His in-forrity is proverbial, and he understands the German language—two prime qualifications. This homor, conferred on Mr. Dutasaut, would be only an at of justice to the many old-line Democrats, like himself, whom a sense of truth and right, outraged by the Kanas iniquity, has led into the Republican ranks. "HONEST JOHN SCHWARTZ" died last Wednesday evening, at Washington, after suffering from jaundice during the session, but heroically refusing to quit his post while able to reach it. Born in Sunbury volunteered for the defence of Baltimore in the War of 1812, and engaged in the iron business. A Henry Clay Whig, he was the first man who ever defeated "the regular Democratic nomince" for Congress in Berks county, and was a most faithful and popular Representative, as the crowd attending his funeral in Reading on Saturday evinced. Thus will Berks have a special election, next fall, for a Congressman as well as a State Senator.

to-The Divided Democracy

The frauds and double-faced delusions, by which, under the name of "Democracy" the leeches of the Treasury and extenders of Slavery have ruled the U.S. for sixteen years, have at last failed to hold the discordant elements together. Nothing but the empty name, and the "cohesive power of public plunder," now animates them. The division, commenced at Charleston, was consummated at Baltimore, on Saturday of last week. Ten days at Charleston, six weeks of rest, and six days at Baltiamore, proved it vain to attempt to humbug the people any longer, and the ploughshare of division bas rent it asunder.

The Convention at Baltimore was disgraced by angry and vituperative wordsby numerous fist fights-and by challenges to duels, which made the persons engaged, and the party itself, most obnoxious to public sentiment, and the City was glad to have them all leave.

A majority having decided to admit a part of the Douglas delegates sent from the South in place of those who secoded at Charleston, the fatal moment came and a second secession of one third of the Con-
