INON COUNTY STAB AND INWISERS CERONIC

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, DEC. 23, 1859.

THE UNION-ESTABLISHED, 1814-WHOLE No., 2.391.

CHRONICLE-ESTABLISHED, 1843-WHOLE No., 819.

MONDAY, DEC. 19, 1859.

heard of, approves the foray at Harper's Ferry. There are Abolitionists who do, but no Republicans, for it was an act directly contra. OUTRAGES-to wit, on the 26th of May, show as expensioned we or the late about a ros, is to ry to their creed. Gov. Wise, with thousands the Pottawatomie murder took place, and a of Virginians, applaud the bravery and the nest of notorious ruffians and pro-slavery frankness of Capt. Brown, as well as do the agents was destroyed-Doyles, Wilkinson and people generally, however much they may Sherman were enticed away from their homes, Still was floating, faintly echecul from the Forest Chapet the furrow; he will harrow the valleys field. condemn the bad use he and his comrades and killed, Border Ruffian fashion. It is not Family falteringly floating over the sable waves of air That were through the Midnight rolling, chafed and bill made of their powers. There was not a known who did the deed, but it threw consternable and among them, yet that is not have through the Mininght rolling, claded and blows with the to ling.

It is not have through the Mininght rolling claded and blows with the to ling.

It is not have through the Mininght rolling trading trading trading to the fire light of the low with the to ling.

It is not have through the Mininght rolling trading crimes not theirs. Still, we find in different "On the last day of May," says Geary's hispapers among others, last week's Argusarticles, a tissue of the baildest untruths—like Pate marched upon Ossawatomie, and suc-

never was driven from his property by border | house of young John Brown, the Captain's son." ruffians, as he never had any property to be driven from. All the hostility he met with was in retaliation for his own barbarous and brutal deeds. The first murders in Kansas were those committed by Old Brown. He opened the bloody ball, and he more than any one else is responsible for the terrible scenes, that marked the programation for the terrible scenes. It is bones are like strong pieces of brass; was killed in the road near his father's house, by Martin White, a member of the Legisland one else is responsible for the terrible scenes. It is bones are like strong pieces of brass; was killed in the road near his father's house, and formerly a clergyman."—Capt. John Brown, Jr., is a maniac in consequence of the discr.

Lo, now, he moveth his tail like a cedar; family finding for this control of the scenes of the family finding for the control of the scenes of the first murders in Kansas were those committed by Old Brown. He moving of 30th August, Frederick Brown, a half witted young man, son of John Brown, sak killed in the road near his father's house, a works.

And my slumberous epclists straining, as I staggered to discuss the first in the fifth fire a frightful free ruffians, as he never had any property to be opened the bloody ball, and he more than any one else is responsible for the terrible scenes that marked the postracted polatical squabbles of the eruel treatment he received while a of the Territory. Of ALL the acts in the Bleeding Kansas' Tragedy, the first in order Bleeding Kansas' Tragedy, the first in order measureably recovered from his affection.)

The most than the direct Video meaning turned my gaze to wait the gleaning with the gleaning the most than the most thou can draw up Jordan in his mouth. But thou can open the door of his fast a cases less, seathing, besting, bubbing, gurgling stream of give.

Who can open the door of his fast thou canst approach him with a of the 24 of May, '56, on Pettawatomie Creek."

And so-three, four and five years after the Kansas war begun-the world is told that John Brown commenced it all that "first in order of time were the murders" of 24 May. 1856-which it is proved he did not commit.

(We expect, next, to hear that the Republicans repealed the Missouri compromise, and that Seward led the Border Ruffians in personall through their sanguinary invasious !!)

in this matter, to establish how wanton and wicked is this foul libel of the dead, and to show how easily its falsity may be proved. Konsus (1856,) and from Geory and Konsus, by Dr. Gibon, (1857,) and think they are 1854. The Opening Act in the bloody drama, was compromise by which Slavery was allowed in Missouri on condition that it "shall be and is forever prohibited" north of 36, 30. May 30, 1854, Pierce signed the Douglas Bill opening Kansas and Nebraska to Slavery, and inviting the North and South to venter in and years

ed for the sole object of establishing Slavery in was never taken into the Free State Councils and other rich lands.

A meeting at Westport, Missouri, in July, Resolved to expel and keep out of Kansas every Free States) they retired for reinforcements.

