The Republicans of Kelly township held a Meeting, in Flavel Clingan's Grove, last Saturday afternoon and evening. Addresses were delivered in the afternoon by he deems greatly preferable to such a re-Ex-Gov. Pollock and Wm. C. Lawson, sult. Esq.; and in the evening by J. M. Moyer, Col. John J. Pattersen and Hon. Eli Slifer. The attendance in the afternoon was as large as we expected; in the evening, it was larger than was anticipated. The exercises were enlivened with music by Held's Cornet Band. In the evening, the Lewisburg Wide-Awake Club made their appearance, lighting up the grove most magnificently. A good degree of enthusiasua participated.
