Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 2, 1859.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to consult the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation, in a community containing a large proportion of active, enterprising consumers and dealers, in any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ CHAMBERLIN BRO'S have removed their Mercantile Establishment to their fine, large, new room, corner Market and 5th Sts.

☞ There is only one daily Railroad train between Harrisburg, Sunbury, &c., and that arrives an hour later than formerly.

☞ Epaphroditus Ransom, late Governor of Michigan, and an office holder in Kansas, deceased, recently, aged 61 years.... Ex-Gov. Gilmer of Ga., is also dead.

☞ We understand that Fleming W. Pollock, late Cashier of the Bank at Lewisburg, has been elected President of the Shamokin Bank.

WASHINGTON IRVING died very suddenly at his home—"Sunnyside," in Irvington, N. Y.—28th ult., aged 76 years. Long will he be remembered with affection and honor. His last work was his illustrated Life of WASHINGTON.

☞ There were public Thanksgiving services held by all the churches in Lewisburg, Thursday of last week, excepting the Presbyterian, whose pastor was away from home. Generally, throughout the land, the day was well observed as a "National Thank-giving."

☞ "A Superintendent's Addresses to the Children of his Sabbath School," is an 18mo. of 156 pages, afforded at 20 and 25 cents, lately published by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, Phil. It is the production of A. Swineford, Esq. (of New Berlin) author of "Jane Eaton."

☞ We hope all Teachers, School Directors, and Friends of Education generally will remember the Institute at Mifflinburg, commencing on Monday next. They may be made very interesting and profitable occasions.

The Snyder county Institute meets at Freeburg, Monday the 26th Dec.

☞ The last Catalogues of the Departments of the University at Lewisburg foot up as follows:

Theological Department		12

Female Institute		82
The Students		210
The Teachers		12—222

☞ About 2 o'clock on Monday morning last JOHN OTT, ROW ATTORNEY was seen in his night clothes, in the third storey window of Omit's Hotel, in Harrisburg, crying "murder!" and shortly jumped upon the pavement; he was taken up, but in a few moments breathed his last, aged 49 y. 4 m. 13 d. A Coroner's Jury found that he died with delirium tremens. Mr. R. is well known as an energetic and prosperous Contractor on public works, and beloved for his many amiable qualities. He is the last of his family, but has cousins in this vicinity, who yesterday buried him in the Lewisburg Cemetery. He was an original Curator and benefactor of the University at Lewisburg.—Thus has fallen another victim to DRINK, who but for that subtle fiend might long have remained a comfort to his friends and a public blessing!

☞ J. M. MACK, formerly of this town, writes us from Kankakee City, Illinois, that the reports of the sufferings of the French Colony of Father Chiniquy, at St. Anns in that county, are greatly exaggerated; that they are about 200 or 300 in number; that some of them raised good crops, but many are indolent, improvident, and bad managers; that, not content with 40 acres each, they borrowed money of "land sharks," at 3 per cent per month, to buy 40 acres more, and thus lost all they had; and that, since the donations sent in to them, they have stopped cutting and hauling wood, and will smoke, laugh and dance until their money is spent. He evidently thinks it best to put them on their own resources, and says, any real sufferings will be relieved in the vicinity without regard to religious belief or disbelief.—The Kankakee Gazette, a reputable looking paper from that county, confirms this view of the case.

The afternoon train on the Northern Central Railroad, was thrown from the track, Saturday week. One car upset, and the Conductor, Alfred Crawford, who jumped from the train, was caught by the falling car and instantly killed. The passengers in the car escaped with a few scratches and bruises.

We learn that a clerk in a store, at Linden, Lycoming county, was instantly killed on Friday last, by a hogshead of molasses falling upon him. His name was John Creighton: he leaves a young wife and child.

A woman broke into Mrs. Gardner's millinery shop, in Danville, last month, but was caught and broomsticked before she could get away with her "things."

On Friday last, Mr. Brown, of Newberry, went out to fell a tree on Pine Creek—it was heard to fall, and after some hours, he not returning, search was made, when he was found under the fallen tree—killed!

Col. Thomas Brandon has been court-martialed at Danville, and fined $99 for some error he committed in relation to certain military elections.

Capt. Hummel, near Selinsgrove, is bragging on an average crop of 57 bushels of shelled corn on 37 acres, this year. But Elias Weigle of Lycoming county, had 78 bushels from each of seven acres.

Lock Haven is said to be fixed upon as the site for the Machine Shop of the Sunbury & Erie Railroad.

