Lewisburg, Pa.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEB 28, 1860.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics Public Officers in City and Country, Professional all who wish to let or sell property, should bear in mind columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, widely known, large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, industrious producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ This week's paper is issued in advance of our usual day, and next week's may be somewhat behind the usual time.

☞ A large number of clergymen and others have already arrived, to attend the East Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church, which commences its third session, to-morrow morning, at the M. E. Chapel. Its morning sessions we understand are generally devoted to business, and the evenings to anniversary sermons, addresses, &c. The seats, of course, are free to all. The Conference embraces about 200 preachers—40,000 private members. It comprises a portion of Baltimore, that section of Maryland on the Potomac, and the whole tract of country between the Alleghenies and the Susquehanna as high as Berwick, with a portion of Luzerne, Columbia, Northumberland and York counties, to the East of that River. The proceedings as they transpire we purpose giving from day to day in the Record.

☞ The "Record" we intend sending through town as soon as it can be closed after the morning sessions of Conference, and will be sent away by the first mails. Sold at the Office or Conference room, 2 cents each: delivered in town, or mailed, 15 cents for the term.

—The number of subscribers to the Daily already received, warrants us in recommending it as an excellent medium for the circulation of proper Advertisements. $2 for one square of 16 lines for the term. All Job Printing done at this office. We have two mails for advertising purposes from abroad, and will be glad to receive further favors. Visitors welcome morning.

☞ Visitors at the Chronicle office will please bear in mind that we are very busy just now, and remember the motto—"Be short."

☞ The "Democratic" Governor of Kansas has vetoed a bill which passed the Legislature abolishing Slavery in that Territory. "Popular Sovereignty"—"No danger of Slavery going there"—"Buchanan and Free Kansas!" with a vengeance!

☞ A Company of Light Artillery, consisting of sixty members, has been formed in Lewisburg. They intend to procure six pieces of cannon.

☞ The Ice has been moving out of the Susquehanna since Thursday of last week We hear of no damage being done.

☞ We observe nothing of special interest or importance in the Legislative proceedings.

☞ Col. Curtin was to "open the ball" by a speech in Pittsburg, Saturday evening last.

LEAVENWORTH, K. T., Feb. 25.—The Pike's Peak express arrived this morning, with $2500 in gold and the mails.

Good prospects had been obtained in the mountains between Denver City and Gregory's mines. Two cords of quartz, mingled with pyrites of iron, had yielded, after crushing, $1700 in gold.

A train of breadstuffs and produce had arrived from New Mexico.

A new and extremely rich gulch had been discovered ten miles from Gregory's old diggings.

REMOVAL OF THE CAPITAL.—A select committee of the Senate has reported a bill in favor of removing the Capital from Harrisburg to Philadelphia. We think there is corruption enough in Harrisburg without requiring our legislators to meet in a large city like Philadelphia—there are too many temptations there for the loose morals of some of the law-makers.—Miltonian.

There is no reason why the present Legislature should remain in session over sixty days. With the exception of the appropriation bills, there is no public business to transact, and our representatives could easily pass them and adjourn by the 15 of March.

CLOVER SEED.—The Legislature of this State has passed a bill, making the standard weight of clover seed, sixty pounds, which has been signed by the Governor.

Petitions are circulating in various counties of the State praying the Legislature to enact a law making the State Superintendent of Common Schools elective by the people. Better let well enough alone. No more effectual way, we think, could be devised, to impair our noble school system than to run it into politics. If anybody doubt the Governor, let the County Superintendents elect the State Superintendent.

Mr. Seward introduced into the Senate, the bill for the admission of Kansas. It was objected to by a question whether a census had been taken. It was triumphantly replied that no funds had been voted with which to take the census. The bill lies over, but it was expected Mr. Seward would call it up this week, and speak upon the subject, in general and particular.

The House has before it one or two of the appropriation Bills. No Printer has yet been agreed upon.

Mr. Young, of Wellsboro' Pa., is appointed to the charge of the Bill Department in the H. R., Washington.

The will of the late Stephen Whitney, the millionaire, is published. The immense estate which it disposes of (some $15,000,000 in value) all goes to the children and grandchildren. Not a dollar goes out of the family. The various public and private charities that were confidently calculating on being remembered, get—"many red." Hon J. Philips Phenix, son-in-law of the testator, (and ex M. C. from N. Y. city) comes in for a big slice.

