HNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICI

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

At $1.50 per Year, plways in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, JAN. 6, 1860.

"THE UNION," established in 1814 --- Whele No., 2,393.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843 --- Whole No., 321.

AN INDEPENDENT FARILY JOURNAL Issued Fridays, at Lewisburg, Union county, Penn'a.

TERMS -$1.50 per year, to BE PMB IN ADVANCE-and TERNS - State per year, to us which is Abvass a and at the same rate for isomer or shouter period. Thus, so it will pay for four months, 73 che for we meanths, 1 dol. for each will meanth. I dol. for eight meanths, 2 dol. for extreme months, 3 dol. for year, 25 for four requests one year, 50 for tern copies one year, 50 for tern copies on year, the Single No. 1 che. Payments by man (part) Perivan in gold, period statepts, or bank inters at their period. Most being statepts, or bank inters at their request of the period of the pe mouths, and, per year. Half a syntre-dist, it ets. 2 dol, and it was marked in the synthesis. Merchants, &c. Dol ever one burth of a solution, it dol per year. Other sires, &c. as may be agreed upon. A syntact is likeliheser smallest type, or let of next targer. A devertisements of a demoration, thereto a visit inglendency not schmitted. Communications of arel on tipes of general interest and assumpanied by the surfer's real masse and address. The MACANTI TILES CAPIL is lessafed in the other

The MACNETIA TALESTAPH is isometal in the office of the Mar of themseld, problem we often insert important News in advance of the Philiad Mails.

Connected with the effice are ample materials for most kinds of JOB FRINTING, which with be executed with materials and departed and or reasonable terms.

25, Casual advertisements to be until for when hunded in Joh Work when delivered. All falledge on personal transport of the Control of the Control of the John MacNet and Control of the Control of the John MacNet and Control of the Control of the John MacNet and Market squares torch, side, second sharry, Jan 1,1555.

Che Star and Chronicle. MONDAY, JAN. 2, 1860.

The following scathing criticism, by an influential Democratic editor, of a main point in the President's Message, is so true that we give it this conspicuous place and invite to it careful, general attention.

Prom the Harrisburg State Sentenel, (Sait) Lecompton organ of tior, Packers,) which supports Jungs Ducutas for next President, 63

The President and His Message. In the recent Annual Message of the President of the United States, is to be found the following remarkable language : following remarkable language:

of cordsily congratulate you upon the final efficiency, by the Saprime Court of the United States, of the ques-tion of succept in the Territories, which has presented an tion of Susery in the Perstudies, which has presented in any set as tray formulation at the commencement of my Aministration. The right has been established, of every critica to case his property of any flast, incombine smooth to the common horizones belonging estably to all the States of the Contesterny, and to have a present the redering Constitution. Nother Contestes, no a Terrisonial Legislature, nor any Amoon power has any authority to annul or inquir the vested right. Again the Freedom any, "Had at been decided that claim Cogress or the Terrisorial Legislature phenomenal that claim Cogress or the Terrisorial Legislature phenomenal that claim of the authority of the Common o

For the action of the Supreme Court, the President probably refers to the decision in the Dred Scott case, made nearly three years enece. It is somewhat remarkable that the President should gravely communicate to the Congress of the United States, information that a certain decision had been rendered in the Supreme Court, when that decision had been for years before the public and had been as thoroughly discussed as ever was a judicial opinion!

But the matter of the communication is more remarkable still.

Mr. Buchanan was bred to the law, and was considered, forty years ago, an abic practitiener at the bar. He understood turn, and he understands now, how to discriminate irtween the decision of a Court, and the remarks of a member of the Court upon a point and nec-Knowing, then, how to make this discrimination, we assert, without the fear of contradiction, that Mr. Buchanan had eithernever read Territorial Legislature, which had the remo- and her rosy mouth pressed to his. test bearing upon the question which the "Happy New Year, my sweet one!"

The arat questions which this celebrated case presented to the Court were.

adversely to the Plantiff, there was no longer either case, or question, before the Court. But ting sunshine, gave now but feeble promise low man! James asked time; in two years, if the power to decide the second question be for the barvest time. conceded to the Court, and that the decision or shall not exist in the Territory !

