Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 20, 1860

ADVERTISE.—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Professional Men, Public Officers in City and Country, Speculators—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to consider the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a good proportion of wealthy, intelligent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ Next week is Special Court for Union county. Give us a call, or send.

☞ On the 4th May, the Supervisors of Hartley township will receive Proposals, at Steer' Tavern, in the Narrows, for making that portion of the M'Call Road in Hartley township.

AGRICULTURAL PREMIUMS.—It would be a good plan for Agricultural Societies to publish their Premium Lists at least once in the Spring, so that farmers and all others could have certain objects to work for, and to be looking out, the whole season, for particular chances.

☞ Rev. P. Rizer, of the Lutheran Church, has removed from New Berlin to Sunbury.....Charles H. Gunther, Theological Graduate from Lewisburg, was ordained pastor of the Baptist church in Cambridge, Guernsey Co., O., on the 29th ultimo.

Godey's Lady's Book for May has a splendid steel engraving—"A May Party"—and over sixty other pictures, cuts, or diagrams illustrating various matters peculiarly interesting to ladies, but most of which gentlemen also will read. We may be singular in our view, but we are glad to see that this No. concludes the narrative of "Miss Simmons'"—and a very coarse, unnatural caricature it has been, relieved by no strokes of humor, conserved by no refining, instructive or ennobling thoughts, to apologize for its tedious mass of surveling vulgarity. An entertaining and useful account of Chinese tea culture is continued in this No., which contains (as usual) some very creditable light sketches, genuine poetry, and directions for cooking, sewing, the preservation of health, and home matters in general. [Address L. A. Godey, Philadelphia—$3 per year of two volumes.]

☞ About two o'clock on Saturday afternoon last, Mr. Light ascended from Lock Haven in a balloon, rising as he thought about two miles—above the white clouds—to a region so cold that he feared his toes were frozen. He had intended to alight near Williamsport, but the current carried him rather southerly, over the wooded country more in a direct line between Lock Haven and Lewisburg, and he landed on the farm of Abram Wolfe, in East Buffaloe township, about two miles south-east of Lewisburg. Some had discovered the mere speck in the distance, and watched its coming. When "the thing lit," one chap was afraid to go near it, but others were soon on the spot and aided the aeronaut in securing and packing up his vehicle, which had dragged and been damaged considerably, bruising Mr. Light somewhat, before his grappling irons caught firm hold of a secure fixture. He judged he was about fifty minutes in coming the fifty miles—was in our office and telegraphed back his safe descent, at 4½ P. M.—and returned by cars to Lock Haven that evening.

☞ MR. GREELEY'S Lecture, on Wednesday evening, was listened to with profound interest by a crowd which filled the Hall, below, and most of the galleries. His subject—"the Characteristics of Great Men"—was treated in his usual manly, vigorous, practical style, with occasional touches of humor and amusing episodes. He was laboring under a cold, and complained of the closeness of the room, which made his utterance often too rapid to be caught by any—otherwise, his delivery was good. Mr. G. is no orator, but is everywhere greeted by large audiences of those who have perused his writings, and who are attracted by the simple benevolence and large-hearted practical enterprise of the man. Although a reader of his papers since 1836, we never before met him, and was agreeably surprised to find such a youthful looking and youthful spirited man, who has led a very laborious and doggedly industrious—but very temperate—life of nearly 50 years.....Mr. G. was to lecture, last evening, in Milton, on "America between the Alleghenies and the Pacific"—and on this (Friday) evening, at Elmira.

Philadelphia Politics.

The two great parties have made out their nominations for the offices to be filled at the Philadelphia municipal election in May. They are as follows:

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Mayor—John Robins, Jr.
City Controller—John R. Downing.
Receiver of Taxes—John C. Kelly.
City Solicitor—H. M. Dechert.
City Commissioner—Charles M. Smith.

PEOPLE'S TICKET.

Mayor—Alexander Henry.
City Controller—George W. Hufty.
Receiver of Taxes—Wm. P. Hamm.
City Solicitor—Charles E. Rex.
City Commissioner—J. N. Houseman.

