UNION COUNTY STAR & LEWISBURG CHRONICLE---JULY 27, 1860.

Taggart & Farr's Patent

Correct, so far!

Common Pleas was in session at Tiffin. and Judge Hall, since M. C. from the Ninth District of Ohio, occupied the bench. A case of some importance was reached in the order of the docket, and the parties and witnesses were on hand. The counsel for the plaintiff, Charley Brown, was absent. His client, however, soon succeeded in procuring Lim, and Charley "opened fresh." He submitted motion after motion, and supported them by arguments that were ludierously laughable. Judge Hall, compelled to volunteer an occasional grin, did not see fit to grant the extravagant demands, which served to increase rather than diminish the quantity of Charley's motions.

The Judge at last waxed impatient, and deemed it economy to say : "It is the opinion of this Court that the Counsel for the Plaintiff is at present peculiarly disqualified for conducting the case now be-fore it."

Charley arose with an awkward and affected calmness, and said : "It is the (bic) opinion of the counsel for the plaintiff that the (hic) counsel for the (hic) plaintiff is obliged to confess that he can not (bic) comprehend the insinuations of this Court. The (bic) Court will therefore please (bic) repeat the same insinuations

The Court did repeat : "It is the opinion of the Court that Charles Brown, the Counsel for the Plaintiff, is altogether too drunk to proceed further with this case."

Charley arose again, and bringing his fist to a parallel with his head, brought it down upon the desk with a shivering emphasis that jarred the whole court-room, accompanying it with : "That's the first correct decision given this session !"

The closing exclamation entirely overcame Charley, and he came to his seat with an emphasis equaled only by that with which he "indersed" the decision of the Court.

Not Bad.

We heard yesterday of an incident which shows that every slave-code Democrat in Kentucky at least is not a disunionist. A well known Democrat of Kentucky, who resides in the country, not far from the city, and who is known for violent opposition to Douglas and popular sovereighty, received his mail the other day, and took his seat in the old arm chair in the parlor to enjoy "a read." In the parlor with him were his wife, sister and sisterin-law. Of course, the Charleston Convention news was what his eye sought for first. He read that delegates from several Southern States had seceded, and the Convention had adjourned without making a nomination. He let the paper drop from his hands and commenced crying, at which the family began to titter. "Hang you," he exclaimed, "had you half the religion you profess, you would cry too."

MASTER FOR ONCE .- An unfortunate married man was very ill-used by his Xantippe-be was even treated to an occasionon this, and at last spurred him to declare that he would make an effort to be master. One day, not long after, his better balf Adj. Professor of Languages and Teacher of Adj. Professor of Languages and Teacher of Natural Science. that he would make an effort to be master.

DON'T KNOW HOW TO 'HOLLER.'-The Wilmington Watchman, a Democrat organ, publishes all the Presidential tickets. Its q"andary is funny, but not singular, in the double condition of the Democracy. The editor savs :

"We are decidedly at a loss to know what will be the result of all this 'mix.' and we are in a greater loss as to how to holler : we are anxious to holler for somebody, but are afraid to, for you know we might wake up the wrong passenger-that is, we might get on the wrong side-and then we would be in a circumstance."

A Georgia paper defends Slavery upon Biblical grounds, pronouncing it a divine as well as a peculiar institution. This proposition is suggestive of the reply made by Dr. Johnson, when, while violently denouncing Scotland, a gentleman interrupted him with, "But, you forget that rupted him with, "But, you forget that ac., will be supplied to the hungry peopleby God made Scotland." "True," rejoined the subscriber, at his shop on North Fifth the Doctor, "but he made it for Scotchmen, Sir !" If God made Slavery, he assuredly made it for Georgia .- N. Y. Times

THE warm spring weather succeeding the bracing atmosphere of winter, relaxes the entire muscular system, including that great muscle, the heart ; the circulation of the blood becomes sluggish and irregular, not being propelled as actively as nature requires, through the lungs, there to exhale or cast off its impurities and become oxidized and purp fied : a fulness of the blo d-vessels ensues. attended with dull, drowsy, languid feelings and frequently dizziness and vertigo; the blood becomes loaded with corruptions, which sometimes finds a partial vent in humors and eruptions of the skin, and the liver partakes of the general inactivity of the system. Dr. DAVIS' DEPURATIVE quickens and equal-izes the circulation of the blood, cleanses it of all morbific matter, stimulates the liver healthy action, gives tone to the organs of digestion, and communicates remarkable en ergy to all the functions. One bottle of it, costing one dollar, will entirely prevent or re move all the above-described unpleasan symptoms, Ind, by strengthening and invigo rating, as well as purifying the system, fre quently be the means of preserving the health throughout the entire summer. Its effects as a Spring Purifier of the Blood are warranted and unfailing. For sale by 3m841 J. BAKER & CO., Lewisburg