What, then, must be thought of Mr. Buchanthis decision, "neither Congress, nor a Territorial Legislature, nor any human tribunal, has authority to annul or impair this vested rial existence !

be the settled law, but he also rejoices that it meaning of this?" is so settled, and declares that to give to Congress, or the People of a Territory, the right to interdict Slavery in a Territory, "would be ferson was the first President of the United shoulder. States elected by the Democratic party, and James Buchanan is the last one so elected. The former, although himself a slave-holder, and a resident of a Southern State, believed that the Territories of the United States therein! We leave it to our readers to deter-Buchanan, the advocate of the Lecompton in- and every year he found himself better of.

Our objections to the doctrine which Mr. selves their own domestic institutions." Third, In wer was not given.

thing County Star & Limisburg Chronicle that when the time arrives for the formation -After breakfast, Mr. Edgar left home The business assigned to that day, was over to where he was sitting, and throw-pronounced by the fast National Canvention of the Democratic party, and accepted as the true faith by the man, who, since he has become the President, has ingloriously abandona platform where defeat is inevitable.

MY SEWING MACHINE.

HE A CONSTRUCT PAINTS. "Get one! Don't say no! Which did you get? One of the kind to open and shot? Own it, or hire it? How much did you pay? Then it you will a crank or a treatlet. Say-Fin a single man, and somewhat green, Tal me about your sewing machine."

"Listen, my boy! and hear about it-I re had one now for many a year,
And like it so well I call it "my dear;"
The the eleverest thing that ever was seen,
This wonderful family sewing machine. "It's none of your angular, heartless things,

With steel shot peak, and cast iron wings; Its work would bother a hundred of been, And is worth a thousand-indeed it is; And has a way-you needs't stare— Of combing and braiding its own black hair. Mine is not one of those stunit affices

And make that dismal, head achy noise. Which all the conforts of sewing destroys; No rigid contributes of lumber and steel, But one with a natural spring in the beel.

enfine is one of the kind to love. Has the morriest eye and a dainty fort, And sports the charmingest gatter best, And a bonnet with feathers, and ribbons, and loops, With an ind hulte number of hoops.

Whose of your patent machines for me, And take my arm for an evening walk; That will do whatever the owner may choose, With the slightest perceptible turn of the screws? "One that can dance, and-postibly-firt,

And make a pulifling as well as a shirt-

Ready to give the segret mixim, Or do up your collars and things so nice. "What do you think of my muchice? And't it the best that ever you've seen? "live" a clamey, mechanical toy, But flesh and blood! Hear that, my boy-With a term for goodp, and hencehold affairs, Which include, you know, the rowing of tares? "Tut, tut. Don't talk. I see it all— You need at keep winking so hard at the wall; I knew what your frigety annihings newn; Would you take, yourself, a sewing machine? Well-pet one, then-of the same design-There were plenty left when I got name."

From Arthur's " Steps Towards Heaven."

"Hoppy New Year, papa!" The sittingtion, that Mr. Buchanan had eithernever read the Dred Scott case, or that, when he penned room doors were thrown open, and a little into his arms, and a glad voice exclaimed, do not fail to command my service.

Most truly yours, Himan Engan." the above-stated paragraph of his Message, he girl came bounding in. Her checks were "A happy New Year, papa !" the above-stated paragraph of his Message, he was perfectly conscious, that the Supreme ull a-glow—smiles played around her lips

When Mr. Edgar arrived at his store, his feelings towards Mr. James sat very still, the letter of Mr.

Legar before him. Then he folded it up, "Now," said John, "you see my orders to uch a Magazine which bears your name to read a line of your composition, or to seats upon the roofs..... The French Government has ordained the systematic gaththe Territories, was unconsti-there was no such point ever raised next moment, she was in her father's lap, previous. All anger—all resentment in the case, and there had been no action of a her small arms clinging round his neck, were gone, and kindness had taken their er Dred Scott was or was not entitled to his freedom?

