

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

hate County Star & Lemieburg Chronicle THE BROTHER'S GIFT OID Republican Platform. We, therefore, the representatives of the united States of America, in general Congress assembled, appealing to the supreme Intentions.

the Nard direction by which we first intertimpertant New in advance of the Philad Natis. Series in advance of the Philled Maxis. Connected with the Office are angle materials for most Marked 2005 FEINTING, which will be assessed with Marked 2005 FEINTING, which will be assessed with Marked 2005 FEINTING which is the second with a second with Marked 2005 FEINTING which is the second with a seco tings of OS FRATING . Second is the second for when handed #1. could also the month to be soil for when handed - Ja Was when a interest. All for these presentation. Well-Kon Market space worth and Koond sharey Wontperv & CONNELIUS.

The Origin of "Yankee Doodle."

Jan 1, 181

BT CROBER F BORRIS. Once on a time, all Johanny Bull. First in a raging farty, and sware that Johanthan should have No trials, with the jury " That no elections should be held Across the bring water: And new solid her, "Fill has the tria, of all his sense and describers." Then down the safe in herity state, And induction this a gravitate, And in interview modes a time

And bindered has a gradies, And in derive marks a troop Called - Taskee doolfs dankt, "Taskee doolfs "Libox are first "Taskee doolfs" - How are first "Taskee doolfs doolfs", Ny van of wax, sourt for 170 fax; You Yanise doolfs dandy."

You Yanise double dandy." John not the ten from the time sea, With heavy fuller noted. (Inter whether is one or Sidne I never the neutral Sidne I never the second Sidne He had a strong subserve-He had a strong subserve-He data a strong subserve-tion from versions the neutral fine from versions the neutral Bayes works and head the handy." He had marvial hand, when near the land, Figged "Tacker double dandy." "Taker double dandy." Yanker double dandy."

A long war then they hell in which

A neg way that the varied.
And "Vankee double" was the thereind.
And "Vankee double" was the march To which has troops retreated.
Cote Jonathan to see them 55, Could not restrain has longither;
"That time," call he, "suits for a 7, "I'll sing it ever after."
Old Johnny's face, to his disgrare.
Was fixedend with hear and transfer.
This sign tever after."
This was backed backbook that by "Ankee double damby."
"Yankee double damby."
Was fixed work to use, but not the tea-Yankee double damby.
Was hear the turns, but not the tea-Yankee double damby."

Tankee double dandy." Fre told you, now, the origin Of this most lively data, Which Johany Ball disakes so much---oh i sen it is a pity? With "Iffell Columbia" it is samg. In where full and hearty --On load and main we livelihe the strain John made for his ten party. No matter have we riven the words, The monic speaks them heads. The monic speaks them heads. And where it he fair can thing the alf Of "Yawkee double dandy" "Yawkee double dandy. Tankee double dandy. Tankee double dandy.

Che Star and Chronicle. MONDAY, JUNE 25, 1860. A Remarkable Fact. A Remarkable Fact. There has not been a Disanion speech made in Congress since ABRAHAM and leave her time to read, instead of hav-LINCOLN was pominated.

Exit, ye Japanites ! espondence of the Star & Chroniele.

some of the marvellous legends, we stole into the privacy of the hay-mow to read, need to affirm."

"Well, Nettie was just as industrious a nings a week, for a year and a half, she me go. in which the girls manage. I am a good bass singer, our voices chimed melodiously is built accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves get as near to her as that.

cited. Nettie's father was not one to get facts be submitted to a candid world. daughter. She had no brother to send that I knew of; what could it all mean? "A tack hammer and chisel opened the box, and revealed a pretty mahogany case, to what I at once pronounced a melodeon, but there was a note for Nettie asking her acceptance of something which would make rare music in her home, and hoping the giver would live to see her bring the music out of it.

"Jack, what are you laughing at ? Nettie's face grew first red, then white, as she saw how I looked, yet carnestly protested she did not know who sent the bor. I tried to be very calm as I helped to unpack the affair and open it for her, saying she must be in a hurry to practice the music, to charm the great unknown, when he came to see her. "The poor girl could scarcely speak between surprise at the gift and grief at my jeolousy, but tears came welling up into her blue eyes till I was ashamed of myself. 'But what is this?' we both exclaimed, 'no melodeon.' I picked up a pamphlet iron needle-woman, who, under Nettie's wives and mothers have to do."

