The Election

Pennsylvania repudiates Buchanan the second time!

Tuesday last, the President of the United States again appealed to the People of his native State to sustain his extravagant, corrupt, Free Trade, Pro Slavery Administration. Judge Douglas, and Gov. Packer's home organ, joined in recommending that both Lecompton and Anti-Lecompton Democrats rally in support of the Wright and Rowe State Ticket. But Col. Forney, the gallant Hickman and thousands of honest Democrats refused to sustain by their votes, such Men on such a Platform. The President came home to Lancaster to help his friends. His Philad. Navy Agent spent much time in this region for the good of the party. All over the State were the Men and the Money of the Administration industriously at work. But THE PEOPLE were not to be again deceived. Although the vote is small, the indications point to about for COCHRAN and KEIM over Rowe and Wright. Three years ago Mr. Cochran was cheated out of the post of Canal Commissioner by the proven frauds in Philad. He is now righted. Der Mr. Rowe was made a Surveyor General by the same actand he is now ousted!

We have GAINED the SENATE, which will help us elect U.S.Senator in place of Bigler, in 1861. We have retained the House by a less maj.

Philadelphia.

Mr. Mann is re-elected District Attorney, and Mr. Knight, Prothonotary, by about 3,000 each. We have 10 or 12 out of 17 Assemblymen. We gain 2 Senators-Smith and Connell.

We also gain Senator Hall in the Blair district-Senator A.K.M'Clure in the Franklin district-Senator Irvin in the Cumberland district, over Dr. E.D.Crawford of Juniata.

Snyder County.

Our friends there united like men. and gave every man on their ticket a maj, of 300 to 600. Isaac D. Boyer of Penns is elected Treasurer; Henry R. Knepp, of West Beaver, Commis-Freeburg, Auditors.

Northumberland.

Col. Amos T. Bisel, of Turbutville, defeats Gen.Wm.H.Kase, the Administration nominee for Assembly, by about 1000 votes. And Mr.Rohrabach of Sunbury defeats Dr. Robert H. Awl, the Adm. candidate for Treasurer.