The sponded air. Largar, as he classed the lose the whole amout of his indebtedness? Sundry calculations: then he put on his child fondly to his heart. "May all your was the condition of the former so much has recently been made at the foot of the spoken of but the class of arms."

The same responded air. Largar, as he classed the lose the whole amout of his indebtedness? Warm over-coat and buttoned it to the spoken of but the class of arms. The same responded air. Largar, as he classed the lose the whole amout of his indebtedness? Warm over-coat and buttoned it to the spoken of but the class of arms. New Years be happy?" he added, in a low better than his own, that he would care to voice, and with a prayer in his heart.

Can a negro, whose ancestors were brought into untry and soid as caused as shudder to run along his nerves.

To her it was a happy morning, and the caused a shudder to run along his nerves.

words that fell from her lips were heart"Poor man!" he said to himself, pityourte of the United States?
2nd, Where a master voluntarily takes his slave from echoes. But it was not so to Mr. Edgar, ingly. "What a terrible thing to be in-The cares of this world, and the deceitful volved in debt-thus crippled, thus driven ness of riches, had, like evil weeds, found to the wall! It would kill me. Men are a rank growth in his spirit; while good very cruel to each other, and I am cruel It will be observed that the first is a ques- seeds of truth, which, in earlier life, had with the rest. What are a thousand doltion of jurisdiction, and, according to all the sent forth their fresh green blades that lars to me, or to my well-to-do neighbor, lifted themselves in the bright, invigors compared with the ruin of a helpless fel-made thereon is binding, as an exposition of father's arms. When they were folded that causes my cheek to burn as I think constitutional law, by the highest judicial tri- tightly around her, she Lad nothing more of it, I answered, 'The first loss is always bunal of the country, it does not, in the least to desire; so she lay very still and silest, the best loss. I will get what I can, and the right to determine whether Slavery shall away from the loving child on his bosm me, has troubled my conscience ever since. to his own unsatisfied state of mind.

"For years," he said within himself,"I an's candor as a man, and of his integrity as have been in earnest pursuit of the means an officer, when he declares that in virtue of of happiness, yet happiness itself acons dwelling of his unfortunate debtor, when every year to be still further in the as- the latter, who had been walking the floor tance. There is something wrong. I an of his parlor in a troubled state of mind, right," that is, the right to hold slaves in a not be in the true path. My days tre came to the window and stood by his territory during the entire period of its territo- busy and restless, my nights burdened child, who was dear to him as a child with schemes that rarely do more than could be to the heart of a father. Mr. Buchanan not only announces such to cheat my glowing funcy. What is the "Happy New Year, papa!" It was the returns!" she said in loving tones as me ing, but the words seemed to choke him, pressed her lips to his forehead.

AN INTOLERABLE EVIL." Thomas Jef. of his wife, as she laid her hand upon is were given with the heart-warmth of child-

should be preserved for free labor. The lat- ken good wishes of his wife fell very grae- came up, and, leaning against her huster, although a native and a citizen of a Free fully, like refreshing dew upon his hear; band, looked forth with a sad heart. Oh, State, thinks that all the Territories of the but he was distinctly conscious of not le- no! it was not a Happy New Year's Union should be devoted to Slavery, with or ing happy. So far as worldly condition Morning to them. Long before the dawn without the consent of the people residing was concerned, Mr. Edgar had no came of another year, they must go forth from mine whether Thomas Jefferson, the author of of mental depression. His business as their pleasant home; and both their hearts the Declaration of Independence, or James prosperous under a careful management, shrunk back in fear from the dark beyond iquity, is the better exponent of the Democrat-Backanan so highly praises, are, first, that it denly to have been revealed to him, and depressed, and his countenance sad. Mrs. face.