"Ever learn who was the giver ?" said Jack, very indifferently, to Nettie, as she took her place between the two brothers. "No," said Nettie, "but I wish I could. for never was bridal gift more valuable.

men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the generated ; that, whenever any form of little body as ever you saw, and instead of government becomes destructives of these ends, wasting her time in endless listening to it is the right of the people to alter or to abolat my talk, during my unfailing three eve. it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing would see or knit week day evenings, and most likely to effect their safety and happimake me go to church Sunday evenings. ness. Fradence indeed will dictate, that gov-Don't you laugh, Jack, about the 'make ernments long established should not be me go.' There are more ways than one changed for light and transient causes, and in hymns and psalms, and I was proud to by abolishing the forms to which they are acsit beside her, look into the same hymn customed. But when a long train of abuses forefathers were hypoerites, and did not watering pot, or garden engine. If you book, and all the while confident that not and asarpations, pursaing invariably the same another fellow in the neighborhood could object, evinces a design to reduce them under "One night, just at dusk, I saw a man unload a box at her father's door. When Such has been the patient sufferance of these questioned as to where it came from, he colonies; and such is now the necessity which said, that was none of his business, he constrains them to alter their former system of government. The history of the present and ingenious in their arguments to bring Cleanse your cellars, and every anatter their second se brought it according to directions, was King of Great Britain is a history of repeated into disrepute that glorious instrument by paid in advance for doing so, and that was all he knew or cared about it.' My curi-osity, not to say a little jealousy, was ex-rainy over these States. To prove this, let up surprises, though fond enough of his wholesome and necessary for the public good. her a costly present, no previous lovers, laws of immediate and pressing importance. noble and eloquent defence of the Patricunless suspended in their operations until his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended he has utterly neglected to attend to them. He has refused to pass other laws for the formed by the Representatives of Ameri-

places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

Invasions on the rights of the people. He has refused for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have retorned to the people at large for their exercise, the state remaining in the meantime errors to all the datasets of the meantime exposed to all the dangers of trasion from without and contralsions within. He has endeavored to prevent the population of these states : for that purpose ob tructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their fick immediately at the close of the War, migration hither, and raising the conditions Now, if Slavery had been a good thing. called 'Directions for the use of Toggart & Farr's Sewing Machine;' and here was the iron needle-woman, who, under Nettie's ing to stitch her life away, as many young wives and mothers have to do." amount and payment of their salaries. He has erected a multimde of new offices.

legislatures.

have answered for our day.

[In these latter days, politicians have string of glittering generalities," or "a fanfaronode of nonsense"-that our Whig robbing it of its vital principle. It was in reply to one of those assaults (by Judge Douglas) against the Declaration, in the He has refosed his assent to laws the most campaiga of '58, that ABRAHAN LINCOLN He has forbidden his Governors to pass gave utterance, impromptu, to the following tic Signers of the Platform of '76 :]

accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the Legislature-a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants ding communities. We need not discuss come excellent manure. the way or the reason of their becoming pose that all of them greatly deplored the evil, and that they placed a provision in the Constitution which they supposed would should not be abolished prior to the year necessary to prevent the People, through , den. Congress, from putting a stop to the traf-Now, if Slavery had been a good thing, would the Fathers of the Republic have taken a step calculated to diminish its beneffect influences among themselves, and ity? Those communities, by their repre-

