

Attorneys Gather at Easton For Big Meet

Easton, Pa., Dec. 30.—One of the largest gatherings of attorneys ever held in Easton was that which met in the Pomfret Club yesterday when the regular midwinter meeting of executive and other committees of the Pennsylvania Bar Association was held, with Judge Edward J. Fox, of this city, recently elected president of the association, presiding.

Prominent attorneys from many cities in the State were in attendance, and a pleasant time was spent at the luncheon.

Attorney General Schaeffer delivered an impressive address after Judge Fox had made the address of welcome. The Attorney General of Pennsylvania called attention to the part played by members of the legal profession in public affairs in the past and the great part they must play in solving the perplexing problems of the future.

Gen. Barry, With Record of Service in Islands and World War, Is Dead

Washington, Dec. 30.—Major General Thomas H. Barry, retired, former commander of the Central Department and chief Department of the East, died at the Walter Reed Hospital here at 2.45 A. M. to-day, after an illness of three weeks. Uraemic poisoning was the direct cause of death.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, but it was announced that the body would be sent to New York for burial.

General Barry was 64 years of age, and was retired from the Army last October 13, at which time he was commander of the Central Department, with headquarters at Chicago. Before that he organized and trained the Eighty-sixth National Army Division at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill.

After his retirement, the General came to Washington with Mrs. Barry and was on retired duty here until taken ill. His wife and his son, John Barry, were at his bedside when he died.

General Barry was born in New York and graduated from the Military Academy in 1877. He served as adjutant general of the Eighth Army Corps and Department of the Pacific in the Philippines from August, 1898, to February, 1900, and on his return to the islands was chief of staff, Division of the Philippines, from November, 1900, to July, 1901.

On Western Front

In 1907 General Barry was given command of the Army of Cuban Pacification and on his return to the United States with his troops in 1909 he was appointed commander of the Department of California. In 1910 he was made superintendent of the Military Academy and later was assigned to command the Department of the East. He also served as commander of the Department of the Philippines and was commander of the Central Department from 1915 to 1917, when he was sent to Camp Grant.

With other divisional commanders, General Barry was sent to the western front for a tour of inspection after the United States entered the war, and on his return made strenuous efforts to obtain an active divisional command at the front. He was examined physically at the time and indications of the condition that brought about his death were discovered by the surgeons, although the General himself was not informed of the fact.

Because of his physical condition, however, he was not held to be available for front duty and when his division went overseas he was reassigned to command the Central Department.

New Year to Be Ushered in at the Penn-Harris

New Year's eve at the Penn-Harris Hotel is going to be a regular old-time, pre-prohibition affair with the exception that old John Barleycorn and his gang of headache producers will be nonattendants.

Manager Horace Wiggins, it is said, will personally appear in the vaudeville performance which is to be given in the evening in the lounge where a special stage will be erected.

Beginning with the dinner in the evening, there is going to be just one event after another; dancing will begin early in the evening in the ballroom and continue until 10.30 when the big show in the lounge is scheduled to begin. Manager Wiggins and Assistant Manager Worthington have secured the best vaudeville talent that New York affords, and a regular show will be presented. Guests in the diningroom will get the customary foolcaps and rattles; then there will be souvenir gifts for the women and cigars of some sort or other for the men. At 12 sharp the lights will be turned out and after a few minutes the crowd will hike for the ballroom again to take up their interrupted dancing.

Catholic Churches to Usher in the New Year

"The Old and the New Year" will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. Walter Conner, of Philadelphia, when Solemn Vespers and Benediction will be given in the St. Patrick's Cathedral on New Year's eve at 8 o'clock. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Philip R. McDevitt will be present in the sanctuary and the Rev. D. J. Carey will be celebrant of the vesper service. Special music by the choir will be given under the direction of Professor Brodeur.

On New Year's day the feast of the Circumcision of Our Lord will be observed in all of the Roman Catholic churches in the city. Beginning with the first mass celebrated by all the churches at 5.30 o'clock, there will be various masses throughout the day.

At seven o'clock mass will be celebrated at St. Patrick's Cathedral and at nine o'clock in St. Francis' Church. The last mass of the day will be a high mass, when St. Mary's, St. Lawrence and the Church of the Sacred Heart will celebrate it at eight o'clock. After all of the high masses the benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will be given.

First Million-Dollar Budget Passed Finally

Harrisburg's first million-dollar budget ordinance was passed unanimously to-day at the regular City Council meeting and the tax rate for 1920 was fixed at 12 mills, two mills higher than this year. The greater part of the revenue provided by the tax-rate measure will be used for improvement work and to pay for increasing cost of labor and materials.

The budget measure provides for appropriations totalling $1,042,516.06. Immediately after its passage Mayor D. L. Kelster signed it, together with the tax-rate measure. According to State law both measures become effective at once. Ordinarily ordinances by councils in third-class cities do not become effective until ten days after passage.

Shoplifting Increases, Merchants Report

Harrisburg merchants are complaining of an increase of thefts from the store rooms. According to several, more articles have been stolen from the counters and racks during the past six months than in any similar period in the histories of the organizations. This fact, it is reported, has been responsible for the addition of extra assistance in many instances to cope with the trouble.
