TREASON.—In a communication addressed to the Richmond Examiner, an "ABLE AND DISTINGUISHED VIRGINIAN" proposes to "incite the Emperor of the French to send his army and navy hither and take the Southern States under his protection."

It is this "able and distinguished Virginian" is as much a traitor as Benedict Arnold, and deserves the gallows more than Brown.

In Boston, Wm. A. Cochrane, who sued George I. Perry for seducing his wife, claiming damage in $40,000, has been awarded $3,000 by the jury, which saw Mr. Cochrane gave to the Home for the Fallen.

One of Gov. Wise's recommendations to the Legislature of Virginia, is to avoid a course of policy which will drive the free negroes in Virginia to the North.

It is found by experience that the South has no more inveterate enemies than the black traitors from her soil.

Charles Sumner has been chosen a foreign associate member of the French Society of Political Economy, at Paris.

The majority of Resolves for Governor of Minnesota is over 4000, and Randall of Wisconsin has over 7000—Really, the Democracy are "gaining backwards," fast, up there!

All intelligence from Kansas is that few if any of Capt. Brown's old friends approve of or excuse his last fall-step, while all bear emphatic testimony to the purity of his private character and his motives.

Justice Catron, of the U. S. Supreme Court, has addressed a public letter to the citizens of Tennessee, severely denouncing the attempt to legislate into slavery the free colored people of that State.

Lieutenant General Winfield Scott receives universal applause for his adjustment, at least temporarily, of the difficulty which Gen. Harney made on our North West frontier.

Since the strain of excitement is over, the widow of Capt. Brown is suffering from fatigue and the trials she endured so resolutely.

When in Jail with her husband, she would burst into tears, when he would exclaim, and with his "cheer up! cheer up, Mary," exert a magic influence, bringing a smile to her face.