and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance. ted counl ; that they are endowed by their He has kent among us, in times of t Creator with certain inalienable rights; activity, but his power is rapidly waning, that among these are life, liberty, and the On occasion of his last speech in the Senstanding armies, without the consent of our and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his and noble understanding of the justice of campaign upon the "stump." His habits the Creator to His creatures. [Applause.] are not such as to encourage recovery. lowing extract from a letter from an Old the New York post office has increased 33 For protecting them, by a mock trial, from the whole family of men. In their en-For cutting off our trade with all parts of into the world to be trodden on, and degra-For depriving us, in many cases, of the living, but they reached forward and best, are impressed that he can not live seized upon the farthest posterity. They many years-indeed, that it is extremely benefits of trial by jury : For transporting us beyond zeas to be tried erected a beacon to guide their children's doubtful whether he can live through his For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing Wise statesmen as they were, they knew with his health. A few years ago, he was therein an arbitrary government, and enlarg. Ing its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies: Wise statesmen as they were, they knew the tendency of prosperity to breed tyrants, and so they established these great self-evident truths, that when, in the distant so in canvassing Illinois in 1856 and '58, evident truths, that when, in the distant ses in canvassing Illinois in 1856 and '58, future, some man, some faction, some in- and the fail in North-western real estateterest, should set up the doctrine that none particularly that which was being speculabut rich men, or none but white men, or ted upon-bas brought him to the verge islatures, and none but Anglo Saxons, were entitled to of bankruptey. Now, broken in health life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and in fortune, his life, instead of being their posterity might look up again to the pointed out and blazaned as a splendid Declaration of Independence, and take success, will prove a complete and mourncourage to renew the battle which their ful failure-a dismal illustration of the fathers began-so that truth, and justice, perils and fatalities attendant upon inordiand mercy, and all the humane and Chris- nate ambition, and a warning to young He is at this time transporting large armies tian virtues might not be extinguished men who are dissatisfied with the paths of from the land ; so that no man bereafter quiet usefulness, and thirst for the vain would dare to limit and circumscribe the pomps and glittering but unsubstantial great principles on which the temple of

JUNE.

Design Fridage, at Lewisburg. Future cases, per service in a finite service in a finit penitentiary, or state's prison.

Declare a war of extermination against [Substitute the Slave Power for "the insects. The weapons for assailing those King of Great Britain," and Kansas for petty but potent enemies, may be decoe-"these Colonies," and the foregoing might tions of elder, especially of the dwarf kind, of tobacco, walnut leaves, or other bitter or biting herbs, lye of wood ashes, lime-Mr. HNCOLN'S AFOSTROPHE TO THE DICLAGA- water, or solutions of pot or pearl ashes, water impregnated with salt, tar, or turarisen who sneer at the Declaration as "a pentine, water heated to one hundred and twenty or one hundred and thirty degrees, &c. which may be applied with a syringe, mean what they said. We doubt whether will sptinkle your fruit trees, by the help absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. 4th of July, 1860. Judge Taney and S. erpillars, and other pestiferous insects will > ment in and about your dwelling, from all putrid and offensive substances, for you may about as well live on tainted provis ions, as breathe putrid air; in either case you bid defiance to the laws of health, as but is now a good Republican sheet. well as cleanliness. The carcasses of dead The Menard Index, formerly a Demolambs, cats, &c. should be covered, each cratic paper, has become Republican. gether with one part of quick lime to five ability in the good cause. or six of earth, and suffered to remain a The Beardstown Illinoisian, neutral, few months, when the whole will have be- has raised the Lincoln flag, and is working

Make daily visits to your garden. Cass county. He has called together legislative bodies at laces nursual, uncomfortable, and distant result of the way or the reason of their becoming slaveholding. It is sufficient for our pur-Melons and encumbers, which have hith-lishment of a wide swake Republican paframes, may now be exposed to the open ham Gazette. That is boarding the lion He has dissolved representative houses re-preatedly for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. He has refused for a long time after such He has refused for a long time after such air. If the season be at all dry, your in his den. viction-the public determination-to by hoeing and hand weeding. This for-abolish the African slave trade, that the mary indicates the healthy progress of Republi-with death, but Mr. Clay said he would provision which I have referred to as being placed in the Constitution, declared that it should not be abolished prior to the year. The majority sustainshould not be abolished prior to the year and dry for winter use such mentional new, and abgury with for the functional provision was herbs as have come to maturity.-Fesses. umphs of our great party in the Prairie ruffians sluck away. All honor to Cassing

A Mournful Political Wreck.

"Judge Douglas is still confined to his bed the condition of his throat. If it should pundence of the New York Herald.

[Upon this a cotemporary remarks :]

displays almost preternatural energy and as the nominee of a powerful party of of a Western Senator: "Here Lyeth yo

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843---Whole No., 846.

