A UNION MEETING AND A "UNION" PARTY .- Some of the leading members of the Opposition to the Democratic party, desirous of forming an opposition party less objectionable than the avowed principles of the Republican party, had a grand gathering at the Academy of Music on Saturday night, to inaugurate the movement with a dinner to the Hon. Builie Peyton, an old line Whig, and once a distinguished representative in Congress from Tennessee. There was a large assemblace of gentlemen, and, what is a novel feature in a political meeting, a great number of ladies. There was a singular combination of elements-Whig, Republican and American, of Southern and Northern sentiments, of which bermon'zed fraternally parties, and settled the contest. till about the close of the meeting, when Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, took occasion to pitch wickedly into the Republican pardone for. This being spiritedly replied to with dissent, produced great felling and some hisses, and the festive party broke up just now, that, as soon as it comes in con- filled, than that constant changes should The 3d and 4th propositions, it will be seen, it is sure to create a fizzle .- Philadelphia Ledger.