Both parties appear well pleased with their nominations, and have had each of the candidates for Governor at their Mass Meetings. The Administration are especially anxious to signalize the Charleston Nominations by a victory in this City. The rallying cry is, "As goes Philadelphia, so goes the Union"—a pretence far from the truth in the days of Henry Clay and of others that might be named. No man has better deserved a re-election, than has Mayor Henry, whose success will be to the credit of the City, abroad. Monday, the 7th of May, is the day.

The freshets in Ohio &c. have been quite destructive this spring.

News Items from Other Counties.

MIDDLEBURG NEWS.—Two alarms of fire, both extinguished. Robert Smith was thrown from a sulky, and broke his arm. The house of David Berger, near town, was shattered by lightning. Domestic quadrupeds are very annoying in the streets. Dr. Bowes is fitting up for a Store. Special Court commences Monday, 20th inst.

The Commissioners of Allegheny county, Pa., have assigned to Samuel M'Kelvy, Thomas A. Rowley, John Barton, Wm. Ward, John R. Large and Roly Patterson, all the interest of Allegheny county, in the stock of various railroads, in trust for the benefit pro rata of the holders of county bonds issued in payment thereof.

A boy named Charles Bear, died on Monday morning from Lock Jaw, caused by a wound from a nail in the foot a few days previously. He was about twelve years of age.—Lancaster Examiner.

The Mifflintown Sentinel praises a "Gift Book Store" in one article, and denounces a "Gift Enterprise" in the next.

The Grand Jury have again recommended the erection of a new Jail Wall in Sunbury, which if attended to immediately by the Commissioners they would carry out the wishes of a vast majority of the people who are quite tired of hearing of so many escapes.

H. M. Brewer, Principal of the Turbutville Academy, we see has vacated that position and removed to Somerset, Somerset county, to take charge of an Academy in that place.

The Coal Lodger is a very neat looking paper just started in Minersville, Schuylkill county, by F. T. Bennett.

On Monday morning of last week, the lightning inflicted considerable injury in the house of Henry Comfort, in Warrington township, York county.

The thunder-storm of Easter Sunday killed two cows and a two-year old colt in the barn of John E. Addams, in Lower Heidelberg township, Berks county, fortunately without setting the barn on fire.

Dr. E. L. Acker is a lucky chap. He is editor of the old Norristown Register—is (or was,) School Superintendent of Montgomery county—and is now appointed Post Master at Norristown.

A Williamsporter was recently robbed of his gold watch valued at $140, in Philadelphia, while in the company of two frail young ladies. The women were arrested, but the watch wasn't.

During the season of Passover, the Jews of Danville received 1000 pounds of unleavened bread, from Philadelphia, at a cost of about one hundred dollars.

The bill to abolish the Northern District of the Supreme Court of Penn'a., passed, and is in the Governor's hands.

An extensive robbery was committed on last Tuesday week night by burglars breaking open the front door of T. G. Cooper's store, in Sunbury. They forced the lower part of the door partly open with a chisel and inserted a wooden wedge with which they succeeded in breaking off the lock and entered. After rumaging the money drawers and trying the safe, they carried away all the dress silks and a large quantity of jewelry to the value of nearly four hundred dollars. There is no suspicion of the whereabouts of the villians or the property. Mr. Cooper is a young man, just started in business, with but a limited capital, and this loss will fall heavily upon him.

Rev. Dr. John Barker, President of the Allegheny College, Meadville, died there on Sunday morning, March 4th, after a day's illness with paralysis.

The Democrats of Chillisquaque, in Northumberland county, have organized for the campaign. (It is time the Republicans were at work also.)

A frame house of Wm. H. Metzgar, inhabited by three families, in Hebron Tp., Potter Co., was burned, 9th inst., the three tenants and the owners losing altogether about $1200. Caught from a stove pipe.....The next day, the carpenter shop of W. B. Gordenier, in Coudersport, was burned.

The Welsh Choral Society of Danville, led by John A. Jones, and assisted by P. Tu. Held of Lewisburg, gave a well-attended Concert in Thompson's Hall, Danville, on Saturday week.

C. B. Brockway makes his bow as a local editor of the Bloomsburg Democrat.

The Lock Haven Democrat denies—and the Watchman affirms—that the former published a certain article against Henry D. Foster, four years ago. If the Democrat will copy what it did say on that occasion, it would better satisfy the public than a plump denial.