A "Valler Liver" Melody. Ara-"Defails Non." Come all us brave lads of old "43, Who railed rought "Directors." No give us your brave and your values for Lincols the noise and true. Wo'll show to the world our Sleve' spirit-The Richt must for east subtra-And parts straight sheat for Ann Languay, For Annatase the honest and parts. Come forth, one and all, to the context, Determined our examine to sure, And note for the joint Flat Bostanda, For Lexings the finities and brown A true leader is he to revenued us, So new we will give him our best. Then should for the friend of How Locat, The patriot who halls from the West. For Protection Le ever has struggled. His beart you will find is home-mude

It's works deal against the starvallen That comes with one solid "Free Trade." So for Home and Home's Friends let us cally never give over the light, re., hance, and their Productry allow Are put to ingititious fight

We're ensured for the war and we'll stonger, You need the believe we'll have ent. For the tag of "from Proton" is Sping. And for Lineaux and Hamne we'll shout.

New Republican Papers in Egypt.

have been started in the Central and South- for Congress ; and one to spare. ern portions of Illinois within a short time. We notice the following :

Egyptian Republic, Centralia. Tazewell Republican, Pekin. Pana Plain Dealer, Pana. Menard Index, Petersburg. Illinois Free Press, Ilillaboro'. Clark County Hornet, Murshall. Fayette Observer, Vandalia. Prairie State, Jerseyville. Yellow Jacket, Palestine. Ford County Journal, Paxton. Douglas County Shield, Tuscola. Madison County Advertiser, Edwardsville Carrolton Press, Carrolton. Randolph County Republican, Sporta. Cumberland County Expositor, Greenup.

Western Star, Newton. The Vandalia Observer had been neutral, with five or six times its bulk of soil, to-resuscitated, and now exhibits vigor and The Shawneetown Illinoisian has been like a wheel-horse for the redemption of erto been protected by glasses and paper per in Effingham county, called the Effing-

State.

To AMERICANS AND WILLOS .- The Fort Wayne (Ind.) Times, which has bereto- COLES,) of Philadelphia, who was private fore been identified with the American net improve, he will be compelled to visit fore been identified with the American New York for the purpose of obtaining medi-cal assistance there. - Washington Carres-publican nominees. The article announpublicun nominees. The article announcing the decision has the following :

sentatives in old Independence Hall, said to the whole world, 'We hold these truths to be self evident: that all men are crea-to be self evident: that all men are crea-

The Auburn Advertiser says a committee of leading citizens of that place called on Mr. Seward, on Saturday morning last, and requested him to consent to deliver an oration on the Fourth of July. Mr. Semand received the request very kindly, but said that he must decline the invitation for the present year. Headded, however, that, if living on the Fourth of July, 1861, he would then cheerfully consent to deliver an address to bis fellow-townsmen. se forty years previous to that date be had commenced his public life and that occasian would be its conclusion.

In 1832, when Mr. Lincoln was first a candidate for the Legislature of Illinois, there were cast in the New Salem precinct, where he resided, for candidates for Congress, 276 votes-Gov Duncan, the Jackson candidate, receiving 97 votes, and Pugb, the Clay candidate, receiving 179 votes. Mr. Lincoln at the same time received for representative to the Legislature, 277 votes, being all which were cast for both A large number of Republican papers the Whig and the Democratic candidates AFFECTING INCIDENT .- On the occaion of the recent disaster to the steamer R F. Sass, the mate, Mr. A. C. Neal, whose wife and two children were on board, hastened to place the children in the life-boat, and then turning to his wife as he believed, placed her also in safety, exclaiming, "Come on, Molly, we're safe! A few moments afterward, he found that the womap he had saved was not his wife, but a Mrs. Lonty of New Orleans, while his own partner had sunk in the ill fated steamer .

Some of the Locofoco Slavery propagandists take great of feace at our candidate for President because he has been a "railsplitter." We shall make no de fence to the accusation ! Rail on, gentlemen ! We are going to build a fence around your Southern "nigger extension," with Lincoln rails, that all your "fire-caters" and "little giants" can neither destroy or surmount. The more you rail, the higher you help build the tence.

LINCOLN'S ELECTION, CERTAIN .-- We have Democratic testimony that Abraham Lincoln will be the next President of the United States. The Anti-Lecompton men swear, that, if Douglas is not nominated, Lincoln will be elected. On the other hand, the Administration party declare that if Douglas is nominated, the Democracy will be defeated, and Lincoln elected. How can it be otherwise than that he will be the next President?