The Missouri river was blockaded against steamboats, disarmed, and sent back

The first election for Congress in the Territory, citizens of Missouri marched over, seized and stuffed the ballot-boxes, and with

The first Territorial Election, also, was so grossly fraudulent that Gov. Reeder refused to sanction it. An alleged Legislature proceeded, however, and passed the most despot ie and abominable code of laws ever formed in a civilized land.

by force, and their female friends insulted, systematically-appeals to the General Government for tedress in vain, and Gov. Reeder made powerless by the under-officers appoint not prove to you uninteresting.

I knew the man an industrious farmer, pro-

In May, Wm. Phillips, an eminent lawyer in Leavenworth, was tarred and feathered. and sold to a negro-(afterwards, was shot down in cold blood.)

Methodist ministers were warned away, and the Parkville Luminary was destroyed. Gov. Reeder was elected Delegate to Congress by the bona fide settlers, and a Consti-Congress refused Reeder his seat, (and the Legislature authorized by the Convention was afterwards dispersed by a company of U.S. Troops under Col. Sumner.)

Buford's Georgia desperadoes ravaged the country, inflicting most unheard-of cruelities. Aug. 8, J. W. B. Kelly was terribly beaten. and driven out of Atchison.

Collins was killed, at his own saw-mill, by agang headed by Laughlin.

Rev. Pardee Butler was sent down the riv er on a raft,

Nov. 21st, Dow was murdered. In December, Sheriff Jones calls for three Border Ruffian code of laws. Dec. 6, Thomas W. Barber was shot down, in the presence of his brother, Robert F. Barber and a brother-in-law, by the Indian Agent, if conscious that his life was a charmed one, Geo. W. Clarke.

1856.

Jan. 15, an election was appointed under men had to rely upon their arms in some

During this month, Carr. Enwann P. Bunws. son of old John Brown, was taken prisoner while transmed, by the Kickapun Rangers, and most he be, to an ignominious death. But let them transmently cut to pucces by hatchels. enhumanty cut to pieces by hatchets.

Buford's gang was taken into pay as U. S.

May 19, one Jones was shot dead, and May 20, one Stewart was shot dead-(both, by Sheriff Jones' armed posse on the march armer, has excelled those who taught him.

This even handed justice commends the in-Laurence)

The Star and Chronicle. May 21, THE TOWN OF LAWRENCE WAS SACE.

Etc., houses burned, presses destroyed, and the cup of indignation filled.

May 21, THE TOWN OF LAWRENCE WAS SACE.

gredients of our poisoned chalice to our own lips." Let them drink it as we did. And the "Mother of Presidents" will regret some day.

villains and murderers had been paid, petted here. And if "crimson tears do not follow," and promoted by the U. S. authorities! and she may be thankful. G. W. No Republican, that we have yet seen or and promoted by the U. S. authorities ! 21

"In point of time" AFTER ALL THESE

"On the last day of May," says Geary's historian, when "old Brown was absent, Captain As the last, long, linguring schoof the Midnight's mystic is He paweth in the valley, and waxeth ceeded, without resistance, in taking prisonthe following:

"Jour Buows came to Kansas not as a peaceful settler, but as a guerrilla fighter. He represents driven from his representation from his representation of the peaceful occupations, and burned the startest startest."

Time
ers two of his sons, whom he found engaged in their peaceful occupations, and burned the startest of his startest.

In their peaceful occupations, and burned the startest of his startest.

tured it, and his sons and the other Free State prisoners were released. Col. Summer, with Till meth-night my begin was bissing with that has been a large force of U. S. dragoons, here interfer- , van i ed, and persuaded Brown to release Pate and his men, and peace was again looked for.

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Reid with 170

But of Reid with 170

But of Reid with 170

But of Reid with 170

Bu

But on the 7th of June, Gen. Read with 170 stat and closes, men, re-entered Ossawatomie. There were And 1 Sell back on my pulses in apparent state of can pay my debts with. but a few men present, and the women and Then, as in Death's seeming shadow, in the key fall of It may be well to refresh the memory of all robbed all they could, set the town on fire, accounts of the cruelties practiced by this horde of ruffians, some of them too shocking the Fire and each blazing roof and derived from certain old newspapers:] We glean our dates mainly from the Report of and disgusting to relate, or to be accretized, And times were the blood and tears my visite Congressional Committee on the Troubles in 1 told. The tears and shricks of terrified wo men, folded in their foul embrace, failed to "How I revelon the prairies". How I rear among the touch a chord of mercy in their brattal hearts, and the mutilated bodies of murdered men. How I book when from the sillage o'er the snow the net than the sillage o'er the snow the net than these. food for vultures and wild beasts, told frightful the wanton violation of the Congressional stories of brutal ferocity from which the wildest savages might have shrunk with horror."

