INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS ITEMS

Is Being Solemnized at

AT SHIPPENSBURG

nized Yesterday at Home of the Bride

The marriage of Miss Esther May long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Long, of Shippensburg, to the Rev. Raymond Chester Wałker, of Pottsvalue, was 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Dr. Aaron A. Long, of Chambersburg, an uncle of the bride, officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. Ross Stonesifer, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Stroudsburg.

terian Church, of Stroudsburg.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Vera
J. Long sang "Beloved," and "I Love You Truly." The "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin was played as a processional by Miss Claire Neftsker as the bridal party entered the room through an aisle formed by ribbons. The ribbon bearers were Master Daniel Long and Virginia
Long. The ceremony was read beneath an arch of mistletoe flanked on either side with laurel and ferns.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white duchesse satin trimmed with white sweetpeas.

8 Lulu Violet Long was bridesfor her sister. Her gown was chid Georgette crepe and she ed a bouquet of Ophelia roses.
Rev. William M. Kieffer was city, catering.

The bride is a well-known musician and a graduate of New York University. The bridegroom is a Princeton man and is pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Pottsville. After a tour of Southern States, Mr. and Mrs. Walker will be at home at $20 Mahantongo street, Pottsville.

Market street take it at his

to your home,

WED IN CHURCH THIS EVENING

Walker-Long Bridal Solem- Miss Helen Cook and Edward Froehlich - Witmer Wedding Miss Fahnestock, Reader, and Mrs. Hurlock and Daughters McManamy United in Marriage This Morning came the bride of J. Edward Mc-Manamy.

The Rev. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson officiated in the presence of the immediate families and a few personal friends. Christmas greens formed the decorations of church and chancel.

The bride wore a traveling costume of brown broadcloth with hat of brown satin, brocaded in gold, and a corsage bouquet of violets and orchids. There were no attendants. Immediately following the service Mr. and Mrs. McManamy started for a trip to New York and returning will reside for the present with Mrs. McManamy's parents. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cook, 306 Boas street.

The bride was a member of the class of 1918 Central High School, and Mrs. McManamy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. McManamy, of Royal Terrace, was a graduate from Central with the class of 1910 and of the Wharton School, 1917. He is connected with the accounting department of the Pennsylvania Rail-road Company.

Miss Cary Thomas, of Richmond.

Miss Cary Thomas, of Richmond, Va., is a holiday guest of her sister, Mrs. Luther Walters, of Market street, Pottsville.

Mrs. J. M. DeReamer, formerly Miss Esther Gruber, of 1405 Berry-hill street, leaves the city on Friday to join Mr. DeReamer in Philadelphia.

Jacob F. Gray and his sons Clyde and Edward B. Gray, of Pittsburgh, will spend New Years with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Arnheim, of Green street.

Visiting the Shops AVE you ever seen anything more cunning than baby as he delightedly plays and cooes the woolly lamb that Santa brought him for Christmas? he too adorable for words, and you wish you just had a pictof him as he glances roguishly osmile in your face? Well, not? You will enjoy the memit brings in years to come, baby himself has grown to good and can appreciate it, too, at he simple matter to have it is why you should buy at a store!

The other attendants. Mrs. Frederick Bowman Dapp, Miss Martha Miller, Miss Elizabeth Dill and Miss Helen Wallis, will wear attractive gowns of embroidered gray Georgette with ruffled skirts. Silver streamers brighten their hats of black tulle and their costumes will be completed by flowers, arranged in sheaves, with clusters of red roses 'intermingling with sprays of maiden hair fern.

E. Hill Roberts will be best man with the ushers as follows: L. Richard Kinnard, of Wynnewood; Aldine Itakin, of Hagerstown; Edgar McNeal and Jack Froehlich.

Immediately following the ceremony there will be an informal reception at the Witmer home, 219 Maclay street, where a decorative scheme of blue and white has been effectively carried out. Masses of stevia, narcissus and white bouvardia have been banked on the mantel and the table is graced with a low basket of similar flowers. Tall candelabra with blue shades will furnish the illumination in the diningroom.

Captain During War

The bride, one of the city's most popular girls, is a graduate of Central High school, class of 1915, and of the Ethical Culture School, N. Y., where she took a course in kindergarten work, class of 1915, and off the Ethical Culture School, N. Y., where she took a course in kindergarten for a year.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Central High school, class of 1915, He later attended Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg, leaving to enlist in the Army. He received his commission as lieutenant at Fort Niagara and was later promoted to captain while overseas where he served for eleven months. During that time he was severely gassed. Mr. Froehlich served about two years in all with an infantry machine gun unit. He is at present connected with the Harrisburg National Bank. After the reception the young couple will leave on a brief wedding trip. The bride will wear a brown, seal-trimmed traveling suit with a close fitting hat of brown duvetyne and velvet. On their return they will reside in Camp Hill where they have recently built a new home.