Cassius M. Clay made a grand Republican speech in the Court House of Madison M. Clay !

Au Ex-Governor of Illinois, (EDWARD Secretary to Jefferson and Madison, sent coln. He said he imbued his Democracy directly from Jefferson, and should be true "The path of duty is clear so long as a to its principles by supporting the Chica-

MOSUMENT over the Political Remains

Patron Ince 16 1860. Thank Heaven! they're gone at last. Such a hubbub ! such a noise ! such continued comnation ! and such fools, our good city never saw before. Women have ran positively I'd like to sing a new 'Song of the Shirt' wild. The staid and answeratic respectable while making a dozen or so for him " ity, who are not in a position to create lashas by setting public opinion at defiance, and who preserve their places in society by the strictest observance of every rule of decorum a bit of paper, on which was written : shown to fashionable life, have forgotten their cards for once, and condescended to stand at mers, crowd on steps with the common berd, and block passage ways, to get a solitary peep at some servant of the embassy-for very but servants have allowed themselves to be caressed. The "dignitaries" have practismost retired manners, and observed with the most stolid indifference everything got up to entertain and instruct, or to impress a great and civilized nation. Travelers who have visited uncivilized parts of our earth, have described with much atisfaction the curiosity manifested by the untaught crowds who have followed their fore we were married." There never was a poor traveler so beset by any barbarous race, as these Japan-ese have been. Women have insisted on intrading themselves into their rooms at the most mal-apropos moments, swarming around their apartments like the frogs of Egypt. I could send, which was most valuable, perching themselves on their baggage, and and I could think of nothing better than perching themselves on their baggage, and iounging on their divans, watching their movements-taking lessons in their manner of dressing their hair, and shaving their heads. while from early dawn till bed time, (if any one has gone to bed for a week.) an eager crowd-a regular pepper and salt crowdhave been constantly assembled opposite the Continental, looking with eager eyes at the few unctuous visages exposed at the of the hotel, or rushing from one door to the other as some adventurer strolled in or out to see the town or go shopping. On these excur- leaving San Francisco, and filled it for the sions, each adventurer promonaded with at least one hundred at his heels, and every few minutes little squads of two or three with their purchases tied up in bundanas or stuffed into carpet bags, were being returned to the hotel by ubiquitous policemen who had pick-ed them up out of their latinude. But if the populace has reveled in enjoyment and excitement, what shall I say of the Councils ! Never has any council, since the days of those who sat around Penn, reveiled in such continued luxury. The Embassy had to be "put through." and the anxious desire of the city fathers to show them the length and breadth of the town, caused them to keep up a continuous round of visits to all the notable places, and every institution that is put and hymn book ; "for," said Jack, as his down in our Directory. If a few places of but fine eyes grew moiet, "we must not forget little note and little interest were visited, the chart and compass by which Christians which might have been left off the programme without much loss to Japan, but with consid erable loss to some who live by notoriety, it must be attributed to no other motive, of course, than a desire to have the strangers mired many women for their grace and see everything. The grand performance wound up with a torchlight procession of the fire department. last evening, which collected a mighty crowd and bid fair at one time to burn the city down. crowning grace of womanhood, and with-

At ten o'clock this morning, the whole em. out it she is 'lighter than vanity.' " bassy left the hotel for New York, and as I saw the last greasy cranium glisten in the morning sun from the top of a hotel coach. I ran in and put down the sentence with which I began this letter, and, succerely must we are tone with Japan.

while making a dozen or so for him." "Now, that's real gratitude; here's a

"Sent to the order of John Monroe, onour first class sewing machines. Price, $125. Received payment, Aug. 30, 1857.

TAGGART & FARR."

Fred looked amazed, then pleased for Nettie had risen, and, with her face all aglow with emotion, threw her arms around Jack's neck, and said, as she touched the em with the advantage of intercourse with broad forchead with her rosy lips, "My best, dearest brother !"