-From this time forth, our Jone Buows he retaliated "carried the war into Africa" | Hugging Universal Nature in their hidrons embrace " Acting Vice President Atchison resigned and no man was more vigilant or successful Acting Vice President Atchisen resigned and no man was more vigilant or successful viii his seat in the U.S. Senate and hastened to in saving Kansas for Freedom. That he was Then a sembre silence shut me in a solemn, shrould the western borders of Missouri, where secret, held to be somewhat deranged even then is and combined like an infant in the versite of the took foreible and illegal possession of Indians' triumphed, and the last Border Ruffan wolf was driven back, howling, to his den. In the with his brave Edward and his unfortunate Strederick most bruially slain, and his favorite namesake a maniae—if with three sons there sacrificed, and burned homes, and properties the sacrificed, and burned homes, and properties the sacrificed, and burned homes, and properties the sacrificed and burned homes, and properties the sacrificed and burned homes, and properties the sacrificed as welled by the sacrification as welled by the sacrificed as welled by the sacrification as well as the sacrificati Abolitionist (as they called all men from the vorite namesake a maniae-if with three sons IF'In August, the first Free State men crty taken—revenge overmastered his better With the memory of that bire Demon in my central Fire was given. The people railied and drave control for my eyes interior mirror like the shadow of a Fatel. reached the Territory, and founded the town nature, it is still most infamously false that Contract of Lawrence.

On the 6th Oct. an armed band marched if his reason, stung to madness, swung from And no knot of oak was flaming as it flamed upon my whole band was annihilated. Nat escaped from Westport to "wipe out Lawrence," but, its moorings-Heaven knows he had sufficient Ruffian sway, "in point of time," intervened Free State men, who were searched on the struck back the first fatal blow at Possawato- And I hower is of first of first formed the topic of a song commemorative which, in the Softer, is flat blue plant. mie, and gave them a taste of their own mode of warfare.

- Last week's Buther County American has an article from a Kansas correspondent on near 1800 notoriously false votes elected Gen. this general subject, with which we close our notice of this foulest libel and most gross and palpable and malicious falsehood;

Kansas Correspondence.

LAWRENCE, Nov. 16, 1859. I condemn and lament the Harper's Ferry tragedy as earnestly as any man who loves his flag. But I have gone to combat under the eye of the "Hero of Ossawatomie," a privileged favorite at his Free State settlers were spoiled, sent away camp-table, a companion of his quiet house, a friend in all. I knew him but to love him. And now, when the "brave old man," as we loved to call him, is about to appear in the last scene of his tragic, erring life, a word may perous, surrounded by his children and his fig tree," with every promise in the and where all the life o free from wrong wa was upon them Their cornfields were turned to deserts, their homes laid in ashes. The tutional Convention called at Topeka. But earnings of a life of industry, guided by more of its mother earth, till the first passionate burst of grief was gone, and then

The old man's day of reckoning had come The gray eye glared like a tiger as his murderous guns swept down the enemy at Ossawultome; grapeshot tore through the ranks, but he held his men steadily to the storm till he last cartridge was spent. He stood exposed to every ball that swept band at Black Jack ; a victor there, he show ed the vanquished that he was magnanimous as brave. Beside him, on that day "before Lawrence," all through that Sabbath afterno bousand men from Missouri to enforce the whose wonted quiet was broken by the crast of the musketry and sharp crack of the rifle, I sat on my horse watching the grey head, bared to the tempest of balls, expecting to see it fall at every discharge. Caln ie moved from post to post.

The old brain is crazed, but who crazed it! Let the sons of Virginia delight to pile the sod the Topeka Constitution, and the Free State of their State upon a breast bared a score of times to their bullets in Kansas. Let themhis home,murder his children and bowed down the grey haired man, who had never harmed them-let them lead him forth, maniac though ow many they have slain of ours. But for the hands now so eager for his blood, there would not be so many mounds for the snow to drift upon to-night here. The hoary hea ded warrior, transformed from the peaceful

The Fire-Fiend-A Nightmare.

