

UNION COUNTY STAR & LEWISBURG CHRONICLE--OCT. 7, 1859.

Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 7, 1859.

A PERTINENT—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Farmers, &c., who do business in City or Country, Public records, which will be for sale, will be pleased to explore the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large number of active, intelligent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

See New Advertisements.

Now is Your Chance!

THE GENERAL ELECTION will afford a good opportunity to get Subscribers (in Clubs or otherwise) for the "STAR & CHRONICLE." Let one or more try, at every Election District, each voter. TERM--$1.50 one copy; 4 copies for $8; 10 copies for $10—Cash in Advance.

We ask special attention to the above proposition. The Presidential Elect will make it necessary to have a wider circulation of information. The faithlessness of a professed Republican paper in our country shows the importance of having an open and reliable one.

On Election Day, every voter can be seen, and large lists can be made up with little trouble, if some one or more make their exclusive business. A gentleman last week sent us a list of ten from Buffalo X Roads; another got a club of eleven at the Battalion in Hartleton. Clubs may also be raised in Kelly, White Deer, Buffalo, West Buffalo, Mifflin, New Berlin, Union, and East Buffalo, if one or more suitable men improve that favorable opportunity.

DO NOT TRUST IT.—The Argus, last year, stated that a certain issue was their last before election. Nevertheless, the day of the election, it came out, full of attacks upon our candidates, &c. It may do this trick again; but, in advance, we warn the public against heeding it; it has had ample time to argue its cause and its candidates fairly. Any last clap-trap expedient may be set down as unfair or discreditable.

Mr. BUCHER, the Buchanan candidate for District Attorney—not being otherwise engaged—we learn, has been for some weeks electrocutoring in every nook and corner of the county, with all parties, and his smoothest tongue and handsomest laugh and bow for everyone. A great many promised, to get rid of him, and some with whom he "smiled" laughed at his political verdancy as soon as his back was turned.

Several have inquired for Mr. LINN, very desirous of seeing him before election. He has made one or two trips prior duties, which he could not neglect with justice to his clients, may prevent his visiting all parts of the county. While we write this, he is attending the Supreme Court at Sunbury, professionally. His friends and acquaintances, throughout this, his native county, should not allow him to suffer from account of his necessary absence; and all those who desire to see or be electrocuted by him, must please consider themselves "out" before he begins.

HARD TIMES—THEIR CAUSE.—The Union Co. Dem. Convention, and their hundred-eyed Argus, have for a month past declared that there were any "hard times," but intimated that times were flush, money plenty, and everything going on swimmingly. Yesterday's Argus, states that times are awful hard—taxes monstrous heavy—and ruin and vice staring every man in the face! And all the ingenuity, dark cloud of evil has settled upon us, here in Union county, because the people thereof have dared not to elect Democrat to office!

But, how is the Democratic National Treasury, neighbor? How are Arkansas and your other unshining Democratic States? How are many Democratic counties, where County Officers go as they do here?

Messrs. Laird and Marshall are quite as honest and as capable as Messrs. Green and Kelley, and neither of them will get up a "shaving shop!" Don't be afraid of Samuel Marshall or Robert H. Laird; our people know them too well to be prejudiced against them by a comparative stranger.

As far as we know, our Commissioners endeavor to be economical. Heavy expenses have been incurred, which will soon be paid off. They are paying less, for Printing, than is paid in any county near or adjoining ours—less than Sullivan, Clinton, Juniata, Snyder or Mifflin. We know they have resisted the efforts of certain expansionists' Editors to get deeper into the County Treasury, and doubt the secret of their cry for "change" is to get more "change" out of the Office.

The Argus says, "TRY A CHANGE OF men"—Aye—aye! We go for a change in Prothonotary, Commissioner, District Attorney, Surveyor, Treasurer, and Auditor—the names of good men to effect a "change" are all at the head of this paper.

There are numbers of Democrats in the county, who say, "three times and out," and having voted for Mr. Roush three times, will not do it again. It was the "last time" in 1853, and "certainly the last time" in 1856!

The Press states that Sands had 18 instead of 1 majority at the Delegate election in Mifflinburg. We were informed as we stated.

Shall glorious little Union fall before this year? Other Counties and States are advancing, shall we retrograde? GET OUT THE FALL VOTE, and all will be well!

"CHARLEY," one of the last relics of Slavery in Pennsylvania, died in Lewisburg, last Sunday. His exact age, we have not ascertained, but hope so to do, hereafter.

Two Working Days remain before Election. Have you made arrangements to get all our friends out? See that not a man remains behind!

Jacob Sebold of New Berlin, Pa., has received a patent for an improvement in grain separators.

It is expected that the Opposition will hold a meeting in Mifflinburg, on THIS (Friday) EVENING. Turn out!

BURSH & GOODMAN have their New Goods, at the old HAYES' stand.

We have not been able to get out, but understand the UNION COUNTY FAIR is in the "full tide of successful experiment."

We are told that some have construed our protest against "rowdies, smoking with rum and tobacco," extorting upon the Fair Ground, as aimed against all who "drink," chew, snuff, or smoke. Not so—persons indulging in these habits, can conduct themselves like gentlemen, and not be offensive to the nostrils of people generally. Frequently, however, ladies are insulted and sickened and their dresses ruined, by the saliva and smoke of persons who are forcibly brought into crowded points. Men in this way are often offensive without intending it.

We have been thanked for that him by ladies and others whose favor is quite as important as that of any who would not any fault with our structure. The Fair should be so controlled that women and children can go pleasantly, and safely; but a man might as well smoke a cigar in a church as under the roof of a Fair.

The Opposition have gained one Cong. resman in Georgia.

Vote the Whole Ticket!

SYMPATHY.—Some of Mr. Roush's friends electrocute in this wise: "Mr. Roush is poor—he has a large family to support—is liberal and generous—and owes many debts which he is anxious to pay off." To which it is replied: "His poverty is his own fault, for he inherited a fortune, which he lost by no providential dispensation—his family is grown up, and able to look out for themselves—he has received from the people of Union county, $20,000 or $25,000, in his different offices—and if he has not yet paid these long promised debts, it is not probable, at this time of life, he ever will."

Mr. BIGLER's friends urge, on his behalf, that he by no means rich, although during twenty years of hard bodily toil as a mechanic, he has earned a respectable livelihood. He is, however, not as lean in health as formerly, and a lighter employment would probably lengthen his days. He has never received anything from the public for office, yet has done as much for the general welfare as any of his years and means. He is not much in his debt, but might easily become so if that is any recommendation. His children are young, and are yet to be reared and educated.

So the arguments run. We are not cognizant of the facts alleged, but if all correct on the score of sympathy and merit it seems to us Bilger is "a little ahead."