at once converts all of the west Territory of the United States into Staveholding Territor. he felt inclined to look at it in all possibly James did not say "Good morning," in The United States into Staveholding Territory of the United States in the United S ries. Second, that it deprives the people of the aspects. "Why am I not happy?" The turn. But her husband saw the motion was briefly told. When Mr. Edgar had ness, and keep at it till it is finished. The Territories of all power to "choose for them- was urging the question bome. But the of her lips and the tears in her eyes, and finished, his wife arose, and, with tears of South will monopolize nearly all of the given to Mr. Edgar. These had been The business of New Year's day was to placed by the latter in the hands of his draw up as complete a statement as possitwo judgments that would take precedence desk where he was writing, and handed him of his, and sweep off a share of the debt- a letter which a lad had just brought in. or's property. The fact had chafed him He broke the seal with a nervous foreboconsiderably, causing him to indulge in ding of trouble, for of late, these letters language was not just, as his heart knew. been frequent, and rarely of an agreeable But the loss of his money fretted him, and character. From the envelope, as he filled him with unkind feelings towards commenced withdrawing the letter, there pulse that quickened the blood in his pressed back the ends so as to read its veins subsided, and, through the mist that face, and comprehend its import. Twice fortunate debtor. His own precious one were as follows: was no lovelier, no purer; nor had her one that married on that married in sweeter. One Thousand Dollars, in full of all demands. lips uttered on that morning in sweeter the ground, Mr. Edgar walked on. the could not sweep aside the image of that child at the window, nor keep back his thoughts from entering the dwelling where her presence might be the only sunbeam. Its language moved him deeply.

"Abraham James, Esq.,
Dear Sir: I was not in the right state of mind when I gave direction to have a sun brought against you. I have seen clearer since, and wish to act from a better principle. My own affairs are prosperous. During the very which has just cleared my notice have place. What if Mr. James did owe him change places with him? The very idea To her it was a happy morning, and the caused a shudder to run along his nerves.

he was sure, he could recover himself, and Ellen loved no place so well as her make all good. But, with a heartlessness No wonder it is not a Happy New Year."

Scarcely had Mr. Edgar passed the third time, since morning dawn, that he And Mr. Edgar fell into a deep revely, had received this greeting from the same from which he was aroused by the voce sweet lips—the third time that her kisses hood's unselfish love.

"A happy New Year, and many joyhl Mr. James tried to give back the greetand failed in the utterance. As the two He did not answer. The tenderly sto- stood by the window, the wife and mother

"Good morning, dear !" said Mr. James, "There is something wrong." Mr. Ri. soon afterwards, as, with hat and coat and he knew what was in her heart.

of a Constitution, preparatory to an admission and went to his store. As he passed along a painful one for Mr. James. The only log her arms around his neck, said: into the Union as a State, the question, instead the street, he saw at a window the face of creditor who had commenced a suit was "My good and generous husband! I of being upon the ADOPTION of Slavery, is a most levely child. Her beauty, that had Mr. Edgar, he having declined entering feel very proud of you this night. That we can not now discuss this question at in it something of heavenly innocence, into any arrangement with the other credin it something of heavenly innocence, into any arrangement with the other credinto any arrangement with the other cr greater length, but must content ourselves impressed him so deeply that he turned iters, coldly saying, that, in his opinion, name of our common humanity." with beseeching our Democratic brethren not to gain a second look, and, in doing so, his "the first loss was always the best loss," Never had words from the lips of his to be misled by the miserable sophistry of the cyes saw on the door of the dwelling the and that extensions were, in most cases, wife sounded so pleasantly in the ears of President, but to stand firmly by the doctrine name of Abraham James. There was an equivalent to the abandonment of a claim. Mr. Edgar. Never had be known so hapof Popular Sovereignty and non-interference, instant revulsion of feeling; and for the He was willing to take what the law py a New Year's Day as the one which first time that morning, Mr. Edgar remem- could give him. Pursuant to this view, had just closed; and though it saw him bered one of the causes of his uncomforta. a suit had been brought, and the debtor, poorer than he believed himself in the ble state of mind. Abraham James was to anticipate the result, confessed judg- morning, by nearly a thousand dollars, he ed the very ground upon which his election was an unfortunate debtor, who had failed to ment to two of his largest creditors, who was richer in feeling-richer in the heart's secured, and seeks now to place the party upon meet his obligations, among which were honorably bound themselves to see that a unwasting possessions—than he had ever retort upon you the "two-fold damnation" through his 40 foot telescope. A lecomotwo notes of five hundred dollars each, pro rata division was made of all his effects. been in his life.