In the deepest dearth of Midnight, while the sad and Earns Painted in the fitful fire a frightful, fiendish, fiaming face!

stream of give 1V (1V speechless, struck with stony ellence, framen to the floor His teeth are terrible 'round about. adding the d-tell my life stream coming earing from those lama powers, nor his comely proportions.

children were plundered and insulted. They robbed all they could, set the town on fire, tay ear.

Saw Genre's historian.

Then as in the same a heater and historian to tay ear.

Came a mermor like the mormor of assaedus in their what noted for its slave insurrections, as "There are hundreds of well authenticated Muttering, "Higher! higher! I am Demon of hanging upon the trees, or left to rot upon the And I have the shrinks of terror, with a Life in every How I server with hombent laughter, as I hard each eracking ratter.

It is a the boll above of Fire, note higher, higher, higher, being the life, hermete of my Attar in their merry Panes of Peats. "

"I am Monarch of the Fire! I am Vascal King of Death! World energing, with the shadow of its Doom mean reappears conspicuously upon the stage of action in Kansas—a harbinger of death and detection in the same of the detection in the same of the detection in the dete longer a quiet settler, acting on the defensive, team my ministering bemens, the phuntamagorie le- various localities. The plot, however, was the western borders of Missouri, where secret, and the first bound "Blue Lodges," &c. were organized evident from the testimony of the times. He will the field in the Forest quivered with the matin Domingo, tried and executed. And the martins, from the edges of its fishen liked | Thirty years ago, a more successful plot -was regarded as often wrong-and yet he lere; countd its very centre, where the Demon Face had from his pursuers, and dwelt in a shore.

Forked stateous seemed to linger, pointing as with spec- for several months; but he was finally before the Free State men-if it was them- To a Blass, massive, gold-u, on a table curved and scented, captured and executed. His fate

Agricultural Convention and Lectures, tale tollege. the following stanza : It is proposed to have what may be termed a great agricultural "protracted meeting" at Yale College during the presperous, surrounded by his thindren and the exercises as lecturers and teachers, the poor, winter is looked upon with as drawing in its sunset hours to a peaceful old rists and horticulturists have expressed let those who have an abundance of life's swore his bitter vengeance against the robbers of his home, the murderers of his boy.

C. W. Grant, Messrs. P. Barry and R. G.
Pardee, on Fruits: Professor Parter on Pardee, on Fruits; Professor Porter on Organic Chemistry; Prof. S. W. Johnson, on Agricultural Chemistry; Prof. B. ton Gould, on Grasses and Irrigation; Judge French, on Drainage; Joseph Harris, on Cercals ; Prof. Brewer, on Commercial Plants, (flax, hemp, tobacco, etc.;) Geo. B. Emerson, on Forest Trees; Dr. Comstock, on Fish Culture; Donald G.

> Mitchell, (Ik Marvel,) on Rural Economy The whole is to be free, except the nominal charge of say ten dollars or less to meet the necessary expenses of lecturers and other incidentals. The occasion will doubtless be one of great interest to cultivators generally, and call together a large attendance from all parts of the country. Inquiries with reference to this project may be addressed to Prof. John A. Porter. New Haven, Conn .- Agriculturist.

An Infidel Convention met at Philadel phia on Monday last. What next?-Sel ma Reporter.

The Charlestown Convention is the "pext." - Marion (Ala.) American.

A Nobie Animal for Sale.

Richard offered for a horse on a trying occasion. Here is an extract from the ad- to her at Harper's Ferry: vertisement:

Thou canst trust thy labor to him, for his strength is great.

Then canst bind him with his band in His strength is terrible, in which he re-The glory of his nestrils is his pride; his proud in his speed. He mocketh at fear, neither turneth he his back from the hobgoblin. Lo, now, he moveth his tail like a cedar;

Who can open the door of his face? yet thou caust approach him with a bridle.

Virginia Insurrections.

