

AN ADIEU.

A blooming lass of sweet sixteen First raised my admiration...

Exploratory.

The steamer S—, commanded by Capt. S—, exploded several years ago with terrific effect...

Yes.

"Was Captain S— killed?" "No—I am Captain S—"

High enough to think of every man thing I ever did in my life before I came down.

The editor started on a run for his office, the paper about going to press, and not wishing to omit the item of intelligence for the next issue...

We meant to say, the boat was three months old, not the Captain, who is of course worse for what we said in our last paper.

Gift Books.—A year since we were offered $100 worth of advertising by each of two "gift-book" men...

Reverse of Fortune.

The St. Louis Republican relates the following: Kate Lecount, once one of the handsomest women in St. Louis...

The hotel keepers of Charleston are determined to make something handsome out of the Democracy...

Mr. Van Wyck. Sir, I will indulge in no unkind remark to wound the feelings of any man, but the charge must be met, and history vindicated...

Mr. Van Wyck. My time is short, and I hope not to be interrupted.

Mr. Van Wyck. I have heard such words before, and I am not to be disturbed nor interfered with by any blustering sort of that sort...

Mr. Van Wyck. I have heard such words before, and I am not to be disturbed nor interfered with by any blustering sort of that sort...

It is significant as singular, that not a single dissonant speech has been made in the House of Representatives in Congress since the election of Mr. Pennington...

Hon. Edward Bates, who is now a prominent candidate for the Republican nomination for the Presidency...

A person somewhat given to speech making was recently elected a member of the school committee...

A person somewhat given to speech making was recently elected a member of the school committee, under a solemn promise never to make a speech before any school.

Perilous Position.

Near Dubuque, Iowa, last week, a shaft was being blasted through a rocky thirty feet deep. A man named Norton was engaged in drilling...

Having finished a drill, loaded it, and getting ready preparatory to firing the fuse, Mr. Norton commenced picking up his tools, in readiness to ascend...

The man at the windlass made superhuman efforts, and had hauled the other within some ten feet of the mouth, when the handle of the windlass broke!

Southern Insults.

A little "scene" will still, once in a while, transpire in Congress. The Globe, the official organ of Congress, gives this report of an episode in the House...

Mr. Van Wyck. Sir, I will indulge in no unkind remark to wound the feelings of any man, but the charge must be met, and history vindicated...