Among the of charm of a frock or a cloak. That is why you should buy at a store we where attention is paid to suiting u your type and where the stock is chosen with discriminating care. Such a shop is that of the Cloos Company, where provision is made for each individual taste. there baby will be at his best.

HOES can indicate care and refinement just as easily as anything else. Indeed, we are frequently judged by our footwear. How often we hear some one say, I know he's well groomed, but look at his feet!" And, looking, we find the one flaw in an otherwise perfect appearance. Now, why be careless in the matter of shoes? It surely isn't to our credit. Men are usually the chief offenders, for women, as a rule, take great pride in their feet. Men would, too, if they once acquired the habit of being neatly and stylishly shod in—well, let's say Army and Navy shoes. I mention them particularly because the shoes found in the little Court street shop enjoy the distinction of being unsurpassed in quality or style.

for each individual tace.

A LITTLE bride remarked sevum in the real days ago that among the many beautiful gifts she received none pleased her more than co her pictures. "Indeed," she controlled in the men's several more. Those that I was forturate enough to receive a were all so very, very good that I resuppose I should be satisfied. But, I guess I'm just another living proof of the old saying that the more we have the more we want. I'm sure I could never get too many of the type I now have—the very best. The funcy part is that they all came from Saltzgiver's Art and Antique Store, 223 North Second street. And yet it's not so peculiar, is it, when yet it's not so peculiar, is it, wh

Centralians to Hold

An "old-time" meeting of the Centralian Society will be held on Saturday evening at the home of the President, Richard Mount, 11 North Fifteenth street, according to an announcement made by Secretary Pavord last night. This will mark the first gathering of the society since the Easter banquet last April when the Harrisburg High School Alumni Association was organized. The Centralians are graduates of Central High School, who since graduation have entered various fields of business as well as continuing their education in various institutions. Some of the latter which will be represented at Saturday night's meeting are: Lafayette, Penn State, Dickinson, Gettysburg, Bucknell and the College of the City of New York. The honorary member of the society, Benjamin Whitman, formerly of this city and late of Williamsport, who saw active service overseas as a Y. M. C. A. secretary, will be present at the meeting, Secretary Pavord said.

LEAP-YEAR DANCE

LEAP-YEAR DANCE
A Leap-Year Dance will be held Friday evening in the Civic Club, with Updegrove's orchestra playing.
The committee in charge is headed by Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming, Jr., and Miss Susanna Fleming.

PRETTY WEDDING POPULAR FOLKS CHURCH BRIDAL TWO YOUNG GIRLS ANOTHER HOLIDAY L. M. Melius Entertains Those GREATLY GIFTED DANCE TONIGHT

Will Entertain Young Peo-

lis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bergner,
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ford, of Port Deposit; Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Binsaman, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Curzon Fager, Mr. and Mrs. William Weidersheim, of St. Davids; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dulles, bf 'miladelphia; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Rebuck.

John McPherson Bergner, of Phila

to Party of Small Folks

Mrs. Bergner Hostess

Braconev-Lentz Bridal

Miss Bevard, Pianiste,

One of the holiday weddings of unusual interest because of the wide popularity of both folks, was that taking place this morning at 10 o'clock in the Messiah Lutheran Church, when Miss Helen Cook became the bride of J. Edward Mc.

The Rev. Dr. Happy W. A. Vic.

Infant Is Christened in Presence of Friends

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Meily, of Pitts-urgh, with their infant daughter, re spending the holiday season with frs. E. O. Shaffner, 107 Boas street. Mrs. E. O. Shaffner, 107 Boas street.
Last evening a pretty ceremony was performed at the Shaffner home,
when the Rev. Dr. Morris E. Swartz, secretary of the Federation of Methodist Churches, baptized the baby in the presence of the following guests:
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Meily, Mr.
and Mrs. Charles W. Meily, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Meily and daughter,
Miss Louise Meily; Mrs. Morris E.
Swarts, Miss Addie Greathead and Miss Stella Butler.

Miss Butler gave an interesting musical program of piano and vocal solos and at the conclusion of the ceremony an informal social hour was enjoyed.