[The execution of John Brown reminds will be seen from the following accounts

Sixty years ago, one Gabriel, a smart slave, accumulated money enough to purchase his freedom, and then set about organizing a plot for the slaughter of all the white inhabitants of Richmond. In the first place, they were to fire the city, and when the people were engaged in putting out the flames, they intended to seize the arsenal. Some of the fairest, youngest ladies were to be spared for wives. Gabriel had established depots of arms in discovered, and a reward of $20,000 offered for the ringleaders. Gabriel escaped for several months, but was apprehended guided Hero! rest. on hoard of a ship ready to sail for St

As soon as the Act passed, great numbers of Missourians crossed over into Kansas and triumphed, and the last Border Ruffan wolf. was driven back, howing, to his den. E- Through my bry frested casements filtered in atronulous with several others, planned the destrucinhabitants, on a Sunday night, and murnature, it is still most infamously false that "the opened the bloody boil." If he retainated—the femiliah Fire had smouldered to a white and formers hear,

the rebellious slaves into the swamps, shooting them down like dogs until the "First we have him, then we swamp him. Hard times in old Variance." Then we seems him and we have him— Hard times in Old Virginity.

consist of Lectures by leading, reliable ting blasts of winter, give a thought for-two to four each day-each lecture orders from their richly furnished and comto be followed by conversational exercises, fortably heated drawing rooms, east one questions to the lecturers, and discussions. thought upon the poor wretches, "of friends Twenty or thirty gentlemen, well known and fortune quite disowned," who huddle in Agriculture, besides the Professors of themselves into a corner to keep off the Yale College, are engaged to take part in keen searching winds of winter? Among while numerous other eminent agricultu- much dread as an epidemic. Therefore, Virginia, Henry A. Wise, declared, as age. A day passed, and his children were dying by the light of their blazing homes over the storm-swept plains, for the "Ruffian" hand Among the lecturers are Lewis F. Allen, low beings. However small the gift, it Cassins M. Clay and Francis Rotch, on will be received as a great bounty. Pov-Cattle ; Sanford Howard and Dr. Gulliver, erty will inevitably be the lot of a portion than ordinary intelligence, were scattered and pillaged. Homeless the gray head sought the on Horses; C. L. Flint and others, on the of humanity so long as the sun rises and Dairy; the Hon. Marshall P. Wilder, Dr. sets. There is so escape from it. "The poor ye have always with you." It is by Divine appointment, nor is it difficult to see the beneficence hidden under the afflictive dispensation. Our business, therefore, Stilliman, Jr., on Meteorology; J. Stan- is to make the best of that which we can not evade.

"Have mercy on the poor, this night, 0 God! The homeless of the world's great brotherhoo The homeless of the world's great brotherhood. The pittless storm awers under onward. Our the flutty highway. The hurni-hood brane And fluny trappings, (like human wampires) Clinging to the homes of plenty, bristle with children ere and gird ring frest, this cold becomber night. The very mon seems from a set shows helfry, paince and hored. Casement and soire, all glittering and bright like huge, trilling discrete either North. Hark't these hears excepting winds that become like the trend of heaves excepting above to see the like the read of heaves excepting a local many like the trend of heaves excepting a local many like the trend of heaves excepting and seem to see the second of heaves and seems to see the second of heavest seems to see the second of heaves and seems to see the second of heaves and seems to see the second of heavest seems to see the second of heaves and seems to see the second of the second of heaves and seems to see that the second of heaves and seems to see the second of Hark' those hearse sweeping winds that been along Like the tread of heavy cavairy, and seem to seem

IMPRESSIVE SCENE.-In Leghorn, Itafeet, and remained standing until the close with an overwhelming "Amen."

At John Brown's Burial,

[A man in Wisconsin has a horse which Mr. M'Kim read the following inscription, ment, he must be worth more than King paper on the morning of his execution, the day after parting with his wife, and sent

TO BE INSCRIBED ON THE GLD FAMILY MONUMENT AT NORTH ELBA.

OLIVER BROWN, born - 1839, was killed at Harper's Ferry, Va., Nov. 17, 1859. Watson Brown, bern -, 1835, was wounded at Harper's Ferry, Nov. 17, and died Nov. 19, 1859. My wife can fill up the blank dates as above) John Brown, born May 9, 1800, was ex-ecuted at Charlestown, Va., Dec. 2, 1859.

> HIS LAST WILL. CHARLESTOWN, Jefferson Co.)

Va., Dec. 2, 1859. It is my desire that my wife have all my personal property not previously disposed of by me; and the entire use of all my landed property during her natural life; and that, after her death, the proceeds of such land be equally divided between all my then living children; and that what would be a child's share be given to the children of each of my two sens who fell at Har-

I will not conceal his parts, nor his pressed wishes are made known to my dupressed wishes are made tiful and beloved family.

