Early Grain. SOME OATS.—Joseph W. Shiner has left with us specimens of Oats, the seed obtained from John Black of Lancaster, sowed on the 12th of April, cut 14th July, threshed 20th July, and weighs forty-three pounds to the bushel.

On Tuesday night a week, the 12 o'clock passenger train, on the Northern Central Railroad, ran over a man about two miles from the Strasburg station. His left arm was completely severed from the shoulder, a severe cut inflicted through the chest, and his legs were mangled in a horrible manner, causing almost instant death.

Mr. W. H. Smith, of the firm of W. H. Smith & Co., of Philadelphia, has just received a large assortment of the most beautiful and useful of all household goods, including cut glass, porcelain, and china.

Wheat, neighbors, you are very "cute young men, but you big leave to say— Iat. The quotation you make, we measured from a paper in your district, and, referring in express terms to the "Times Journal," was correct enough for all practical purposes.

24. Our quotation appeared under the head "News from Other Counties," and could not have misled any sensible man. 33. Suppose, in the press of newspaper business we had made an error? If it misled nobody, if it injured nobody, is it worth while to waste the ink and the iron you have in this case? We see such little errors as you supposed we made, in our best exchanges, every week.

From Southern Wisconsin. (Correspondence of the Star & Chronicle.) Jefferson, Green Co., July 14. We had a very heavy frost on the 31st of June—look at our corn, tomatoes, potatoes and garden truck down to the ground. Our "glorious 5th" again, a frost bleached our corn somewhat. But we now have very warm weather, and corn looks very well—considering. There are excellent prospects for Wheat, Oats and Potatoes. We expect to commence harvest about the 25th of this month.

By Telegraph. Armistice... Hope of Peace! New York, July 21--P. M. The steaming Africa left Liverpool 9th inst, arrived at this port this morning. There has been no further fighting in Italy. The latest news is that an armistice has been effected between the Austrians and the Allies until the 15th August. There are strong hopes that this will lead to a permanent peace.

Best Harvest on Record. The Philadelphia Express states that private and public advisers from all parts of Europe, the Canada, and the United States, concur in the opinion that the Harvests of 1859 will be very far greater than any which the West has ever known.

On Wednesday afternoon, the College grounds will be opened for carriage. At all times, carriages can approach within a short distance of the main Hall by taking the road just in the rear of the buildings.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Where the whole generation is young, it is well to take an infallible remedy for the cure of the following ailments: Cough, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Breast, Dropsy of the Lungs, and all other ailments of the Chest.

Wheat and Rye Harvests have been mostly gathered in this region, and some of our farmers talk of "tackling" the Oats to-morrow. Corn has been greatly benefited by the recent showers.
