UNION COUNTY STAR & LEWISBURG CHRONICLE---MAY 27, 1859.

Jemmy, the Town-Crier.

Mr. Nixou, Cashier of the Bauk of Columbia, at Albany, in going late in the evening from the office to the house, lost the key of the Bank ; but it was near midnight before he missed it. Not wishing to crease an alarm by a search at that late hour, he concluded to say nothing about it till morning; but the search in the morning proved unsuccessful, and, as the last resort, Jemmy was sent for. The particulars were related, and Jemmy was directed to cry the lost key through the let no one know that it was the key of the bank. So, a little after sunrise, Jemmy commenced his round, bell in handcling-ding ! eling-ding ! "Hare ya ! hare Review at pleasure.

ya !" But, carly as it was, Jemmy had been up long enough to get pretty well corned, and as the boys were collecting and shouting at his heels, his memory became confused, and the several particulars [782] of time and place, with his instructions what to say and what not to say, got, somehow or other, all jumbled together. But, LEWISB'RG ACADEMY his ideas, he began again :

"liare ya! hare ya! Lost, between Jamy Nixon's and twalve o'clock at night, a large kay I"

Here the boys interrupted him with: "What sort of a key was it, Jemmy? What wart of a key was it ??

"Go to the de'il !" eried Jemmy, turn-"Go to the de'ii ?" eried Jemmy, turn-ing short upon them, "an' I tell ye that ge'll be after getting into the Bank with Avvanche Evoldsin-all not included above.] 500 LANGUAGES. it "

INDIAN ANECDOTE .- Sequashequash, an Indian of the remains of a tribe in Connecticut, was some years since brought before a Justice of the Peace, on some charge or other which I do not recollect. John happened to be drunk at the time, and instead of answering directly to the questions put by the Justice, merely mut-tored out "Your Honor is very were" tered out, "Your Honor is very-very wise-very wise-y-y-your Honor is very wise, I say."

Being unable to get any other answer from him, the Justice ordered him to be locked up till the next day, when John was brought before him perfectly sober.

"Why, John,,' said the Justice, "you were as drank as a beast, yesterday. When I asked you any questions, the only answer you made was-'Your Honor's very wise -very wise." "

"Did I call your honor wise ?" said the Indian, with a look of incredulity.

"Yes," answered the magistrate. "Then," replied John, "I must have been drunk, sure enough."

SEVERE PENALTY -- The Police of Janesville, Wis., have issued the following order :

" Take Notice !- All persons residing in the city of Janesville, owning, or having the city of Janesville, owning, or having in his or her possession, any dog or bitch, and suffering the same to run at large without being securely muzzled, so as to per pock; Blank Deeds and Bonds; a large prevent their biting, will be killed if found at large after April 26, 1859. By order of the Mayor.'

Ayer's Sarsaparilla A compound remedy, in which we have la-bored to produce the most effectual alternative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsapatilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sursequilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by exper-

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel®the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timeblood at that season of the year. By the time-ly expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bad. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous scree, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body this infronga the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is ob-structed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown. Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has here acteriously desired by the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else. During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsapa-rilla, but often no curative properties whater-er. Hence, hitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intendby the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy she be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