John Brown. My DEAR WIFE-I have time to in-farewell. "Be of good cheer," and God

Almighty bless, save, comfort, guide, and keep you to "the end." Your affection-John Brown. ate husband, tomb in the shadow of a great rock...Mis-go to the same end. These, in addition desire." to liberal direct contributions from various | The State of South Carolina, which is quarters, will doubtless ensure the wish of his heart—a decent provision for the wants of his shattered family.

which Henry A. Wise, who signed his But the great portion of the population death-warrant, was the first to counsel, are negroes. The census of 1850 showed and which Gov. Wise's friends now avow the white population to be only 174,563 their intention to commit next year, should while the negro population was 393,944.

of the insurrection, from which we quote The seizure of Harper's Ferry Arsenal, ced from the Union, which is the bulwark States is to be appropriately celebrated by which in John Brown was Treason, is in of her safety, her whites might be murder- that denomination. The Christian Adeo Gov. Wise "noble and gallant" Patriot- ed in less than a year. Yet it is she that cate says: The true centenary of Methoism. So say his Democratic endorsers, is continually shaking the disunion appar- dism is the year 1860. Dr. Roberts, of So echoes the Democratic Press through- itien in Northern faces, to scare us from Baltimore, has fully demonstrated this ent Winter, to last throughout the whole THINK OF THE POOR .- How many out the Union. To-day they lavish, in our equanimity, and to drive us into doing fact from local as well as documents, and month of February. The exercises are to among us, when they feel the piercing, bi- the same breath, curses upon the crazed what our justice condemus! It is time other evidences. The late Local Preachold man, who died because he made the at- such nonsense were thoroughly exposed ers' Convention, at Baltimore, appointed a men, eminent in the different departments as to the condition of the many poor fam- tempt, and fulsome culogy upon the Govof agriculture, horticulture, stock raising, ilies in our town? How many persons ernor who threatens to do the same thing etc. About eighty lectures are provided reveling in the lap of luxury, who give himself. Here is Virginia authority for the statement : The Democracy of Berkley county, Virginia, have held a meeting. Chas. J. Faulkner, ex-Member of Congress, presided, and in an able, conservative and national speech, thus showed the policy which Governor Wise laid down in 1856: When that noble and gallant son of was said he did, in October, 1856, that, if Fromont should be elected. HE WOLLD SEIZE THE NATIONAL ARSENAL AT HARPER'S FERRY, how few would at that time have justified so bold and decided a measure? It is the fortune of some great and gifted minds to see far in advance of their cotemporaries. Should Wm. II. Seward be elected in 1860, where go his way in peace. "Oh, Jewell," saith is the man now in our midst who would not call for the impeachment of a Governer of Virginia who would silently suffer that Armory to pass under the control of such an Executive head?"

Here, again, rank Treason is threatened, but you will not find a Locofoco paper, North or South, who will dare to rebuke it !

notice, in scores of exchanges from every below :

"A PEW is For Sale in the meeting house of the First Parish in Amberst. The man that owns the pew, owns the right of a space just as long as the pew is, from ly, on the 7th of October, a remarkable the bottom of the meeting house to the incident took place. For the first time, top or roof, and he may go as much higher the Jews of that city offered up a prayer as he can get. If a man will buy my pew for a Christian Prince, and invoked the and sit in it on Sundays, and repent and blessing of Heaven upon Victor Emanuel, be a good man, he will go to heaven if King of Sardinia. At the first word, the God lets him go. Let a man start from three thousand Jews present rose to their the right place, let him go right, keep right, and do right, and he will go to hea ven at last, and my pew is as good a place of the prayer, to which they all responded to start from as any pow in the meetingbouse

A Large Family.

A correspondent of the Ohio Cition.

height and weight	are as for	Hows:
7 27	Ponnts.	Finer.	Inch
The Father	200	6	. 4:
The Mother	2-6	6	-4
Thomas	286	6	- 4
James	215	6	6
Sarah	165	66	- 6
John	296	6	11
Mary	150	6	**
Elijah	210	- 6	2
Marshew	220	- 6	- 4
Eli	3.93	6	4
Another Daughter	160	6	- 3
	Sens:	177	-
Aggregate	2585	7.00	0

in altitude. Certainly a fine, substantial, fact the one who led Brown into the plan. growing, promising family.