> lawyer, with direction to sue them out, ble of his affairs, and Mr. James went York, for the week ending with Friday, and obtain the most that could be realized. about the work with a heavy heart. He amount to the sum of $1,510,982. The Only the day before—the last day of had been engaged in this way for over an total Foreign IMPORTS at New York, for the year-he had learned that there were hour, when one of his clerks came to the harsh language towards his debtor. The by the hands of private messengers, had the individual who had occasioned the loss. dropped upon the desk a narrow piece of obscured his mental vision, he saw the his eyes went over the brief lines, before that gave light in its gloomy chambers.

HIRAM EDGAR." With his face bowed, and his eyes upon Its language moved him deeply.

"A happy New Year, papa!" Mr. Eddousiness. Your affairs, on the contrary, are gar almost started, for the words had so distinct an utterance to his inward ear, that they appear as if any on the contrary, are interested to the started beautiful that they appear as if any on the contrary, are interested to the started beautiful that they appear as if any one of the contrary are interested. But in the prospectors. But it is prospectors. But that they seemed as if spoken in the am- There is an element in my character which gambling saloon. bled debtor, leaving the chamber where the had passed an almost sleepless night, make. In giving up this claim, I do not abanand coming with slow steps and sad face don an item that goes to complete the sum of my happiness. Not a single comfort will be to the family sitting room. There, alone, abridged. It will not shrink the dimensions with his face bowed in gloomy reverie, of my house, nor withdraw from myself or family any portion of food or raiment. Acof a member of the Court upon a point not necessarily involved in the decision of the case. THE HAPPY NEW-YEAR! Mr. Elgar had seen him; and while his cept, then, the New Year's gift I offer, and beheart was enlarged with pity and sympa- here that I have purer delight in giving than thy, the door opened—light footsteps you in receiving. My best wishes are with you for the future, and if, in anything, I can moved across the room-a child sprang aid you in your arrangements with creditors, tories he had been examining, and tore mean to break them." a thousand dollars? What if he should up several pieces of paper, on which were turn this afternoon. It is New Year's gument which came to our cars a few radical Slave State. walked down the store, "I shall not re-Day, and you can close up at two o'clock."

It cost Mr. Edgar a struggle to write the receipt in full. A thousand dollars was a large sum of money to give away by a single stroke of the pen. Love of gain, and selfishness, pleaded strongly for property of Bridget Malrooney; and the last farthing! but the better feelings of the man prevailed, and the good deed was done. How light his beart felt-how suddenly the clouds were lifted from his sky, and the strange pressure from his feelings! It was to him a new experience.

On the evening that closed the day, degree, deny to the people of a Territory, while the thoughts of her father wandered let the balance go. The look he gave in his elegant home, happier by far than he was in the morning, and almost wondering at the change in his state of mind. Little Ellen was in his arms, and as he looked upon her cherub face, he thought of a face as beautiful, seen by him in the morning, at the window of his unfortunate debtor-the face of an angel it had proved to him, for it prompted the good deed from which had sprung a double blessing. While he sat thus, he heard the door bell | Exactly, Mr. Brownlow, a more intimate | with the cow with a crumpled horn, frighted in a letter. He broke the seal and read:

"My Dear Sir: This morning my dear little Aggy, the light of our home, greeted me with a joyous Happy New Year.' I took her in my arms and kissed her, keeping my face close to hers, that she might not see the sadness of mine. Ah, sir! The day broke in gloom. The words of my child found no echo in my heart. I could and not risen above the weakness of nature. But all is changed now. A few minutes ago the 'Happy New Year' was flowing words went thrilling in gladness to my heart. yours, as it is closing for me and mine.

God bless you! ABRAHAN JAMES."

Mr. Edgar read this letter twice, and then handed it, without a word, to his wife. "What is the meaning of this? I do love and sympathy in her eyes, crossed session with its negro interests.