Entertains S. S. Class at Little Party Last Night

The Sunday school class of the intermediate department of Market Square Presbyterian Church taught by Mr. Saunders was entertained last lor and Edward Taylor, 2307 North Fifth street. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens and holiday suggestions. Games, con-

David McHolland, Harold Hibler Frank Nye, Samuel Roth, Theodore Langdon, John Glazier, Leroy Yingst, Edward Hawes, H. Albert Taylor and Edward Taylor.

Entertains in Honor of Pittsburgh Visitor

Mrs. Clarence C. Walters, of 2432 Canby street. Penbrook, gave at Executive Mansion George

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rebeil, of Tuc-son, Arizona, are the guests of Mrs. Rebeil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cumbler, of Highspire, over the holi-day season. Mrs. Rebeil was for-merly Miss Evelyn Cumbler.

merly Miss Evelyn Cumpier.

Ridgeway Bishop, of Chicago, and Malcolm Lowe, of Tenafly, N. J., will be New Year's guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stamm. Thirteenth and Reese streets.

Mrs. Charles R. Henery, of 2045

Mrs. Charles R. Henery, of 2045

Derry street, who underwent a seriDerry street, who underwent as seridence in Kittatinny street.

Miss Samuel W. Fleming, Jr., and Miss Susanna Fleming.

Dr. and Mrs. George Hursh Ensminger, of Glen Ellyn, Chicago, with their family have been hollday guests of Major and Mrs. John T. Ensminger, 221 Forster street.

Edward B. McFadden, of Columbus, Ohio, a former Harrisburger, spent hollday week with old friends at 1624 Green street.

Mr. and Mrs. David K. Shelton and Children Marie and Donald Shelton left for their home in Pittsburgh to-day after a week's stay among relatives in this vicinity. Miss Elizabeth Young and her small sister Kathleen, of Baltimore, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Stephen Jackson, of Herr street.

Mrs. William A. Hiester and Miss Mary Hiester, Front and Herr streets, eame home last evening after a little trip to Philadelphia.

M. Evelyn Essick

Teacher of Singing Studio, 1813 Whitehall St.

HEINZ SALESMEN AT PENN-HARRIS

of Central Pennsylvania Field at Annual Dinner

L. M. Melius, manager for the H. J. Heinz Company in the Central Pennsylvania district, entertained his office and sales force at the Penn-Harris Hotel last evening at dinner, the affair being a part of the three days program being outlined by the sales force for the coming year.

to Samuel S. Fresheh, on or Mr. bemind Mrs. Charlet, Deckle, Little three days program being outline this evening, at 5 o'clock, in the listelhelme Luthern Church, the listelhelme Luther

D. M. Linnard, Hotel Magnate, Sells Out

to N. Y. Company
Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 31.—Announcement was made here of a sweeping change in ownership of America's biggest hotel chain, which however, will only hasten the completion of the huge $20.000,000 hotel construction project now in progress here.

Governor Sproul as Presidential Candidate

John McPherson Bergner, of Philadelphia, who is visiting his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bergner, 1919 North Front street, was honor guest yesterday afternoon, at a holiday party arranged by his grandmother. Games and contests preceded refreshments.

On the invitation list were: Mary Imbrie, Betty Imbrie, Elizabeth Labaree, Marie Mausteller, Rebeca-Johnston, Frances Davis, Margaret Donaldson, Katherine Payne, Betty Oenslager, Virlerine Payne, Betty Oenslager, Virleri Presidential Candidate

Discussing presidential possibilities in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post, Samuel Blythe, the well-known political observer, mentions Governor Sproul. Respecting the Pennsylvania executive's qualifications he says: "Another type is Governor William C. Sproul, of Pennsylvania, who is a Republican. He also is a businessman, a man of large affairs, who has been in politics a long time in his State. He has been Governor of Pennsylvania for a year, and before that had a long service in the State Senate. His business interests are at Chester, where he is active in many lines, particularly in ships and shipbuilding, which gives added qualifications inasmuch as a great deal of our future business expansion and prosperity will depend on shipping and the proper handling of our shipping affairs. Sproul's political and business records are open for inspection, presumably. He is an example of the sort of man who might do well because of his experience.

"It may be that Governor Sproul, upon examination, will be found to be too political in his bearings because Pennsylvania is an intensely, but intensively, political, also. An investigation would be necessary."

The first page of the Post bears a fine picture of Governor Sproul delivering his inaugural address.

