Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 6, 1860.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics and Public officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, liberal producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

COUNTY BUILDINGS SOLD.—The following was the result of the vendue of the former Union County Buildings, at New Berlin, last Friday:

School Directors N. Berlin bought Court House for	$ 505
J. M. Taylor, Middlecreek, bought Jail for	600
Henry Seebold bought the Offices for	251
Evang. Association bought Public Square—the corner for	251
John S. Glover bought the second Outlot for	142
The remaining lot was all smash bought at	154
A Total of	$ 1,903

The Directors intend to re-model the Court House for Public School purposes. They pay probably about what the County laid out on the building, the most of it having been originally built by subscriptions from the vicinity. The Offices and Jail cost the County $1,000 to $2,000. Those lots sold very low, and the Jail purchaser gets thereby a good stone quarry! The Evangelicals contemplate erecting a church edifice on their corner lot. There was spirited competition, and quite a turn out to the supplementary "Court" day.

The postponing of the sale so often, and the lawsuits intervening, will doubtless consume the old $^{\text{m}}28, but each county—Union and Snyder—should realize near $1000 from the proceeds.

ANNUAL SETTLEMENT.—The Union county Auditors met on Monday, and finished their work on Wednesday.

Considering the times, the financial condition of the county has improved the past year, as will appear from the following statements:

The indebtedness on settlement, last year was	$12[illegible]
do do This year, is	1,[illegible]
Reduced more than one half, viz.	$ [illegible]

The balance due the county from her joint property at New Berlin, will discharge half her indebtedness.

Last year, there was due from Collectors,	$21[illegible]
This year, there is do do	4,[illegible]
More due us than last year by	$1,[illegible]

Showing a great backwardness on the part of some of the Collectors. Kelly and New Berlin have settled up in full, and Lewisburg and others nearly so.

There were no heavy Bridge payments this year. Among the settlements are about $400 for interest paid, $850 for County Buildings &c., $360 to the Prothonotary for his bills for three years past, $360 for board &c. of prisoners to the Sheriff, &c.

—The result is highly creditable to the management of Commissioners RUHL, LINCOLN and PROSS, and Treasurer SHELLER, who had the entire responsibility last year. The new Commissioner, Mr. KELLY, and the new Treasurer, Mr. LAIRD, will no doubt do their best to aid in wiping out the entire indebtedness this year. They are equally interested and equally willing. If there be no unforseen drawback, and if the duplicates are settled, and our people generally keep sober and peaceable, there can be no question but this year will face the County where she was before the hard times, extra expenses, and poor crops, have crippled her resources.

APPOINTMENTS.—The Union Commissioners made the following selections for this year:

Clerk—Andrew Kennedy.
Counsel—John B. Linn, Esq.
Viewers—Worden & Cornelius.
Mercantile Appraiser—Sam'l W Snodgrass

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES.—We have printed for sale a lot of nice blanks of this kind, at 25 cts per dozen. They are very often called for, can be easily filled up, and are suitable for framing. (This is "Leap Year," and we hope the ladies will have good luck in making their selections. As a general thing, we think they would be more happy, and exhibit better judgment than gentlemen do.) Clergymen and Justices should all have a supply on hand to please those who call for their services in this line.

☞The Judges of this District appointed James K. Davis of Selinsgrove, Member of the Board of Revenue Commissioners, which meets at Harrisburg in February. In Judge Jordan's District, A. J. Ulrich, Esq., of Williamsport, and in Judge Woodward's District, Thomas Osterhout of Tunkhannock, are appointed.

☞Tuesday and Wednesday, 24th and 25th inst., Messrs. Church and M'Michael will sell their large stock, including everything connected with their Foundry, at Laurelton, at the west end of this county.

First Elections in 1860!

Pittsburg, Pa., and Oswego, N. Y., are opened the ball for this year by electing Republican officers, throughout, by handsome majorities.

☞The Vinton Journal (Iowa,) sent out by J. Smith M'Cormick, has one article, marked, stating that that State would give 50,000 majority for the following Ticket:
President—Simon Cameron, of Pa.
Vice Pres.—Edward Bates, of Mo.