> "But I can not understand," said Fred, " how you came to know about Nettie be-

"I do. A friend sent me word of your out-goings and late in-comings, and whither your steps tended at night, and I set and I could think of nothing better than a sewing machine; so I ordered one sent to Nettic, with the note which caused you the commotion. I am satisfied that nothing better suited to your means could have been selected; and to gratify Nettie lives of our people. she shall make me all the shirts she desires to, since I'm not likely to have a Nettie of my own to do the work. However. I had an odd corner in my trunk on benefit of my friends. Here, Fred, take this key and unlock the trunk, and see my curiosity shop." Didn't the trio laugh, as they handed out parcel after parcel ? Dolls, primers, tops, trumpets, puzzles, games, &c., for the babies ; then a morocco case with a tiny watch and elegantly wrought chain for Nettie, a valuable microscope for Fred, engravings and maps, shells and minerals, classified and arranged for a cabinet 1 To crown all, a most elaborately bound Bible shape their course amidst the tempests which often assail them-the ones which guided our parents to heaven. I have adloveliness, but the memory of a mother cumstances of our emigration and settlement who is now among the blessed, teaches me that real, unaffected piety is the last and

The evening wore away, and from that hour. Jack, the wanderer in many lands, found the peace and quiet, elsewhere sought in vain, in the house he had done so much them, as we hald the rest of mankind, saemies S IF F. I to bless and beautify -- The Opal, Utica. I is war, in prace, friends

He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power. He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitut assent to their acts of pretended legislation. For quartering large bodies of armed troops punishment for any murders they should com-mit on the inhabitants of these states :

For imposing taxes upon us without our

for pretended offences :

For taking away our charters, abolish-ing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments : For suspending our own le declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection and waging war against us. He has plundered our seas, ravaged our pasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the

I foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranuy, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation. He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the execu-tioners of their friends and brethren, or to fail themselves by their hands. He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on ie inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages.

seres and conditions. In every stage of these oppressions, we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legisla-ture to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction We have reminded them of the cirover us. here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred, to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connexion and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. must therefore acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold liberty was being built. [Loud cheers.] Now, my countrymen, if you have been taught doctrines conflicting with the great landmarks of the Declaration of Independence; if you have listened to suggestions which would take away from its graudeur, and mutilate the symmetry of its propertions; if you have been inclined to believe that all men are not created equal in those inalienable rights enumerated by our chart of liberty, let me entreat you to come back. Return to the fountain whose waters spring close by the blood of the Revolution. Think nothing of me-take no thought of the political fate of any man whomseever-but come back to the truths that are in the Declaration of Independence. You may do anything with me you choose, if you will but heed these saered principles. You may not only defeat noindifference to earthly bonors, I do claim Iy known, save that it was unfortunate ; to be actuated in this contest by something that, on the day succeeding the marriage, higher than an anxiety for office. I charge the General parted from his beautiful you to drop every paltry and insignificant bride for ever, and that he makes one of thought for any man's success. It is the illustrious band of genius and greatnothing ; I am nothing ; Judge Douglas ness who have been unhappy in their martion of American Independence" 1 COLTELL pursuit of bappiness.' This was their ma. ate, he was obliged to suspend his remarks jestic interpretation of the comomy of the in consequence of exhaustion. His once Universe. This was their lofty, and wise, magnificent voice is gone, ruined by his Yes, gentlemen, to all His creatures, to His personal conspicuity is so great that he is incessantly harrassed by partizans of lightened belief, nothing, stamped with his persuasion, and, like many others of the Divine image and likeness, was sent our eminent politicians, he frequently appeals to the brandy bottle to sustain him ded, and imbruted by its fellows. They amid the exhausting excitements to which grasped not only the whole race of man he is subjected. Those who know him children, and the countless myriads who present Senatorial term. To add to his should inhabit the earth in other ages. embarrassments, his own fortune broke reputations, so hardly won, worth so little, and speasily lost, in a public man's career."

> The New York News, a Democratic organ, thus speaks of the "Little Giant :"

"Douglas is, beyond all question, the most dangerous man in this Republic, more so than Seward, because he has elements of popularity with the vulgar herd which Seward does not possess. When a man is introduced to Seward, for example, he will blend his dignity with his suavity, and affect the Senatorial gravity But, introduce a man to Douglas, and he feels thirsty at once, and proposes a drink ! We are not more surprised than the Administration men are to find that Mr. Buchanan has been made the instrument, unwittingly, by placing Douglas in position. to peril the interests of the Democratic party.