VISITS HER CLASSMATE Davis, Margaret Donaldson, Katherine Payne, Betty Oenslager, Virginia Fox, Betty Fox, Anna Jane McAllister, Helen MacDonald, Grazia MacDonald, Elizabeth Shearer, Christine Brandt, Florence Hamilton, Frances Jones of Baltimore, Helen Jones, Jane Gannett, Anna Brandt, Peggy Harman, Boas Maguire, Harry Neale, Hummer Berghaus, Jack Bent, Louis Green, Carol Brandt, Hugh Hamilton, Russel Baldwin, Jimmie Caldwell, Alfred Jennings, Teddy Gilbert, John Moffit, Henry Moffit, Robert Moffit, Henry Gilbert, Spencer Hall, Rich Jennings, Teddy Gibert, John Mor-fit, Henry Moffit, Robert Moffit, Henry Gilbert, Spencer Hall, Rich-ard Sponsler, Benjamin Labaree, John Pearson, William Pearson, Ed-ward Pearson, Lesley McCreath, Jimmie McCreath and William Ross. Event of Last Sunday

cer of Sixth and Boas streets, was a quiet event of Sunday afternoon, December 28 at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home by the Rev. H. R. Bender, pastor of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church. After congratulations and good wishes a wedding dinner was served to the following guests: The Rev. H. R. Bender, Russel Lentz, Mrs. Harry Miller and William Foster, of Philadelphia. sister and brother of the bride; Mrs. John Wallower, Marysville; Mr. and Mrs. Fulmer J. Relf and son, Fulmer Beif, Jr., Mis. S. S. Glassner and Miss Leone Glassner, of Wormleysburg; Mr. and Mrs. Helster Culp, Mrs. George Kerns, Miss Bessie Tagg, Miss Edith Smith and Mrs. Katharine Darrow.

Mrs. Lentz was attired for the DINNER, THURSDAY, JAN. 1 Stouffer's Restaurant 50¢

Come in and try one of our home-cooked dinners. You have 15 to 20 dishes to nelect from. Dinner consists of one noup, one ment, two vegetables, one entree, one dessert, coffee, tea or cocon. A trial will make you a pleased contemps.

It is a pleasure for us to wish to our many friends and customers

A Most Prosperous and Happy New Year

BLOOM'S-19 N. Third St

Wedding Is Solemnized

The marriage of Miss Esta Mary

at Home of Clergyman man, the Rev. W. E. Pottieger, 2639

The bridegroom served in the Stahler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Navy during the war. They will A. Stahler, of 1906 State street, reside temporarily at the bride's to Charles Daniel Banks, of this city, home, 1906 State street.

MARY ELIZABETH SHOP

Exclusively
Girls Dresses
Skirls & Coats 266 - 6617

109A N. 2nd. St.

PENN HARRIS HOTEL BUILDING

A Happy New Year

With the approach of the New Year it is our desire to thank you for your patronage, which has helped to make this new store a success beyond our expectations for the first nine business months.

We are proud of our record-proud that we have been able to serve you, we hope to your satisfaction. May we not do something more?

It occurs to us that perhaps you may have some suggestion to make that will enable us to come closer to our goalabsolute, 100 per cent. satisfaction to those we are trying to serve. We will welcome your criticism; it gives us the incentive to do better things.

Wishing you all the good things in life, with a happy prosperous 1920, we are Very truly yours,

The Cloos Company

A Tribute To Harrisburg

Sixteen months ago Harrisburg awoke to find a little bit of Fifth Avenue set down in its midst in the shape of my shop. And Harrisburg responded with its patronage A year ago this business was a toddling infant of four months; a thrifty babe but still untested. Today I can look back to sixteen months of steady growth and consistent success. And to the keen judgment of Harrisburg's women is due the credit. They realize that, value considered, my prices were lower than in any Harrisburg store displaying women's apparel. They learned that as regards style no Harrisburg store approached my standards. The success of this enterprise is much more of a compliment to the taste and discernment of my patrons than it is to my business ability.

It is with a sense of the deepest appreciation of the support that Harrisburg has lent us that I extend to the people of our city on behalf of myself and my loyal staff of helpers our most sincere wishes for a Happy 1920.

Mary Sachs

NEW YEAR'S DAY 12 to 8

"From The Big Store on the Hill"

TURKEY DINNER

PAR EXCELLENCE

PLAZA CAFE

As the Old Year closes let us pause long enough to wish to our great host of friends and customers the heartiest, and happiest, and most prosperous sort of a

New Year

Fackler's Furniture and Carpets Derry Street at Thirteenth

Edith Smith and Mrs. Katherine Darrow.

Mrs. Lentz was attired for the wedding in a handsome gown of midnight blue satin with embroidered Georgette overdress, The newlyweds will reside at Sixth and Boas