News Items from Other Counties.

The Williamsport Library Association is now fully organized, having accepted their charter and elected their officers. Their fine large library apartment is open every evening, except Sunday, and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

George W. Plummer, of Altoona, thirteen years of age, delivered a Temperance lecture in the Hall of the House of Representatives in Harrisburg last week. The object is to raise means to educate his brother James, who had his hands blown off by the premature discharge of a cannon during an encampment at Hollidaysburg. Master Plummer is exceedingly eloquent for one so young, and has lectured with success in several towns in the Juniata region.

A VICTIM OF WHISKEY.—Two young men in the lower part of this borough, on Tuesday evening last, concluded to have a "drunk" on the 22d of February, purchased a quart of the best levy tanglefoot, heavily charged with strychnine, for the occasion, and on their way home, (about three quarters of a mile,) concluded to taste the critter, which, of course, made them feel very liberal, and when they got home one of them, a son of a widow, proposed to share the beverage with a younger brother, about five years old. He gave the child a pretty good dose, which caused him to lie in stupor until next day, when he was thrown into spasms. A physician was called in, who applied the proper remedies, but the case is a critical one, it may yet prove fatal. Since the above was put in type we learn that the child is dead.—Sunbury American.

On Wednesday, Horace Binney of Philadelphia, eighty years of age, read, before the Councils of Philadelphia, the farewell Address of Washington.

The election of Directors of the Northern Central R. R Company, came off at Baltimore on Thursday, with the following result: James Frazer, Peter Mowell, Wm. F. Walters, Adam Denmead, John Merryman, Aaron Hoffman, Simon Cameron, Amos E. Kapp, Wm. Calder, Jr., Alex Small, Jacob S. Haldeman, and Wm. Cameron.

ALMOST AN ESCAPE.—On last Tuesday evening Sheriff Vandyke discovered that four of his prisoners, named Crawford, Smith, Longan, and the fourth an Irishman—name not known to us—who were lodged together in the same room, had made such preparations to escape as would have been successful had they not been interfered with.—Sunbury Gazette.

A serious accident occurred on Wednesday week, by which a brakesman on the Catawissa Railroad, while attempting to get upon a Freight train, slipped and fell with one leg across the track, which resulted in cutting it off immediately below the knee. He died of his wounds on the following Thursday.

On Wednesday evening a large party of young folks, from Lewisburg, visited our town, and put up at the "Eagle" where they enjoyed themselves to their hearts content.—Miltonian.

The present Catholic population of Philadelphia, is estimated at 130,000, for the accommodation of which there are twenty-eight Catholic churches.

DROWNED.—Solomon Romig, in West Beaver township, Snyder county, drowned in a Spring on his place, on Monday the 20th inst. He was an old and helpless man, in the 79 year of his age.

A Reading Society has been formed in the Missionary Institute at Selinsgrove.

John Murray, of Harrisburg, has been appointed despatcher of cars on the Northern Central Railroad at Marysville station, a few miles above Harrisburg.

In Philadelphia, on Friday last, Richard Thompson was convicted of murder in the first degree, in killing John Capie. The jury were out one week.

A little daughter of Samuel Aultz, of Lewistown, Pa., accidentally swallowed a new cent, a few days since, from the effects of which she took sick and died shortly after.

Mrs. Confer, an old lady residing in Moreland township, Lycoming county, accidentally fell into a well on Wednesday last, while engaged in getting some water, and was so severely injured that she died a short time after being taken out.

Jno. Leisenring, Esq., of Ekly, has been appointed Superintendent of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company. A cotemporary, says, Mr. Leisenring is an experienced engineer—having been the first assistant under Mr. Douglas on the Lehigh Canal and on the Lehigh and Susquehanna Railroad.

The "Continental" Hotel, Philadelphia, has been rented to Paran Stephens, for a term of twelve years, for $10,000 per annum.

The large and commodious Hall in Philadelphia, known as "Jayne's Hall," has been remodelled, and is to be used as a jobbing room, which will make one of the most extensive in the country.

The Northern Central Railroad bridge at Dauphin was discovered to be on fire, on the 10th inst., but the flames were extinguished before any considerable damage was done. It was fired by sparks from a locomotive.

The Wyoming Republican is the name of a paper of the "right stripe," just started in Tunkhannock, Pa.

