

UNION COUNTY STAR LEWISBURG CHRONICLE

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS. At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, MAY 25, 1860.

"THE UNION," established in 1814--Whole No., 2,420.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843--Whole No., 841.

Union County Star & Lewisburg Chronicle AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY JOURNAL ISSUED FRIDAYS, at Lewisburg, Union county, Penn'a.

THE SLAVE TRADE. (Correspondence of the Star & Chronicle.) U. S. STEAMER CRUSADER, KEY WEST, Flor., May 3, 1860.

slave trade. Let them have credit for all the good deeds they have done, as they are charged with a large balance on the other column.

The Chicago Convention! Union and Liberty! Lincoln and Hamlin Nominated. An 1860 Campaign inaugurated.

the States be called, and that the chairman of each delegation present the credentials thereof, and if there be any contest, the same be referred to the committee on credentials.

presented to the chair a handsome gavel, being a piece of oak from the flag-ship of the gallant Lawrence.

very into any or all the Territories of the United States, is a dangerous political heresy, at variance with the explicit provisions of that instrument itself.

THE BIRDS. BY MARIA WILSON. The beautiful birds are here again! They come over mountain, hill and plain; Some just from the shores of a far-off sea.

When I last wrote to you, we were bound to Havana, and since that time we have been pretty actively cruising for the greater portion of the time on the coast of Cuba.

REMARKABLE OLD MAN.—Last week, business called us to the residence of Frederick Kaseman, of Shamokin township, Northumberland county.

in response to this invitation, Delegates, deriving their authority from primary conventions of the people of 24 States, 2 Territories, and 1 District, assembled in the Wigwam at Chicago, on Wednesday, 16th May, 1860.

The Chicago Convention! Union and Liberty! Lincoln and Hamlin Nominated. An 1860 Campaign inaugurated.

Mr. Horton of Ohio, from the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported the name of GEORGE ASHmun, of Massachusetts, for permanent President.

Thursday, May 17. There were crowds of people, bands of music, processions, &c., enlivening every avenue towards the Wigwam, which was crowded as soon as opened.

The Star and Chronicle. MONDAY, MAY 21, 1860.

UNION COUNTY COURT, (continued). In the case of Com'th, vs. Rank and Dreisbach, the Jury returned a verdict for Defts, the prosecutor (A. S. Cummings) for costs.

It is also better for them to be isolated, as there will not be good a chance for any person intermingled with them improperly.

A Sweet Fix. [A farmer had occasion to send his man, a jolly Dutchman, to a neighboring town for a barrel of molasses.

At noon, precisely, Gov. Morgan of New York, as chairman of the National Committee, hailed the Convention, read the Call, made some remarks upon the dignity of the occasion, invoked a patriotic and brotherly action, and named Hon. DAVID WILMOT of Pennsylvania for temporary Chairman.

Mr. ASHMUN, on taking the chair was greeted with immense applause, the Delegates rising and giving him six hearty cheers.

Judge JESSE of Pennsylvania, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following: THE PLATFORM. Resolved, That we, the delegated representatives of the Republican Electors of the United States, in Convention assembled,

That we protest any sale or alienation to others of the public lands held by actual settlers, and against any view of the free homestead policy which regards the settlers as paupers or supplicants for public bounty.

TAVERN LICENSES for Union County, granted February and May Terms, '60. Lewisburg—A. J. Weidensaul, L. D. Brewer, R. G. Hesel, C. D. Cox, D. D. Guldin.

How it was done.—A short time ago, a fellow named Crandall escaped from the Allegheny county jail, and wrote back the following note to his former custodians:

A Ludicrous Abbreviation.—In a cemetery at Dunkirk, N. Y., a stone is erected over the ashes of a deceased lady, on which her survivors intended to write the epitaph, "Let her rest in peace."

Business Organization. Leonard Andrews, Maine; W. B. Rogers, Vermont; James P. Wilson, Mass.; James P. Wilson, Mass.; Simon Smith, Minn.; Simon H. Himes, Mo.; A. C. Wilder, Kansas; James H. Bell, Cal.; John Johnston, Oregon; A. A. Burton, Ky.; M. H. Chandler, Texas; G. B. Hall, Dist. of Col.

Before proceeding to business, the Convention will allow me to congratulate you and the people on the striking features, which, I think, must have been noticed by everybody who has mixed in the preliminary discussions of the people who have gathered in this beautiful city.

Second. That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, is essential to the preservation of Republican institutions, and that the Federal Constitution, the Rights of the States, and the Union of the States, must and shall be preserved.

When the resolutions were read, several elicited warm applause. That in favor of the Tariff, was received with unbounded enthusiasm by Pennsylvania, and a large crowd of outsiders, the whole delegation and spectators rising and giving round after round of deafening applause.

Worth Trying. INCOMBUSTIBLE DRESSES.—Put an ounce of alum or salamoniac in the last water in which muslins or cottons are rinsed, or a smaller quantity in the starch with which they are stiffened; they will be rendered almost unburnable, or at least will burn without flame.

an editor in Maine has never been known to drink any water. He says he never heard water was used as a general remedy, but once—in the time of Noah—when it killed more than it cured.

A householder in a Western village, in filling up his census schedule, under the column headed, "Where born," described one of his children as "born in the parlor," and the other "up stairs."

Mr. Judd (Ill.) moved that a committee be appointed consisting of one delegate from each State and Territory represented, to report Officers for the permanent organization.

Before proceeding to business, the Convention will allow me to congratulate you and the people on the striking features, which, I think, must have been noticed by everybody who has mixed in the preliminary discussions of the people who have gathered in this beautiful city.

That we protest any sale or alienation to others of the public lands held by actual settlers, and against any view of the free homestead policy which regards the settlers as paupers or supplicants for public bounty.

That we protest any sale or alienation to others of the public lands held by actual settlers, and against any view of the free homestead policy which regards the settlers as paupers or supplicants for public bounty.

Preserve a Lamp from Smoke.—Soak the wick in strong vinegar, and dry it well; it will then burn both sweet and pleasant, and give much satisfaction for the trifling trouble in preparing it.

an editor in Maine has never been known to drink any water. He says he never heard water was used as a general remedy, but once—in the time of Noah—when it killed more than it cured.

A householder in a Western village, in filling up his census schedule, under the column headed, "Where born," described one of his children as "born in the parlor," and the other "up stairs."

Mr. Judd (Ill.) moved that a committee be appointed consisting of one delegate from each State and Territory represented, to report Officers for the permanent organization.

Before proceeding to business, the Convention will allow me to congratulate you and the people on the striking features, which, I think, must have been noticed by everybody who has mixed in the preliminary discussions of the people who have gathered in this beautiful city.

That we protest any sale or alienation to others of the public lands held by actual settlers, and against any view of the free homestead policy which regards the settlers as paupers or supplicants for public bounty.

That we protest any sale or alienation to others of the public lands held by actual settlers, and against any view of the free homestead policy which regards the settlers as paupers or supplicants for public bounty.