An Irish Stampede—Irish-Americans of Menusha, Wis., have published their reasons for quitting the Democrats and going over to the Republicans. They say they have found the Democratic professions of regard for the working men to be false, that the Democrats have failed to support the homestead bill, and are now that of the protection of the protection of the potential of the petution of the fessions of regard for the working men to be false, that the Democrats have failed to support the homestead bill, and are now making an effort to degrade labor, Democratic Senators declaring that "labor is the legitimate sphere of slaves," that "labor is the legitimate sphere of slaves," that "labor is the legitimate sphere of slaves," that "labor is the should be owned and not hired," thus striking a blow at the very liberties of nine-teenths of the Democratic voters of the North.
