Thirty-Sixth Congress...lst Session.

A Speaker at Last!

The past, has been rather a lively week at Washington. Tired (we hope) of "dissolving the Union," and of advertising SMITH of North Carolina, gracefully with Helper's book, the Democracy abstained from speaking and tried a new game at voting.

On FRIDAY last, the South Americans had agreed to support Wm. H. N. Smith, one of their own number from North Carolina, for Speaker. By representing him as an old Whig Tariff man, and dead op Republicans called for another vote. The posed to the Lecompton Administration, Democrats made long specches to allow they over-persuaded Mr. Nixon of N. J., and Mesers. Merris, Scranton, Junkin, Mallery (Am.) of Ky., sail "the choice and Wood of Pa., with two or three other Northern men, to "give Smith one complimentary vote." They next told the Democracy they could elect Smith if they would give him, in addition, the solid Democratic vote. Some of the Anti-Lecompton Democrats were then made to believe he was "all right." On the ballot taken, Smith it was found had 100 votes. Then, Democrats who had at first refused to vote for him-who solemnly declared they never would support a Know Nothing-began to change their votes in his favor. It was offirmed be was not and never was a Know Nothing, upon which all the Democratic party, (except three ists, Free Traders and Slavery Extension- House adjourned. chanan, they also "changed their votes," and thus defeated the bold, bald game-Smith lacked 3 of an election, and the House adjourned until Monday.

SATURDAY, Mr. Sherman called his friends together, and insisted upon their trying another candidate. He felt proud tations of applause. The Clerk announcof their support, but thought perhaps ed that Mr. PENNINGTON was elected some other one could command more Speaker of the House, and named Messrs. votes. Without any formal action, Ex- Bocock and Sherman to conduct the Spea-Gov. Pennington, of New Jersey, was gon- ker to the Chair, which they promptly erally fixed upon as the Opposition can- did. They had stood here undismayed, amid threats of disunion and disorganizationconscious of the rectitude of their intentions, firm in their adoration of the Constihave been silent, firm and manly. On the other hand, they have seen their ancient and national adversary broken into frag- there were say 120 elected as Opposition, of ments. They have seen some of them combine, by a written agreement, to prevent a majority of the House from prescribing rules for the organization of this body. They have heard others proclaim threats of Disunion-proclaim that if a Republican should be elected President of the United States, they would tear down this fair fabric, and break up the Union of these States. And new they have seen their ancient adversaries, broken-dispersed, and disorganized-unite in supporting a gentleman here in open and avowed hostility to their organization. I should regret extremely, and I believe it would be a national calamity, to have any one who is a supporter, directly or indirectly, of and Pro-Slaver, side often were ready to come this Administration, or who owed it any ellegiance, or favor, or affection, occupy any position in this House.