Improvements in Lewisburg—1859.

Since our report last fall, there has been at least an average amount of labor and capital bestowed on the visible portion of our town.

On the streets, a great number of suitable crossing places have been laid, considerable grading of streets and side walks, some street graveling done, and several miles in the aggregate of stone gutters and brick pavements laid.

BUILDINGS.—The Gas House, then noticed as probable, is now completed, and every week new pipes are laid to obtain the light which appears to be winning the popular favor.

On Market street, we have to notice the new 2 storey brick double dwelling house of Thomas Howard—the 3-storey brick office and dwelling of Dr. I. Brugger—Sol. Ritter's 2-storey double brick dwelling—George Reed's 2-storey double brick dwelling—and Geo. A. Chamberlin's and Mr. Stapleton's frame dwellings in "Linnville."

Chamberlin's Block, corner of 5th and Market Sts, is the greatest improvement in Lewisburg this year. It occupies the ground formerly Zentmyer's blacksmith shop and Cook's wagon shop; the latter part remains open for storage and for teams to pass in the rear of the building. The Block is three-storied, built of brick, 53 feet on Market St. and 150 feet on Fifth St. The Market St. front is of iron, from neat and attractive designs, cast by J. S. Marsh & Co., at the Lewisburg Foundry, and painted brown. The corner store-room is over 20 feet by 100, communicating in the rear with a Grain Mill under construction, and on the side with entrance to the stairs and cellar, also with a large storage-room, a bath room, sleeping rooms, private parlor, and counting rooms. It is lighted in front by immense glass plates costing $21 each, and by 6 gas burners at evening. There is also another ground-floor store-room unfinished, and the second and third commodious storeys are designed for Offices, Shops, and Halls. We know of no business house in Central Pennsylvania which presents greater accommodations or a more neat and attractive front, than this. Lewis Palmer is the Architect and Superintendent of the building.

On North 1st St., David Ginter has made a large addition to his Cabinet and Turning shop, and John H. Beale made a 2-storey brick addition to his dwelling. On South 1st St., Alexander Lewis has put up two 2-storey frame dwellings, (under way, but not mentioned last year.)

On North 2d St., Wm. Carothers has built a 2-storey frame dwelling.

Lewisburg Planing Mill, by PALMER, ROSS & Co., is 57 by 70 feet in size, driven by steam power, and employs an average of ten hands, exclusive of the Proprietors and those engaged in putting up work. A steam drying-house will be added to the building forthwith. The steam is in the basement. On the first or main floor are two circular saws, a scroll saw, first-class planer, moulding machine, grooving bench, mortising machine, and railroad cutting-off saw—all apparently, of the latest and best improvements, and capable of accomplishing an immense amount of hard labor.

On South 2d St., Lewis Palmer and carpenter John Miller have re-modeled and put new fronts to their dwellings, and Peter Aurand erected a frame dwelling. On the River street, Wm. H. Wolfe put up a double frame dwelling.

On North 3d St., Levi B. Herbst has started a 2 storey brick dwelling. Lewis [illegible] 2 storey brick dwelling. Samuel Hursh has added a storey to his dwelling, and David Reber and Wm. Frick elegant porches to the 3d St. front of their dwellings. On South 3d St., we have first the double 2-storey brick dwelling of Johnson Wolfe, the remodeled store-room of Zimmerman & Zellers, the double 2 storey brick dwelling of John Zellers, the 2-storey brick dwelling of John Kahler, and the double 2 storey brick dwelling of Jacob Yoder. On University avenue, we notice some neat new houses of Prof. Curtis, the continued beautifying of the College grounds, and the adaptation of the Academic buildings to accommodate students from abroad with board, next session.

On North 4th St. extension, a dwelling by Mr. Steinert—an improved front by Benj Angstadt, and an improved 2-storey brick dwelling, adjoining his former, by Daniel Schafer. On South 4th St., two 2-storey double brick dwellings by Beyers Ammons, a corner double 2 storey brick dwelling by Prothonotary Roush, and 2 storey brick dwelling of Dr. Wilson.

On South 5th St. a 2 storey brick dwelling by Allen Shoemaker.

On South 6th St., Dr. Gearhart erected a 2-storey frame dwelling. John Wenzell Jr. and Wm. H. Harmon a double 2 storey frame dwelling, two frame dwellings by Messrs. Donachy's, one by Mr. Clever, and a 2-storey brick by S. D. Munson now owned by Mr. Mirick.