Where the Money Goes, The importations at the port of New

he :	ten mouths of
1	1853, an	ounted to	6127,584,533
	1854.	do	153,423,784
	1855,	do	1130,380,521
	1856,	do	187,072,760
	1857.	do	1207,009,358
- 6	1858.	do	123,930,836
	1859,	do	211,462'116
Thu	EXPORTS	for the	same period, (ten months) during the present year amount to $118,005,227, of which $63,270,614 No wonder that Mr. Edgarwas unhappy. paper, folded like a bill. He took it up balance being foreign merchandize and was in SPECIE AND BULLION! the He continued on his way, the angry im- with almost reductant fingers, and slowly domestic produce; of the latter, but $18,-223,743 worth was exported

It will be seen that the balance of trade the care and comfort you can give? AGAINST US, at the port of Mew York bright face of a child, the child of his un-PAST TEN MONTHS!

How long is it possible for our country to sustain this draught upon her pecuniary tones the words-"A happy New Year, Hurriedly, now, did Mr. James unfold resources, before she will be forced into papa!" How the thought thrilled him! the letter that accompanied this receipt. bankruptcy? Every week increases the debt, and renders us less able to square the account.

Such is the effect of the Free Trade policy of the Democratic party! We sadly need a change.

ORDERS NOT TO GO .- "I've got orders

na year orders "

ed, and one of them read aloud :

with the receipt inside, and placed it in forbid me going with you. They are in its list of contributors. crament has ordained the systematic gathhis pocket; then he put away the inven- God's orders, and, by His help, I don't > sion were hardly so convincing as the ar- to you will not appear in any paper in a Ural Mountains, Russia. One specimen days since, while passing through one of the by-ways of Lowell, inhabited chiefly by the sons and daughters of the Emerald Isle. A new sty had been built for the comfort and convenience of a sheat, the Bridget's neighbor, Ellen Flaherty, had called to inspect the premises, during the progress of which we happened to be passing. "An illigint sty," said Ellen, enthusiastically, "and the fine shoate-what company he'll be for ye when Patrick's away !"-[Lowell Courier.]

STRANGE CONVERSION.-Some time ago, the eccentric Parson Brownlow didn't see how it was possible for an Abolitionist to get to Heaven. He even intimated. indeed, he would rather be in a warmer spot, with those of his own way of think-But latterly he has been to hear Henry Ward Beecher preach. He thinks he is not a bad-hearted man, after all, and his Southern friends who get to Heaven need not be surprised to find Beecher there. your honest but cranky head of many of its absurd prejudices.

Good Apvice.-If the poorhouse has Journal. any terror for you, never buy what you don't need. Before you pay three cents for a jewsharp, see if you can't make just as pleasant a noise by whistling, for which have wept over her, if the strength of man- nature furnishes the machinery. And before you pay seven dollars for a figured vest, young man, find out whether your love would not be just as glad to see

In less than two hours after Congress in both Houses, in the Senate by Mr. Ma-The story, to which she listened eagerly, like to go to work at the national busi-

Discussion between Ladies. [The following are the points of a writlength in the N. Y. Tribune.]

ALTO, Va., Nov. 11, 1359. MRS. Mason .- Do you read your Bible, Mrs. Child? If you do, read there, "Woe unto you hypocrites," and take to yourself with two-fold damnation that terrible sen-

WAYLAND, Mass., Dec. 17, 1859. Mas. Camp.-I have no disposition to and the next.

sisterly and motherly care the hoary-headed from the sun to the earth in 8 minutes murderer of Harper's Ferry !

reputation may be safely trusted to the company has been formed in Haddam, impartial pen of History.

difficult to find any women in our villages "Pray, sir, what is steam?" "Steam, who does not sew for the poor, and watch ma'am, is, ah-steam is, ah-ah! steam with the sick, when occasion requires.

of maternity in those around you by all ing by; "but steam is a backet of water instance where the pangs of maternity did miles in length, is a fixed fact. The first here at the North, after we have helped and it was opened for regular travel on motherless child, that she might appear on composed of 3,000,000 blocks of solid her more fortunate companions?