THE ONE THOUGHT .- A friend once told me, that, amongst other symptoms of high nervous excitement, he had been painfully harassed by the want of sleep. per's Verry, and that a child's share be such a degree had this proceeded, that if, divided among the children of my now, in the course of the day, any occasion led living children who may die before their him to his bed-chamber, the sight of his such a degree had this proceeded, that if, mother (my present beloved wife.) No bed made him shudder at the idea of the formal will can be of use when my exupon it. In this case, it was recommended to him to endeavor, when he lay down at nights, to fix his thoughts on something, close the within and the above, which I at the same time wast and simple-such forgot yesterday, and to bid you another as the wide expanse of Ocean, or the cloudless vault of Heaven-that the little hurried and disturbing images that flitted before his mind might be charmed away There followed to the grave of John or hushed to rest by the charming influ-Brown-his widow, Mary Ann Brown; ence of one absorbing thought. Though the widow of his son Oliver Brown, and not at all a religious man, at the time, the little girl Ellen; the widow of his son this advice suggested to his mind that if Watson Brown; the widow of Wm, an object, at once vast and simple, was to Watson Brown; the widow of Wm. an object, at once vast and simple, was to trouble; Cook is his brother-in-law, and we Thompson, also slain at Harper's Ferry; be selected, none could serve the purpose are trying to get Wise to pardon him; Fir-Thompson, also stain at Harper's Ferry; so well as that of Gop. Her solved, then, given is all right on the subject, the Judge, the bis son Solomon Brown and his sisters; so well as that of Gop. Her solved, then, given is all right on the subject, the Judge, the Solutions in Congress, and all the leading men. Henry Thompson, with Ruth, his wife, to make the trial, and think of Him. eldest daughter of John Brown; Roswell The result exceeded his most sanguine Thompson and wife, parents of the two hopes; in thinking of God, he fell asleep. Thompsons slain at Harper's Ferry; and Night after night, he resorted to the same the other friends and neighbors. Here expedient. The process became delightwere four widows and three parents, bereav. ful; so much so, that he used to long for ed in that short but bloody conflict, bear. the usual bour of retiring, that he might fall asleep (as be termed it) in God. What began as a more physical operation, grew by imperceptible degrees into a gracious influence. The same God, who was his ing their beloved and trusted leader to his fall asleep (as he termed it) in God. What -It is stated that James Redpath, the influence. The same God, who was his Abolitionist, is to write his Life for the repose at night, was in all his thoughts by benefit of his family. Thaddens Hvatt, of day. And at the time this person spoke eternally threatening to dissolve the Union, has been aptly termed, by the Lebanon Courier, a little aristocracy. The few poor whites who live there are disfranchised, John Brown was hung for a crime and have no equal voice in legislation.

> Culpepper, for incendiary documents and individuals. Mr. Jewell had a revolver with him, and was requested by the vigilants to leave the cars, as they wanted to shut him up for a period. Mr. Jewell objected, and easually remarked, during the conversation, that the vigilants had better clear out-somebody might get hurt, as he should shoot dead the first man that put hand on him. As he was determined in his manner, and as the vigilants num- of some one's being mobbed by a rabble bered only forty or fifty, they left him to an ancient writer, "thou art a consistency !" -Hartford Courant.

> "It was not your advice that finally de- stitution the Locofocus want to extend. termined me to vote your ticket, nor was They say the price of a denial of this it your eloquent appeals from the stump : IT WAS THE MURDER OF BRODERICK!"

So said the Hon. Thomas Ewing of Ohio, recently, as he cast, for the first Novel ADVERTISEMENT .- The most time, a Republican vote. Mr. Ewing is remarkable among the many remarkable not the only man, who had been deluded advertisements which daily fall under our with sham "popular sovreignty," whose eyes were opened by Broderick's murder. section of the country, is the one given Broderick was honest in his opposition to "Rise early, live temperately, work hard, slavery, and because he was thus honest, and keep cheerful." Another person, he was killed, and Douglas rejoiced at his fall.

> SAD END .- A courtezan called "blue eyed Mary," was buried in St. Louis, last week, only the driver of the hearse and a negro sexton accompanying the body to the grave. Five years ago, she was the respected and lovely daughter of a wealthy merchant of that city, but went astray.

A celebrated divine said that the more he undertook to reason about sin, the more unreasonable it appeared.

A Democratic Game, Foiled.