☞Day before yesterday, while James Walls was carrying a bag with three bushels of Rye up a stair in the warehouse of John Walls & Co. the stairs gave way, and in the fall Mr. Walls was severely bruised and had three ribs broken.

☞The present has been a most favorable season for procuring Ice, and people generally seem determined not to be "caught" as they were last winter.....We have fine sleighing, and business is brisk.

The Semi-Annual Meeting of the Telegraph company is at Danville, Jan. 17.

TERRIBLE SUFFERING.—On the afternoon of the 24th ult, during a severe storm, a teamster, who was transporting the family of Valentine Frantz from Hazleton to St. Clair, Schuylkill Co., Pa., was compelled to leave the wagon containing the family on a mountain side, while he took the horses to a blacksmith to have their shoes sharpened. Meanwhile, the family began to suffer from the cold, and Mrs. Frantz and her four children were secured in the most sheltered spot that could be found, while her daughter and son-in-law, with their child, started for help. When assistance arrived, they were all insensible, and were speedily taken back home. Mrs. Frantz, it is thought, would recover; her children were very low, and their recovery uncertain, while their little grand child had died. Their sufferings on that bleak mountain, in a winter storm, must have been intense.

A good house in Madisonburg, occupied by Mrs. Hoy, was burned, with most of her furniture, on the morning of the 27th ult.

The Lycoming Company paid $20,000 for losses by fires, quarter ending 1st inst.

George Sumner, the accomplished brother of the distinguished Senator, lectured in Scranton on "France and Louis Napoleon." He is the gentleman of whom Palmerston said that he was more familiar with European politics than any man now living. A very attractive speaker, his hearers were no doubt amply repaid for their attention.

Gen. Foster of Westmoreland declines being a Democratic candidate for Governor, but Wm. Hopkins of Washington and John L. Dawson take his place as Western candidates. Wm. H Witte, of Philad., is said to be Buchanan's choice, and the agents of the Administration are at work for him.

Rev. Mr. Dixon, of Clearfield Co., Pa., has assumed the pastoral care of the N. S. Presbyterian church, Northumberland.

ANOTHER WARNING.—One of our exchanges records the death of a young man who lost his life by skating till he was tired, and then lying on the ice to rest. The cold struck to his vitals and he contracted a disease which speedily terminated his existence.

In Bellefonte a number of persons of both parties, meet regularly at Hallibush's shop to read and discuss Helper's crisis.

A large Union meeting was held at Rochester, N. Y. The resolutions strongly rebuke the sentiment that the election of a President by a Constitutional majority, having views of public policy with which the minority do not coincide, would furnish a just cause for the dissolution of the Union.

Judge Gordon, of Reading, died on the 26th ult.

Jacob Baker, Esq., of Little Mahony township, on Wednesday week, was coming over the Mountain with his team, and while standing and talking to a friend whom he met in the road, he suddenly fell over, and in a few moments breathed his last. The deceased was an enterprising farmer and mechanic, and has been, for several years, a prominent candidate for the office of Sheriff. He leaves a wife and family of thirteen children.

On Christmas day, a new German Reformed church edifice was dedicated, near the ancient Lutheran Penns Creek Church in Centre county.

The Snyder County Institute, at Freeburg last week, was attended by 58 Teachers, with a lot of Honorary Members in addition. The proceedings were spirited, and doubtless profitable.

Somerset county produced no less than 173,552 bushels of buckwheat last season, and maple molasses enough to spread all the cakes it will make.

The Huntingdon Journal and American has adopted the cash system. "No pay, no paper," is an excellent motto, and one that should be universally adopted by the country press.

YORK COUNTY BANK.—At a recent meeting of the Directors, F. A. Small, Esq., was unanimously elected President, in place of Eli Lewis, Esq., resigned.

M. B. Priestly killed his large hog this week, and, when dressed, its weight is represented to have been 691 pounds.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—The Grand Jury of the United States District Court that evening found an indictment under the Fugitive Slave Law against eight citizens of Ottowa, Ill., for the rescue of an alleged slave in that city in October last.

Advices from Brownsville to the 20th are furnished by the ship Arizona, at New Orleans. Cortinas' band of outlaws had been defeated, and were retreating.

About 2000 persons crowded to see the face of young Coppie, who was buried in an obscure place in Ohio, and perhaps not one went away without a deeper determination to do his or her part to stop the progress of Slavery.