generous wages, with which they can pur. last link in the Grand Trunk Railroad, chase as many Christmas gowns as they 1,000 miles long and in running order, the please-s process far better for their char- longest continuous line in the world -positive orders-not to go there-or- neters, as well as our own, than to receive It is estimated that the number of human ders that I dare not disobey," said a youth their clothing as a charity after being de- beings on the carth, is 1,000 millions, of

"Come, don't be so womanish-come for our servants, and why? Because we 63 every minute. As the number of along like a man," shouted the youths. endeavor to do our duty in that state of births is equal to that of the deaths, child-

Come show 'em to us if you can. Show state concerning the kindness of many Vir. you began this peragraph, several human John took out a neat wallet from his hearts; but, after all, the best that can exceedlt is said that there are not pocket, and pulling out a neatly folded be done in that way is a poor equivalent less than 8,004 languages in the world paper, "It's here," he said, unfolding the for the perpetual second done to the slaves, There are more than 1,000 different paper and showing the boys. They look- and the terrible limbilities to which they rolligious beliefs prevailing among the

in the consciousness of having nothing to the rocks of the coasts of Normandy and SELECT COMPANY .- We have frequent- lose in that quarter. Your letter to me Brittany, to serve as wadding for artillery > quotations, too extended to insert in our inexhaustible wealth has been discovered olumns. It will occur to others, as it At the Philadelphia Mint, in Novemdid to us, that Mrs. Child has slightly the ber, 3,300,000 of the nickel cent were best of the argument in temper and in coined. The Mint receives the Spanish coin in exchange for cents at rates which

The Big Virginia Scarecrow--or, The House that Wise built.

This is the house that Wise built. This is Qld Brown, all bleeding and now called the "Lowell of Pennsylvania," torn, that lay in the house that Wise having more manufactories than any other

These are the men, all forlorn, that worhe lay in the house that Wise built.

as he lay in the house that Wise built ing, than in Paradise with such fanatics. with the cow with a crumpled horn, frightened the men all forlors, that worried Old > the house that Wise built. This is the Union, shaven and shorn, the house that Wise built .- Chicago it in every section of the country.

The state of the s A Column of Varieties.

Since the brilliant display of falling controversy, begun by Mrs. M. J. C. stars between the 12th and 13th of No-Mason, of King George's Co., Virginia, vember, 1833, it has been observed that and replied to by Mrs. Lydia Masia this phenomenon is much more likely to be seen at this time of the year than at any other; and one learned astronomer, Oitiers, has come to the conclusion that it is probable that the next great display will take place between the 12th and 13th of November, 1867 Sir William Herschol was of opinion that light required 2,000,000 years to reach the earth from the most remote luminous vapor visible to which you consign me. On the con- tive cunning at the rate of 20 miles an trary, I wish you well, both in this world bour, constantly, day and night, would occupy more than 500 years in passing Mrs. Mason.-You would soothe with from the earth to the sun; but light passes

..... In Lima (Peru) slight shocks of Mrs. Child .- As for John Brown, his parthquakes average 45 per year A Conn., for the purpose of manufacturing Mrs. Mason. - Have you ever watched patent pecket numbrelles. This useful arthe last lingering illness of a consumptive, tiele will no longer be public property..... to soothe, as far as in you lay, the inevita. At a railroad station, an old lady said to a pompous looking gentleman, who was Mrs. Child.-It would be extremely talking about steam communication: is-steam !" "I knew that chap couldn't Mrs. Mason. - Do you soften the pangs tell ye," said a rough-boking fellow standin a tremendous perspiration.".....The Mrs. Child.-I have never known an Victoria tubular bridge at Montreal, two not meet with requisite assistance; and locomotive crossed over it on Nov. 24th, the mothers, we do not sell the babies! Dec. 18th. The engineer is A. M. Ross, Mrs. Mason.-Did you ever sit up until and the builder J. Hodges. Its entire the "wee hours" to complete a dress for a cost is $6,500,000. There are 24 piers, Christmas day in a new one, along with masoury. The total weight of the tubes, her more fortunate companions? which are all iron, is $,000 tuns. The Mrs. Child.—We pay our domestics shipping pass under them. This is the who was being tempted to a smoking and gambling saloon.

prived of just payment for their labor.