HARD TIMES.—In the Borough of Danville, 124 Lots of ground, and 5½ acres of land, are advertised for sale on account of non-payment of taxes ranging between 9 cents and $20 71. Also about 800 acres of the Chulasky Iron Works, on which $185 are due.

JERSEY SHORE, April 17.—The store of W. S. Harris, in this place, was entered last night and several hundred dollars' worth of silks taken. The entrance was effected by forcing the door open with an iron bar. It is thought they were frightened away, the safe and most valuable goods being left untouched.

Philadelphia has nineteen passenger railway companies, whose receipts are from seven to eight thousand dollars a day.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Snyder, wife of Benjamin Snyder, living in Shaksperare, eat a hearty dinner as usual on Wednesday last, and in a few minutes after was a corpse. The cause of her death was apoplexy.

The Susquehanna is "bank-full" and rafts are already arriving; in the course of a few days our town will be all life; a general opening of clothing shops, gift book concerns and yankee traps generally, while our fair damsels will be compelled, for a short season, to keep within doors until the last red shirt is seen wending its narrative railroad stationward.—Marietian.

A valuable horse belonging to Dr. Smith of Clinton township, got upon the railroad track on Wednesday night week, opposite Muncy, and one of the night trains coming along, he jumped from the open bridge, near the Depot, to the wagon road below, and was so much injured that he died in a short time.

Sheriff Vandyke, having in charge Crawford and Smith, two persons convicted last week of larceny, left Sunbury on Friday night for Philadelphia. Crawford acknowledged that he was the individual who waylaid and stopped Sheriff Young of Danville, in a sleigh one night, about a year since. The Sheriff escaped by firing a pistol at the person who held his horse, and supposed, at the time, that his shot had taken effect. This turns out to be the case, according to Crawford's own statement, who showed the wound in his shoulder from whence the ball was extracted.

A new counterfeit $5 bill on the Commercial Bank of Philadelphia, is in circulation. The principal vignette represents a steamship, and the note is distinguishable by the yellowish tint of the paper.

The Town Hall, at Ebensburg, Pa., was struck by lightning on the 9th inst. The fluid passed through three stories, doing considerable damage but hurting no person.

A valuable horse, belonging to Mr Ezra Dolen, of Mifflintown, Juniata Co., died one day last week. It it appears that he run a nail in one of his feet, from the effects of which he died.

The Erie Gazette says that the Bank of Commerce, of that city, will organize under the General Banking Law as soon as practicable.

On Saturday afternoon a frame tenant house, belonging to Mr. A. Valentine, on the Baltimore road, near Bellefonte, was entirely consumed by fire. The house was occupied by a family of colored people, who only saved their lives by a speedy evacuation and the loss of their furniture.

Col. Jacob Eyer's Grist Mills, in Madison township, known as Montgomery's Mills, was consumed by fire on last Monday night a week.

The Mercurian says that on Wednesday last, Mr. John Shields, a most trusty and careful pilot left that place, with the largest timber raft that ever left that port. It measured ten thousand, seven hundred and forty square feet, and was run to Peach Bottom.

On Wednesday night last, a gentleman who had taken a sleeping car in Lancaster for Philadelphia was robbed of $2200 in gold and bank notes which he had placed under his pillow.

On Good Friday, 317 persons were confirmed in the Lutheran churches of Reading, and 59 in the 1st Ger. Ref. Church.

The Reading Times says Mr. Lorer has stopped boring operations at his artesian well in that city. The supply of water is said to be inexhaustible, and of the best quality for brewing purposes.

John W. Young has purchased of Wm Young, Jr., his interest, in the store known as J. H. Young & Co., of Mifflinburg. The firm will hereafter be J. & J. Young.

[Correspondence of the Star & Chronicle.]

JEFFERSON, WIS., April 12, 1860.

Since the first of March, we have had the finest Spring weather I have seen in the West. Farmers are pretty much through with seeding and the fields begin to look green and beautiful. Since last June, we have had but little rain to raise the streams and wells, and the water is consequently very low. Yesterday, a train started from Greene county for Pike's Peak, and another for California. Both trains have some of the best blooded horses that could be bought in our market. There had 40 men calculated to go in the Calif. train, but when it came to starting, 13 of them backed out. So much for Buckeye pluck. W. G.

Change of Hails and Railway Time.

