A DEAD THING ON A TRACK .- The Virginia penchant for seeing blood horses in motion, is well illustrated by an ancedote told us recently at Petersburg :

Mr. Deswell, Sheriff of Hangvere unty, seeing Larkin White, an ex-member of the Jockey Club, but now a member of the Church, on the quarter stretch, during the recent races at Ashland, Va., jocosely remarked to him :

"Why, Col. White, they'll turn you AND STILL GREATER REDUCTION IN PRICES! out of the church for being here."

"If they do," said Larkin, "they'll turn Tinsley, yonder, out. I'll go and see him." Accordingly, Larkin went over and sta- now on hand (which is the largest in the ted the case to his neighbor Tiusley, who, by the way, stammers badly.

"Oh!" replied Tinsley, "I've go go-got a d-d-d dead thing f it! I've co-co-co- keepers and others engaged in the Shoe trade counted noses, and there's ama ma-majority of the church on the track!" Dying Wonns -- We have read many accounts of the dying words of great men, but none of them appeared to us so touching and beautiful as the "last words" of " the old schoolmaster; "It is growing dark-school may be dismissed." Down to the gates of an unseen world he carried his love and regard for the children he master's last dismissal.
