Seatspergro, HL, May 23, 1860. Hon. GROBOE ASHNUS, President of the Republican National Convention :

Sin-I accept the nomination tendered me letter of yourself and others, acting as a Com-mittee of the Convention for that purpose. The declaration of principles and sentiments, which accompanies your letter, meets my approval; and it shall be my care not to ate, or disregard it, in any part.

Imploring the assistance of Divine Provi-dence, and with due regard to the views and feelings of all who were represented in the Convention, to the rights of all the States and Territories and the people of the nation, to the inviolability of the Constitution, and the perpetual union, harmony and prosperity of all, I am most happy to cooperate for the by the Convention. Tour obliged friend and fellow-clipten. ABEALLAN LINCOLN.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 1860.

GENTLENEN : Your official communication of the 18th instant, informing me that the representatives of the Republican party of the United States, assembled at Chicago, on that day, had, by a usanimous vote, selected me as their candidate for the Vice-President of the United States, has been received, to-gether with the resolutions adopted by the Convention as its declaration of principles.

Those resolutions enunciate clearly and forcibly the principles which unite us, and the objects proposed to be accomplished. They address themselves to all, and there is neither necessity nor propriety in my entering upon a discussion of any of them. They have the approval of my judgment, and in any action mine will be cordially and faithfully sus- away. tained.

I am profoundly grateful to those with whom it is my pride and pleasure politically to co-operate, for the nomination so unexpectedly conferred; and I desire to tender through you, to the members of the Convention, my sincere thanks for the confidence thus reposed in me. Should the nomination, which I now accept, be ratified by the people, and the duties devolve upon me of presiding over the Senate of the United States, it will be my earnest endeavor faithfully to discharge them with a just regard for the rights of all.

It is to be observed, in connection with the doings of the Republican Convention, that a paramount object with us is to preserve the ormal condition of our territorial domain as es for free men. The able advocate and defender of Republican principles, whom you have nominated for the highest place that can gratify the ambition of man, comes from a State which has been what it is, by special action, in that respect, of the wise a men who founded our institutions. The rights of free labor have, there, been vindicated and maintained. The thrift and enterprise which so distinguish Illinois, one of the most flour-ishing States of the glorious West, we would see secured to all the Territories of the Union, and restore peace and harmony to the whole country, by bringing back the Government to what it was under the wise and patriotic men who created it. If the Republicans shall succeed in that object, as they hope to, they will be held in grateful remembrance by the busy ind teening millions of future ages. I am, very truly yours, II. HAMLIN.

OMINOUS -It is stated that Foster, the democratic candidate for Governor, went to Washington, to urge his Democratic friends not to oppose the Republican Tarif bill. It is now his only salvation, he thinks, in this State.
