ARMY.—A Palermo correspondent of an English paper gives the following anecdote of a Sister of Charity: "A young patriot, named Francisco Riso, was killed on April 4th, during a popular demonstration which took plans before Cariballi's against 4. A SISTER OF CHARITY LEADING AN place before Garibaldi's arrival. On April 20 his father, Giovani Riso, sixty years old, was shot by the Bourbon soldiers without so much as the form of a trial. On the very day that Garibaldi entered Palermo a young and beautiful nun, Ignacia Riso, the sister and daughter of the two Risos above named, left the convent, and amidst a shower of balls and grapeshot, a cross in one hand and a poignard in the other, placed herself at the West Branch country, a quantity of the head of Garibaldi's colums, crying, "Down with the Bourbons! Death to the tyrant! Vengeance!" She kept her place as long as the fight lasted, and her courageous attitude electrified the volunteers. Ever since that day the name of Ignacia Riso has been held sacred. When she passes in the streets the soldiers bow low and bless her with the most profound respect. Garibaldi himself pays her great attention, and loves her as if she were his own daughter."

"That's a new article for beautifying the complexion," said Mr. Bibb, holding up a small bottle for Mrs. Partington to look at. She looked up from toeing out a woolen sock for Ike, and took the bottle in her hand. "Is it indeed?" said she : well they may get up ever so many rostrums for beautifying the complexion, but depend upon it, the less people have to do with bottles for it the better. My neighbor, Mrs. Blotch, has been using a bottle a good many years for her complexion, and her ness looks like a rupture of Mount Vociferous, with the turning lather running all over the contagious territory." Mr. Bibb informed her, with a smile, that this was a cosmetic for the outside, and not to be taken internally, whereupon she subsided into the toe of Ike's stocking. SPRING PURIFIER.

THE warm spring weather succeeding the bracing atmosphere of winter, relaxes the ntire muscular system, including that great muscle, the heart; the circulation of the blood becomes sluggish and irregular, not being propelled as actively as nature requires, through the lungs, there to exhale or east off its impurities and become oxidized and puri-fied: a fulness of the blood-vessels ensues, attended with dull, drowsy, languid feelings, and frequently dizziness and vertigo; the blood becomes loaded with corruptions, which sometimes finds a partial vent in humors and eruptions of the skin, and the liver partakes f the general inactivity of the system. Dr DAVIS' DEPURATIVE quickens and equalizes the circulation of the blood, cleanses it of all morbific matter, stimulates the liver to digestion, and communicates remarkable energy to all the functions. One bottle of it, costing one dollar, will entirely prevent or re move all the above-described unpleasant ymptoms, and, by strengthening and invigorating, as well as purifying the system, frequently be the means of preserving the health throughout the entire summer. Its effects as a Spring Purifier of the Blood are warranted and onfailing. For sale by 3m841 J. BAKER & CO., Lewisburg