GARRIBALDI .- With regard to his late me for the Senate, but you may take me GARRIBALDI .- With regard to his late and put me to death. While pretending unfortunate marriage, but little is general-probable success. To these successions Remanes of a Lytle Giante, who was kill we direct all our friends-Whig and Am- in ye irrepressible conflict for ye Presidenerican-believing, that, if elected, his ad- cy, at Charles Town, Maye the 2, 1860. ministration will be wise, emineutly con- Ambitious youth, take warning by his servative, honest and national."

The Buffalo Lxpress publishes the fol-Line Whig of Boston :

"Your Chicago ticket is bound to sweep the country. It will equal the Hard-Ci- ment assumed its management. Appader times of 1840, or the Rough and Rea- reutly a system of plunder was in operady of a late period. I hear on all sides a tion throughout the establishment. general 'caving in' or rolling off the fence of bundreds of Old Whigs and others who, letter to his brother Irishmen in America, for the last six or eight years, have follow- advising them not to herd together like ed no one's lead, and knew not where they | cattle on one man and be bough, and sold, belonged or where to go. We (for I am but to go with such parties as they consider one of them) now think there can be no right and best, regardless of old names mistake, and that the Chicago ticket is and prejudices. bound to succeed."

a son of the "Emerald Isle" whom a man thirty six reside and transact their busiby the name of Haney had engaged to ness in Philadelphia, and others were forbaul coal. On delivering it, Mrs. H. merly from that city. Rather bogus, and wished him to take it across the payement exceedingly brassy, that transaction. and deposit it in the cellar, which he would not do. She told him he was "no gentle-man." "Faith, mum," said Pat, "and if I was a gentleman, do you think I'd be property, or as a personal poll. The hauling coal for the likes of Mr. Haney?" Democrats are in favor of the latter prop-

The London Spectator, one of the leadhas nominated Mr. Himlin for President, and Mr. Maine for Vice President-and that the whole field will be greatly modified before the election comes off in June.

Mrs. Partington called on the Japanese at Washington and told.'em, "she was mighty glad to see them, as she understood their President was Ty-Coon, who she doubted not, was nigh kin to old Zip-Coon that the Whigs run in 1840. If they wanted him to, lke would sing 'em a song about old Zip."

Parson Brownlow, the fighting Whig editor and Methodist preacher, has been challenged to fight a duel ; he accepted, as foliows : "We select a hog pen, immediately after a hard rain, and dung forks as the weapons-wheever lifts the other out is to be acknowledged victor."

railways are constructed, has averaged Chicago nominations ; whereat the Re-$43,000 per mile-as much as the average publicants are mightily tickled, saying that cost of making a railway in the United it is a good cure of Democrat idues. States.

Dr. Holland describes a certain dismal class of persons-the grumblers-as "sit- as a Douglas Democrat, but his experience is nothing. But do not destroy that im-mortal emblem of Humanity-the Declara-marriage, and it is said has gone into a and peeling rotten apples with a rusty has come back a Republican and advocates kuffe.

fall, and never stryve to fille ye place for which we are too small."

The revenue of the government from per cent. since postmaster Fowler ran away and a special accept of the depart-

John Mitchell has written a sensible

In the recent Bell-Everett Convention An Indianian writes to the Harper's of egates represented Pennsylvania, of whom osition.

Gor You AT LAST -Now that the ing weekly papers of England, in speaking "Union" party at Baltimore bave made of the political nominations in the United their nomination, we shall know where to States, says that a Convention in Illinois find them. The party was so small that to prevent its getting lost altogether this fail, it was deemed advisable to put a Bell on it ! so that it can be heard where Ever ill goes.

Ex-Gov. Johnson of Georgia, in reply to the question, should the South demand of Congress the protection of slavery in the Territories, says no; and adds a conclusive reason - the has agreed not to do it.

Daniel Ullman, the last American candidate for Governor of New York-and Isaac Hazleburst, the last American candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania-are "ont" for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Mr. Everett, in his dreary, hopeless letter accepting to run for Vice President, discusses the Slavery question-a question which he and his party say the People must not discuss at all !

Lincoln Green has suddenly become the The mere cost of land on which British fashionable color in New York, since the

> G. G. Glass, a Lawyer of Tazewell county, Illinois, removed to a Southern State the election of Lincola

「二」