On Monday of this week, without a word of kindly notice or of warning to those interested, all the Railway Trains passing Lewisburg, came ABOUT AN HOUR EARLIER THAN PREVIOUSLY. This mode of doing business is very dangerous to trains, and is annoying to travelers, mail-carriers, and business-men, hundreds of whom along a line of travel would be grievously disappointed, injured, and perhaps ruined in business, by such a departure from the published rule as this. A LATER hour would be less necessary to advertise, as the delay might not be injurious, even if it were annoying. The fares lost by one such a thoughtless move—such a reckless contempt for their own promises and the good-will of the public—would be far greater than all the extra expense of giving fair and timely notice of a change. And the sorrow and bad feelings caused to persons cut off from cherished and important purposes—the bitter imprecations heaped upon Railway managers for such disregards of the wants and the rights of the community from whom they draw their support—are great drawbacks to the prosperity of a Road. They breed uncertainty, lukewarm friendship, distrust, and even enmity when there should be only good-will and harmony. We beg Railway Officers in all cases of change to give at least a week's notice of every alteration. You will make money and friends by such a kindness and duty.

REMAINS OF ROGER WILLIAMS.—One of the descendants of Roger Williams recently had the grave of Williams opened, with a view to removing the remains to some other spot, and erecting a monument over them. A number of nails, a small fragment of wood, undoubtedly of the coffin, and a mass of black earth was all that could be reclaimed.

The Chiriqui gold seekers from New York city are reported to have failed entirely in the object of their adventures. Several of the party died, and others suffered sadly by fever. Gold was found near Ecubana, but not in sufficient quantities to pay the risk to health and trouble of getting it.

SMALL FRUITS.

HAVING for many years paid especial attention to the cultivation of small fruit, we are now prepared to furnish, in large or small quantities, these valuable varieties—

STRAWBERRIES,

over one hundred varieties, embracing nearly all the Native and Foreign kinds of any repute. The most universally popular of these is undoubtedly the

of which we have on hand the largest stock in existence, which we offer at 25 cents per dozen; $1 per 100; $5 per 1,000, and $40 per 10,000.

It is unnecessary to say anything in praise of this fruit, as any one at all conversant with Strawberry culture for the last two years, who has acquainted himself with the discussions of Fruit Growers' Associations, and the notices of Strawberries. Fruit of this remarkable variety is from our own grounds sold in the Pittsburg market last season at $1 per quart, and a single plant, filled with the fruit, sold for $1. A writer in the Ohio Farmer says it succeeds well on almost any soil, and that it has produced with him at the rate of 300 bushels to the acre.

Other varieties proportionately low, and great inducements offered to those wanting large quantities.

RASPBERRIES.

Belmbold's Orange, $1,50 per dozen, $7 per 100, Fastolff, Rivers Large Fruited, Monthly, Knevett's Giant, Red and Yellow Antwerp, $1 per dozen, $5 per 100.

BLACKBERRIES.

New Rochelle, or Lawton:
$1 per dozen, $5 per 100, and $40 per 1,000.

Dorchester and Newman's Thornless:
$2 per doz and $20 per 1,000.

Wholesale purchasers and dealers allowed a liberal discount.

Plants by Mail.

For $1 we will send to any Post Office in the country except Oregon and California, post paid, and carefully put up in cotton and oiled silk so as to carry safely, 40 Wilson's Albany Seedling Strawberry Plants; or the same number of plants of any other variety in our catalogue offered at 25 cents per dozen; those at 50 cents per dozen half the number. For $1 we will also send six New Rochelle Blackberry Plants.

Printed instructions for cultivation will accompany plants.

Catalogues sent on application, enclosing a stamp.

AND Phœnix Bitters.

THE high and envied celebrity which these preparations at once have acquired for their unrivalled efficacy in all the diseases which they profess to cure, has rendered the usual practice of puffing not only unnecessary, but unworthy of them. They are known to the people, and their own merits are sufficient for them and their interest and for the full benefit of the sufferer.

IN ALL CASES of Liver Complaint, Acute or Chronic Rheumatism, Affections of the Stomach and Kidneys, Sickness, Fevers, and Fever and Ague, &c.—In the South and West, where these diseases prevail, they will be found invaluable. Planters, Farmers, and others, who reside remote from Medical aid, will never otherwise be without them.