Pickles says that they are plenty of people in the world who remember the poor, but always forget to give them anything!

The "Sawbones Exodus," continues to amuse the public, although respectable Southern physicians shudder to contemplate the calamities to their profession and the community which would result from the practice of men so imperfectly prepared as they must be in the South for years to come. However, scores of the revolting students have returned to Philad., by the advice of their friends, protesting that their exit was only a "Christmas spree."

India rubber shoes should only be worn when the walking is muddy or sloshy, and should always be removed when entering the house.

The three preachers, Irish Presbyterian Delegates to America, have returned, after securing about thirty thousand dollars towards their object.

John Sherman, Republican candidate for Speaker, is of good Whig stock, having Roger Sherman, the Connecticut shoemaker, among his ancestors.

George Woodson, a free colored man, died recently at Norfolk, Virginia, age one hundred and twenty years. He was a middle-aged man when the Revolutionary War broke out.

Judge Douglas has taken his seat in the U. S. Senate, but is far from being restored to his former robust health.

Country girls cheeks are presumed to be like French calico, from the fact that washing does not destroy their color.

ALBANY, Jan. 3—The Message of Gov. Morgan was read in both Houses of the Legislature, to-day.

On referring to the slavery question, he says New York still maintains the opinions she always held in reference to this evil. She yields to none of her sister States in devotion to the Union. She emphatically disavows all sympathy or co operation with those misguided men who have sought, unlawfully, to interfere with the institutions of any of her sister States.

He concludes by referring to slavery in States and Territories as follows: Yielding cheerful obedience to the doctrines of State sovereignty, having no disposition to interfere with the local institutions of the States, in the preservation of their sovereign power, the people of New York, while always enforcing their views in a legal, peaceful and constitutional manner, will not surrender the right to participate in the reformation of this or any other evil in the Administration of the General Government.

We notice that a statement is afloat that Gerrit Smith will go to Europe as soon as he is sufficiently restored to health to bear the fatigue of travel. The death of his friend Timothy Jenkins will be a serious blow to Mr. Smith. The relations of these gentlemen as friends, client and counsel, were very intimate.

Helper has sent a splendidly bound copy of the unabridged edition of his "Impending Crisis" to Missouri Clark, with a letter, returning that gentleman his sincere thanks for the magnificent advertisements he has bestowed, free of charge, upon his book.

When the mercuary ranges at zero, that's the time to remember the poor!

Harrisburg.—The Legislature of our State met on Tuesday of this week, and after an organization no doubt but what the assembled intelligence and wit of Pennsylvania will give us some fine specimens of eloquence on the exciting topics of the day, and towards the close of the session will probably do a little business; but about the first part, after an organization, will be to pass a resolution recommending all persons to purchase their Boots and Shoes of G. Marsh, in consequence of the hard times, and thereby save much money. This would, without doubt, be the best thing they could do for the present. ☞Place, right opposite the Lewisburg Bank.

THROUGH PERSEVERANCE AND ECONOMY WE THRIVE.

I HAVE now opened, at my Tannery, (formerly H.W. Fries') in Lewisburg, a Boot and Shoe Manufactory, and most respectfully solicit the patronage of the community, hoping for a strict attention to business to merit a share of the trade. I am determined to sell, for Cash the best Article for the least Money, both for style and durability, as the material is of my own Tannage, except the Morocco, Kid and French, of which I have procured the best in market. My own Tannage, and stock worked in my shop, insured and warranted as recommended.

LADIES and others who may desire it will be waited on for measures at their residences or at my dwelling, near the shop, by Mr. Fisher, my foreman.

No Eastern work kept for sale, but I can compete with Eastern work in prices, and furnish a better article. In fact I am determined to sell lower than any competitor. My object is to dispose of my Hides at cash prices and Manufacturing added.

Those who try me will find this no humbug, but greatly to the interest of those who wish to get the value of their money.

I do not deem it important to quote prices, as sizes and stock differ materially.

FARMERS having hides to dispose of, may find it an advantage to bring them to the Yard, as an allowance will be made to them on hides.

The Highest Price for Hides, in Cash or Boots and Shoes.

Leather for sale at all times, on accommodating terms and at low prices.