On North 7th St., Messrs. Alexander Hutchinson and Daniel Seamen have each erected a frame dwelling. On South 7th St., Peter Mertz a frame, and Geo. J. Rohland a brick dwelling.

On South 8th St., Mrs. Betzer a frame dwelling.

Total—39 new buildings, and several remodeled, besides various smaller structures, and some perhaps we may have accidentally overlooked. Already, we hear of contracting for building next season.

☞ The writer of the following is not a member of the church or congregation whose premises are noted, but is a well wisher who loves the harmony and "fitness of things," and would have our main street a model.

FOR THE STAR & CHRONICLE.

O, Tempora! O, Mores!

Now, Lewisburg's a county seat
Upon the Susquehanna,
Where many things you'll find are done
Original in manner;
And Market is a famous street,
That runs quite through the town,
Where dwells much people, small and great
In stature and renown:
There stands a noble edifice,
With aspirations high,
For though it rests upon the ground,
It points up to the sky.
And in its sacred, pleasant walls,
On every Sabbath day,
Those people love to congregate
Who think it the right way.
'Tis said, near by there once reposed
Remains of loved ones dead,
That now are sleeping, undisturbed,
In a more rural bed,
Yet four lone tombstones still remain,
No friends beside them weep,
But wandering mules and lowing cows
Their ceaseless vigils keep.
And all the grounds, which might be made
So healthful and so fair,
The quadrupeds and bipeds rude
In independence share;
There, oft, at dusk, a headsman comes,
On "murder row" intent,
And aid to mar this favored spot
By tyrant Death is lent.
And when the hallowed morn returns,
"Of all the week the best,"
A sturdy gander with his geese
Makes it no day of rest.
But 'round and 'round the house of God
He leads his noisy clan,
While oft is heard their cackling din
Above the voice of man.
And are there, then, no "powers that be"
Who can these tumults quell?
Who, far beyond the Sabbath school,
This nuisance can expel?
If not, then rouse, ye church men all!
Exterminate the pest!
Enclose and beautify your land,
And none shall dare molest!

Nov. 1859. IMPROVISATORE.

Mary A. Stroup, widow of John Stroup, residing near Belleville, Mifflin county, was found dead in bed on Saturday morning last. She had retired the evening before in her usual good health.

☞ Prof Bliss will address the Society of Inquiry of the University at Lewisburg on Sunday next at 2½ P. M. at the Baptist house.

Dedication.—On Sunday the 4th Dec. next, the new Evangelical Church on Spruce Run is to be dedicated to God. All are invited to attend.

Population.—It is estimated, that, were all the United States as densely inhabited as Massachusetts, we would have a population of 116,000,000 souls, of which Texas would have 50,000,000, and Lewisburg would have about as many as a little town called New York: when that happens, G. Marsh will have to enlarge his stock of Boots and Shoes somewhat, but for the present you and all the rest can be well supplied, with an excellent article, at tremendously low prices, cheaper than the cheapest 1☞ right opposite the Bank.

Teachers' Institute.

The Union County Teachers' Institute will meet in MIFFLINBURG, on Monday, the 5th of December, 1859, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to continue in session about five days. All the Teachers of this county are requested to be in attendance, as subjects will be brought before the Institute that may aid very much to their success in teaching. We desire to see School Directors, and other friends of education in attendance. R. G. Hickok, State Superintendent, has consented to come and give us the benefit of his five years' experience and observations in the Public Schools of this and other States. Prof Hendricks has agreed to be with us part of the time. Rev. A. D. Hawn, late County Superintendent of Mifflin county, has expressed his willingness to give us a helping hand, and may be expected. Other distinguished Educators will be with us at least during the evening sessions.

The female teachers will be entertained in private families. The male teachers and others will find good accommodation at the Hotels at from fifty to seventy-five cents per day.

The following Subjects have been assigned to Members of the Institute, each of whom it is hoped will make as full, condensed a Report, as possible:

Inaugural Address—G. W. Chambers.
Spelling—J. G. Boyer.
Reading—Wm. Forster.
Writing—P. P. Irvin.
Intellectual Arithmetic—W. E. Smith.
Written " —Isaac King.
Geography—G. W. Swengle.
English Grammar—E. R. Zeigler.
Physiology—Wm. H. Rosbong.
Composition—Miss C. J. Thompson.
School Management—J. H. Smith.
Teachers' Institutes—S. O. M'Cardy.
Music in Schools—C. E. Haas.
Importance of attending District and County Institutes—Thos. T. Hayes.
How to elevate the profession of Teaching to its proper standard among other professions—John A. Owens.
How to instruct a school—Miss M. L. Thompson.
Co-operation of Parents with Teachers—Miss E. Kleckner.
Qualifications of School Directors—Henry K. Sanders.
Physical Education—C. S. Swingle.

