In a recent lecture, Henry Ward Beech- Hurzh & Goedman, Merchants, Lewisburg er gave an account of his first year in the ministry, the first flock which he gathered consisting of only nineteen poor women. He was then not only the pastor, but the sexton of the church, filling and lighting the lumps, which he was compelled to buy himself, kindling the fires and sweeping the church. He did not ring the bell, because he had none to ring. Such was the humble beginning of a most popular prea-

A lady passing through the country, observed the following notice on a board : "Horses taken in to grass. Long tails, three shillings and six pence; short tails, two shillings." The lady asked the owner of the land the reason for the difference of the price? He answered, "you see, ma'am, the long tails can brush away the flies ; but the short tails are so tormented by them, that they can hardly eat at all."

The recent system of advertising Mr. Helper's book on the "Impending Crisis of the South," has been productive of the most cheering results to the author.