Mrs. Mason.—We do these and more 91 thousand per day, 2,800 per hour, and "No, I can't break orders," said John. life it has pleased God to place us. ren are born into the world at the rate of "What special orders have you got?" Mrs. Child. —I readily believe what you one a second; consequently, reader, since ginia matrons. It is creditable to their souls have commenced their immortal children of men Many of the carriages d, and one of them read aloud: are always subject. children of men..... Many of the carriages
"Enter not into the path of the wicked Mrs. Mason.—No Southerner ought, af-Mrs. Child .- I have great satisfaction ering of the sea-weed which is washed on brought the lucky owner $60,000. There [Both ladies make copious Scripture is every reason to believe that a mine of town of its size in the State The Amsterdam Crystal Paluce is to be completed ried Old Brown all bleeding and torn, as and opened in the year 1861. It will be 460 feet in length, by 200 feet in hight, This is the cow with a crumpled horn, at the junction of which will be a transcept that frightened the men all forlors, that and an ave of the edifice. The structure worried Old Brown all bleeding and tern, is to be of iron and glass; but, as Holland is not famous for fron, it will be supplied These are the rumors every morn, that, by England It is stated that the Paeilie Steam Navigation Company (British) will soon place a steam tug in the Bay of Brown all bleeding and torn, as he lay in Parama, to be employed in lighterage business generally, as well as for their own purposes. The tug is to be built of steel, dissolved by the rumors every morn, that, 120 feet long and 20 feet wide. She is ring. In a few minutes, the waiter hand- knowledge of Northern men would thin ened the men all forlorn, that worried Old to have a double engine, side wheels, and Brown, all bleeding and torn, as he lay in feet of water when loaded with 50 trns of cargo and 50 passengers and their luggage with the usual quantity of specie and mails. Life or John Brown .- A Biography | She is now being built at Liverpool, and of this remarkable man, is to be published is to be ready in January; but it is not at once, for the benefit of his family. The yet determined whether to rend her around author is James Redpath, the English Ab- Cape Horn, or vise the Isthmus, in parts, olitionist, so prominent in Kansas annals, to be put up at Panama......The largest an intimate personal friend of Capt. Brown, shell guns in our navy have a bore of and a spirited and graphic writer. He is eleven inches Hon. Charles Mason, you in a plain one, that cost half the money. If she wouldn't, let her crack respects, than any other person in the her removed to New York city, and become her own walnuts, and buy her own clothes country. The work will contain an auto- connected with this (Scientific American) biographical account of Capt. Brown's ear- establishment Take u 10, 12 or 14-inch assembled, the slavery question was sprung by life. It will be published by Thayer & worn-out saxmill file, grind up its ends, Eldridge, Boston, Mass., and will be an and insert it into some suitable contrivance son of Virginia, and in the House by Mr. elegant 12mo. volume of 400 pages, with for holding it secure, and you have a firstgar's thoughts were all running in one muffler on, he stood ready to go forth to not understand it, Hiram." Mrs. Edgar Clark of Missouri. Even the Senate engravings, and will also contain a fine rate mill-pick..... At the California State direction. A startling truth seemed ... meet the trials of the day. His voice was looked wonderingly into her husband's Chaplain, Mr. Gurley, hastened to lug steel portrait of Brown. Already, 20,000 Fair which was held at Sacramente in Occupied to him and depressed and his countenance and Mrs. face. perhaps surpass that of "Uncle Tom's ted, which we believe are the heaviest ever Cabin." We understand that the pub- sharn in muttendom. One feece weighed lishers are in want of Agents to circulate 434 lbs., the other 82f lbs., and the wool was fine and of a superior quality.

afford a large gain to the former The firet mill in Manayunk, Philadelphia, was erected about 40 years ago. Manayunk is don repose