I beg of you, gentlemen, not to introduce us; we ly:83 will know each other, though we have never seen each other. Presently he drew himself to his lofti- MAIN ST. MIFFLINBURG, miration. Mr. Clay stepped forward, with his blandest smile and sweetest voice, and exclaimed:

"How are you, Governor Pittsur of Pond River? I am rejoiced to see you." "Hear that !" said the Governor; "didn't Universal Confidence and Patronage I tell you that he would know me, and that Pittsur would know him? Yes, yes, he is the greatest man that lives!"

After cordially shaking bands, and telling a few happy jokes, Mr. Clay said : "My dear Governor, I wish that you may live a thousand years, that health may abound throughout your wide domain, and that you may never have another invasion of squirrels."

"Bless me!" said the Governor, "did you hear that? How did he know that my people lost their entire crop of corn last year by squirrels? Bless my soul, he knows everything! Wonderful! wonderful! I always told you that he was the greatest man in the world-didn't I, boys?" And the Governor left in a state of per-feet admiration of the great statesman.

"BLEEDING CARCASS."-We are to hear no more of "Bleeding Kansas," but a "bleeding careass" is to take its place. Mr. Pugh, in his pitiful appeal in behalf of Douglas, made in the Senate on the 22d, tells us, in terms pathetic enough to move a fire-eater's heart, that Mr. Douglas' enemies "may kill him at Baltimore bus Mercary, ast if they choose; but his friends will carry his Bleeding Curcuss to the Northwest and show him to the young men coming to east their first votes, and tell them 'this is the

writes us, that a few days ago, Mr. Daviel Suttle killed one of the largest bears that has been seen in this county. Mr. S., having reason to believe that a very large ing properly arranged it, left it for the t. In the morning, be visited the place where his trap had been set, but neither trap or bear could be seen. Bruin had succeeded in pulling up a large pole, or post, which had been driven into the ground, and to which the trop was attached by means of a heavy chain, and these his bearship took with him. The pole uprooted here and there a tuft of grass, by which he could be easily followed. The bear had traveled a distance of fifteen miles, on his hind feet, drawing with him, the whole distance, a heavy trap, and a large pole and chain! Mr. S. overtook him at place between Slide Island and Cedar Run, when the bear faced his pursuer, and showed fight. Mr. S. discharged his rifle at him, the ball taking effect in Bruin's head, killing him almost instantly. He measured seven feet from tip to tip, and weighed over 500 pounds !- Wellsborough Agitator.

ANOTHER TRICKPH

Findsarits, Sept. 29, 1853.
To the President of the Fennsylvania Agricultura Society.—The subscribers, your committee to examin
the contents of a Salamander Sale, of Evans & Watson after being exposed to a strong five on the Fair Ground for eight hours, respectfully represent—
That after seven conds of one wood and three of pine That after seven cords of eak wood and three of pine had been consumed around the Safe, it was opened in the presence of the committee, and the combents taken out, a little warmed, but not even scorched. Several Silver Medals heretefore received by the man afacturers, and a large quantity of documents were in the Safe, and came out entirely uniquired. The experiment satisfied us of the capacity of Safes of this kind to protect contents from any first which they may be exposed.

The Committee awarded a Diploma and Silver Medal.

STILL ANOTHER.

WIMINGTON, Del., Sept. 17, 1869—Messrs. Evans & Warson, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen:—The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent, Sertis & Garrett, of our city, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burglars last Saturday night, and although they oxal a siedge hammer, cold chisels, strill, and gumpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The Lock being one of "Half's Patent Powder proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, proof, they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work out. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it, and if the altore facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them.

Yours, truly.

BAYNARD & JONES.

GREAT FIRE! - ANOTHER TRHEMPH!!

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 12, 1850.

Mosers, EVANS & WATSON, Philadelphia: Meserz. EVANS & WATSON, Philadelphus:
Gendlemen—It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe, which i purchased of you in February, 1868, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from fire. My storehouse, bugether with reversi others, was burned to the ground in March last. The Safe fell through into the cribar, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight bours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents were found to be in a perfect state, the books and the papers not being injured any whatever. I can cheerfully recommend your Safes to the community, believing, as I do, that they are as near free-prind as it is possible for any Safe to be made.