John E. Cook, was represented as an he wishes to sell. If the animal actually will, and letter, (probably the last lines says there is a family of "high standing" inoffensive young man, who was led into Can such Lies be believed? Free State people had been refressed, but the villages and been refressed, but the villages are many set one stand by the last lines and set of the power of Brown in Kansas, highly and the old man ever wrote.) committed to in Bourbon county, Kentucky, whose the power of Brown in Kansas, highly and the old man ever wrote.) &c., and for this reason it was urged by many Democratic presses and people that his life should be spared. But if Brown was the commander, Cook was voluntarily the commanded; and who will attempt to excuse any act on the plea that somebody told the offender to do it? The law and common sense laugh at such an idea, unless it be that the culprit be an idiot, or a child not yet arrived at the years of mor-The father is a native of Maryland, now al understanding. Neither was the case in his 70th year. One son, Enkel, died - with Cook. It was not pretended that he he was 6 feet 6 inches in height, and did not understand fully the nature of the weighed 200 pounds. The living average expedition, and the consequences that 235 pounds in weight, and over 6 feet 4 must flow from the act, if he was not in

> But the Democratic U. S. Attorney for Indiana came all the way to make a grand public speech for Cook, and The Constitution, (Buchanan's organ) the Argus and most of the Democratic journals, North, copied and commended it. A combined, universal effort was made to get up sympathy in his favor, as a basis for pardonfor he was a good Democrat!

> Cook was also a brother-in-law of Gov. Willard of Indiaus, and an effort was made to turn the party press of the West into his service on that account. A man by the name of Sprole has been traveling for that purpose, but the North Lora Times exposed the whole plan, by publishing the annexed letter from Sprole to its editor :

Ov Boans Kay Cirv. Nov. 11, '59.
Cot. Riemanson—Dear Sir: I knew you in Indiana, through Senator Bright, (whose private Secretary I was.) as a through going Democrat, and I take the liberty of addressing you as an Indianian AND A DEMOCRAT. I lose you an article which I desire publishwill sign a petition for Cook's pardon-but Wise is a candidate for the Presidency, and we must deal with him as such, hence this article, flattering him. &c. Please publish it article, flattering film, etc. France publish as soon as you possibly can, and send a number of your paper containing it, marked, to Gov. Wiss, Richmond, Va., and another copy to Gor, Willard, and one to me at Washing-ton City. The Western press are all right. am now on my way to Iowa, Missouri, Ten-movee and Kentucky, to get them to join in also. Truly yours, R. S. SPROULE.

New York city, sends a good recent like- to me, God, as revealed in the Gospel of Mr. Richardson deserves the thanks of ness of Brown for SI, the profits of which His Son, was "all his salvation, and all his the country for his integrity, for had the plan gone on unexposed, no knowing what might have been its effect upon the Exceutive of Virginia, who could only have interpreted it as the honest opinion of the country. It was a Democratic trick to save a brother Democrat, but the peopleespecially of Virginia-would not abide it, and, (for the first time,) a Democrat bas suffered for the same crime as an Abolitionist! So may it be always, hereafter.

CENTENARY OF AMERICAN METHODISM they fail to elect a Democratic President. This shows South Carolina to be emphati- - The one hundredth anniversary of the cally a Negro State, and if she were diver- introduction of Methodism into the United A YANKER IN A VIRGINIA RAILROAD committee to consult the general confer-CAR -A few days since Marshall Jewell, ence respecting measures for its due ob-Esq., of this city, passed through Virginia servance. It is a happy coincidence that on his way home from a business trip to the general conference meets in this grand the South. The train was searched, at epochal year. It will be, not, indeed, the centennial general conference, but it will be the centenary general conference.

> That slavery is incompatible with a free government, is shown every day in the experience of the South. Those great rights that we beast so much of-the rights of free speech and a free press-are denied every day in our sister States below Mason and Dixson's line. Scarcely a mail comes that does not bring us an account or arrested by law officers for speaking sentiments at variance with the popular feelings. There is no liberty for white men schere slavery exists. Yet this is the inprivilege, will be a dissolution of the Union. There may be some who will not think the price too high.

How to Live Losg .- A venerable minister, who had preached some sixtyseven years in the same place, being asked what was the secret of long life, replied : who lived to the great age of one hundred years, said, in reply to the inquiry, "How he lived so long?" "I have always been kind and obliging, have never quarreled with any one, have eaten and drank only to satisfy hunger and thirst, and have never been idle.' BRODERICK VS. DOUGLAS .- "They have killed me because I was opposed to the extension of Slavery."-BRODERICK. "I don't care whether Slavery is voted down or up "-- DOUGLAS.