Over one hundred persons have recently joined the Pittston M. E. Church.

Mrs. M'Cormick, mother of the coroner of Dauphin county, Pa., while engaged in devotion at the "mourner's bench" in the United Brethren Church, at Highspire last Thursday evening, suddenly fell to the floor in a fit, and expired in five minutes time.

The man named Stryeker, whose leg was taken off by the cars at Catawissa, a few days since, died of his injuries on Sunday evening. His remains were taken through Elmira, on Monday night, to the residence of his parents near Syracuse.

There will be but little change among our business men or firms the coming Spring. Those in business can not well get out, and those out have too much sense to go in.—Selinsgrove Democrat.

The Bloomsburg Exchange Hotel, by Peter Billmeyer, was sold on Tuesday last to Bradley Koons, of Town Hill, Luzerne county. It brought the sum of $6,575. The new Proprietor will take possession on the first of April next.

CONVICTION IN ERIE COUNTY, PA.—Charles Fiske, indicted for the murder of John Fenno, was convicted for murder, and sentenced to the penitentiary two years. Fenno lived with Fiske in Waterford township....The murder occurred in August last, while both parties were intoxicated. Fenno was shot, and his body buried, but afterwards dug up on suspicion.

RESOLUTION.—We see it stated that Judge Galbraith publicly declared during the trial of Faust for murder, at Erie, in this State, that he would never again affix his signature to a petition, or license to sell strong drinks of any kind. May he abide strictly by that resolution. Were all the Judges to do as Judge G. promises to do, there would be fewer murders to try, less domestic misery, fewer fools and fewer knaves to prey upon them.

☞ Col. Jno. W. Forney's "Press" of Friday, says:

"It gives us great pleasure to speak of this selection in terms of high praise. Col. Curtin is a gentleman of irreproachable character, and more than ordinary abilities; a fine speaker, a thorough-bred Pennsylvanian, and a national man. He wields a great and just influence in the region in which he lives, and comes of a family that has entitled itself to the confidence of the people of middle Pennsylvania. His fine presence, generous character, and noble nature, will attract to his standard many voters."

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.—A law has been passed by the Legislature, that provides that every person hereafter elected to the office of Justice of the Peace, shall, within thirty days after the election, if he intends to accept said office, give notice thereof in writing to the Prothonotary of the Common Pleas of the proper county, who shall immediately inform the Secretary of the Commonwealth of said acceptance; and no commission shall issue until the Secretary of the Commonwealth has received the notice aforesaid.

The students of South Carolina have come out in suits of grey kerseys of Southern manufacture. This is admirable. When they grow up, if they do not flinch from the wearing of this costume, they will be in the best sense true tariff men—practically exemplifying the right principles.

Several hundred journeyman shoemakers in Massachusetts are on a "strike" for higher wages. Much excitement prevails. The shoemaking business is evidently overdone in many parts of the Union, and employees as well as workmen complain in consequence.

While Martin L. Wagner and others, of West Buffaloe township, were out hunting Foxes, their dogs followed the trail of a Wild Cat, and soon overtook it, when a fight took place, in which some of the dogs were severely scratched, but finally succeeded in killing the "critter."

Patent Pocket COIN DETECTOR,

FOR TESTING THE VALUE OF GOLD AND SILVER COINS

It is admitted by all to be the most perfect thing of the kind ever offered to the public.
It is so small that it can be carried in the pocket without any inconvenience.
Every Merchant should have it!
Every Banker should have it!
Every Lawyer should have it!
Every Man in Business should have it!
It detects at the same moment both gross deficiency and weight, from a Half Dime to a Dollar in Silver, and from a Five Dollar piece to a Gold Dollar in Gold, and will do so quickly to work, without the least interest to avoid it, is elegant, essentially useful, durable, economical and perfect.
PRICE ONE DOLLAR.
Postpaid, to any part of the United States.
SEE WHAT THE PRESS SAY!
The possession of so perfect instrument against base counterfeit upon which we are constantly liable to imposition, is worth a thousand times the cost of the article.—Evening Bulletin.
A blind man will soon find out how much gold he has since the invention of this instrument.—Evening Journal.
We pronounce it without hesitation the most perfect thing of the kind ever offered to the public.—Pennsylvanian.
We like it, and cordially recommend it to public favor.—National Inquirer.
