A "sound" Union-Saver!

Croakers may fret and moan, and credulous souls may bowl and weep, over a prespective division of our Confederacybut there's no danger. A Quincy (III.) orator-boiling over with "patriotism"made a speech in that city recently, which Pennsylvania. knocks all Disunion calculations "into a cocked bat" of the smallest size. The following is the speech, as reported by Capt. Brooks, of the Daily Herald :

Gentlemen and Ladies! You're talkin' of dissolvin' the Union-you can't do it. Thar's that are flag a-wavin' up thar, called the Star Spangled Banner; how ye a-goin' to divide that, ha? Are ye agoin' to give the stars to the Norf and the stripes to the Souf? No, sir ree; the thing can't be did. [Cheers.] And thar's that good old toon that the Band's a playin', called Yankee Doodle; how ye a-goin' to divide that, eh? Are ye a goin' to give the Yankee to the Norf, and the Dodle to the Souf? I say, boldly, it can't be did ! [Applause.]

And then thar's that stream of water a runnin' down thar, called the "Fathe ofwaters;" how ye a going to divide that? University at Cewisburg. and Dixon's line? You can't do it!

[Hear! hear!]
And than's the railroad lying out than; how ye a goin' to divide that, ch? are you goin' to tie it up with the Isothermal line? You can't do it! [Sensation.] And thar's all the fast hosses standin' round here; are ye a-going to run 'em Rev. G. R. Bliss, A. M., Professor of languages. North, and run 'em South, and run 'em East, and run 'em West? [Tremendous applause.]

And thar's all the handsome wimmen round here; how are ye a goin' to divide them? Are you goin' to give the old ones to the Norf, and the young ones to the M. W. Cramer, Souf? Wa-a-l, you don't! If you go to Souf? Wa-a-l, you don't! If you go to thunder, ye can't dew-w-w it! [Immense Miss A. Taylor, Principal of the Female Institute. And thar's all the feathered tribes, and the spread eagles and the liberty trees and Miss M. D. Mason. other birds, a flyin' about here, and the egg's-nests, and the yaller-legs and the Miss R. S. Warren, black-legs; how are ye a-goin' to divide them, eh? Are you goin' to give the pulthem, eh? Are you goin' to give the pul-lets to the Norf, and the cocks to the Souf? Mons. K. Volkmar, [Tremendous cheering.]

Our reporter could hear no more, but roars of laughter ensued as the "Doctor" caved in and fell from the platform.

Rather "Sharp Practice."

[The late Judge Duncan, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, used to tell the following story of his youthful days :]

At the commencement of my practice, (said be.) I had a client of the name of Kockersperger, an old, close-fisted German, of considerable property, for whom I did many little matters in the way of my profession, being always paid in promises that all would be right by-and-by. Finally, he the celebrated Coal Oil Lamps together sent for me to prepare his will. I made with Oil Shades, Wicks, &c &c my memorandums of the items and was about to retire, when he stopped me, and said, "Mr. Duncan, you have been my good friend, and attended to all my business, and have never got anything yet 2500 in my will."

Greatly surprised and delighted, I said, "My good Sir, you are too generous! I amount to one half that sum." The and insisted, however, and I inserted the legacy, nothing loth; and the will was executed in due form. Three or four years afterward, when the matter had passed out of my mind, I was attending court in a distant county and a di years afterward, when the matter had passed out of my mind, I was attending mornings, he will be found at Market in front mornings, he will be found at Market in front mornings. He will be found at Market in front mornings. ting at the hotel with the Judges and my for Cash exclusively. Calves wanted-Beeves fellow members of the bar, one of the company read from a newspaper the announcement of the death of my old German friend. "Well," said I, "he's gone at last (he was very old,) and I am $500 the richer by it !" and I told them the story of my legacy. They overwhelmed me with congratulations, as a matter of course, and it was the crowd" to a supper upon the strength of my good fortune. We had the supper, accordingly, and I footed the bill (a mater of no little consequence to me at the time in a pecuniary point of view.)

On my return home, I lost no time in calling upon his Executors, to lament with them the loss of our excellent friend; but, to my surprise, they preserved a dignified silence on the subject of my legacy! My impatience led me to the Recorder's office, where, to my astonishment, I found that the old skitflint bad copied the will, in his own bandwriting, omitting the legacy !

Soon after the telegraph was put in operation on the line of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad in Martin county, one of the natives stepped into the office and wanted to know the price of pork in Cincinna-fied: a fulness of the blood-vessels ensues, ti. In a few moments an answer came, with a charge of thirty-five cents for the information; but the "hoosier" was too sometimes finds a partial vent in humors and smart to be caught that way, and replied, eruptions of the skin, and the liver partakes "Oh no, Mr. Telegrapher, you can't fool me that way. "What place is this?" inquired a stranger who had to take a stage ride into the interior of Long Island.

"This is Jericho," replied the driver. "Jericho!" returned the inquirer, "why, I thought Jericho was one of the fubulous places told of in the Bible! You don't say this 'ere place is Jericho? Jerusalem! who would have thought of Jericho bein'