CAN EPILEPSY BE CURED?

We think the following letter from a respectable citizen of Mississippi will answer the question, and all doubts from every unbiased mind:

GRENADA, Miss, June 5, 1855.

Dr. Seth S. Hance, Baltimore, Md.—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in relating a case of spasms or fits, cured by your invaluable Pills. My brother, J. J. Logan, has long been afflicted with this fearful disease. He was first attacked while quite young. He would have one or two spasms at one attack at first; but as he grew older they seemed to increase likewise. Up to the time he commenced taking your Pills, he had them very often and quite severe, prostrating him both and mind. His mind had suffered seriously; but now, I am happy to say, he is cured of those fits. He has enjoyed fine health for the last five months past. His mind has also returned to its original sprightliness. All this I take a great pleasure in communicating to you, and I have no hesitancy in directing others to the remedy that will cure them. Yours respectfully &c. W. P. LIGON

No person who is suffering from Fits, or Spasms, should neglect sending to Dr. Hance, after this, for a supply of his inestimable medicine. His prices are as follows: one box $3; two $5; twelve $24—sent by mail free, on the receipt of a remittance. Address SETH S. HANCE, 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Where the above preparation is known, it is so well established as an infallible Remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Breast, Croup, Whooping Cough, and every form of PULMONARY COMPLAINT, that it were a work of supererogation to speak of its merits.

Discovered by a well-known physician more than twenty years since, it has by the wonderful cures it has effected been constantly appreciating in public favor, until its sale and reputation are alike unbounded; and it is now known and cherished by all (and their "name is legion") who have been restored to health by its use as the GREAT REMEDY for all diseases which it professes to cure.

Sir James Clark, physician to Queen Victoria, has given it as his opinion that Consumption can be Cured!

The whole history of this Medicine fully confirms the opinion of that eminent man. Thousands can testify and have testified, that when all other remedies had failed, this has completely cured; that when the sufferer had well nigh despaired, this has afforded immediate relief; that when the physician had pronounced the disease incurable, this has removed it entirely.

The virtues of this Balsam are alike applicable to cure a slight Cold, or a Confirmed Consumption, and it is power as a safe, certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy cannot be equalled.

CAUTION!—Purchase none unless it has the WRITTEN signature of "I. BUTTS" on the wrapper, as well as the printed name of the proprietors.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry recommended by Physicians.

ACADIA, Sept. 6, 1858.

S. W. FOWLE & Co.—Sirs:—I most cheerfully add my testimony in favor of the Balsam. We have used it in our family, in Pulmonary affections, Coughs and Colds, and esteem it a most valuable remedy, and have recommended it in various complaints of this nature with invariably happy results. H. D. LYNCH, M. D.

GALLOWAY, MISSOURI, Iowa Co., Pa., Aug. 1858.

Gentlemen:—Having used in my practice the last four years Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, with great success, I most cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with obstinate Coughs, Colds, Asthma, &c.

H. D. MARTIN, M. D.

The genuine is signed "I. BUTTS" on the wrapper.

THRO' PERSEVERANCE AND ECONOMY WE THRIVE.

I HAVE now opened, at my Tannery, (formerly H. W. Fries') in Lewisburg, a Boot and Shoe Manufactory, and most respectfully solicit the patronage of the community, hoping by a strict attention to business to merit a share of the trade. I am determined to sell, for Cash the best Article for the least Money, both for style and durability, as the material is of my own Tannage, except the Morocco, Kid and French, of which I have procured the best in market. My own Tannage, and stock worked in my shop, insured and warranted as recommended.

LADIES and others who may desire it will be waited on for measures at their residences or at my dwelling, near the shop, by Mr. Fisher, my foreman.

No Eastern work kept for sale, but I can compete with Eastern work in prices, and furnish a better article. In fact, I am determined to sell lower than any competitor. My object is to dispose of my Hides at cash prices and Manufacturing added.

Those who try me will find this no humbug, but greatly to the interest of those who wish to get the value of their money.

I do not deem it important to quote prices, as sizes and stock differ materially.

FARMERS having hides to dispose of, may find it an advantage to bring them to the Yard, as an allowance will be made to them on hides.

The Highest Price for Hides, in Cash or Boots and Shoes.

Leather for sale at all times, on accommodating terms and at low prices.
