Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 28, 1860.

A [illegible]—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics and Professional Men in Union and Contiguous Counties, Pennsylvania, will find it to their interest to advertise in the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, intelligent producers, consumers and traders, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ New Goods at Hursh & Goodman's, and at Brown, Dunkle & Co's.

☞ WEST BRANCH FAIR, at Lewisburg, Thursday to Saturday of next week. Come out, everybody, and bring along your babies and wives and children and parents and sweethearts and neighbors and strangers within your gates, and the Ladies all will have behind your watches and tobacco! The price of admission has been changed to the average charges in other Fairs—15 cts. single admission, 75 cts. for a family ticket, and $1 for family ticket and competition. Come and see the Lewisburg Steam Horse for all sorts of work!

☞ A flock of pilgrims from the State Fair at Wyoming denounce it as humbug, impudence, failure, &c. Nothing like County and Neighborhood Fairs.

☞ The Wonderful Wide-Awake Club numbers over 800 members, some of whom voted for Buchanan, but won't be caught in that way again. Their officers are:

President—Charles Cowley. Secretary—John Kremer. Captain—Jesse Rader. Lieutenants—Allen Thomas, Uriah M'Killum, John Kerstetter, Wm. H. Harman.

☞ THE WIDE-AWAKES in Milford, in Connecticut, last Spring offered a reward of $50 for the detection of any illegal voting, and thus prevented much fraud. The organization is intended to put down ballot-box stuffing. They mean to do the same thing in Philadelphia, New York and wherever else Locofocoism is said to occupy the sacred citadel of free institutions. They are needed for that, and may thus be useful. Let scoundrels look!

☞ Our old friend, Captain WM. P. FAHS, the preserving genius of the State Senate, paid us a visit this week. He remains faithful to the Old Black Cock de federal Party.

WEDDING AT A DEATH BED.—R. G. Banning, of Harrisburg, who was injured on the Pennsylvania railroad last Thursday, died the same night. The Harrisburg Telegraph says: The deceased had for some time been betrothed to an estimable young lady of this city, Miss Gray, and both looked forward to a speedy and happy union. When it was ascertained that Mr. Banning could not possibly survive, at the mutual request of him and his betrothed, and with the consent of the parents of both, they were married, Rev. Mr Carson performing the solemn and impressive ceremony by the bedside of the dying man. The bridegroom passed from the altar to the tomb, and the devoted bride of an hour changed her wedding garments for the habiliments of mourning.

A son of John Levy, an employee on the Northern Central road, had got on the bumper of a coal car, which, when moved by the engine, threw him off. The car wheels passed over and crushed one leg below the knee and dreadfully mangled the other. Dr. Awl was called in, but the sufferer expired before morning.—Sunbury American.

The American contribution to the Syrian Relief Fund will be very large. New York recently despatched to Damascus the sum of $10,407 13. There are now in Syria as many as fifteen thousand Christian sufferers, many of them widows and orphans.

Ebenezer Bastian, employed in the steam saw mill of Mr. Ira T. Clement, in Sunbury, had two of his fingers cut off, on Monday last, by a circular saw.

Snyder county has 15,124 population.

Isaac G. Gordon, Esq., is renominated for Assembly, in company with a younger brother of the late Speaker Lawrence.

John W. Bear, the "Buckeye Blacksmith," is on the stump for Lincoln and Curtin.

Ellis Schnable started West with Douglas, but left him to make Speeches in Western New York.

The farm of Henry Wittenmeyer, deceased, near Middleburg, was sold on Thursday, by the Executor, Samuel Wittenmeyer, to John Deitrich, for $2025.

A stranger to our informant, sitting upon a lumber boat in the Canal near Muncy, received an injury on his head, from a bridge under which he was passing, as to cause his death.

The Anthracite Gazette, published at Tamaqua, Schuylkill county, is offered for sale. Reason for selling, bad health of the Editor and other engagements of the proprietor.

The Old School Baptist yearly, or two days' meeting, will commence on Saturday, the 29 h inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., in the meeting house on Licking Creek, Juniata county.

Another Democratic candidate for President is nominated in Maryland—Roger B. Taney, with Judge Nelson of New York for Vice President.

The Catholics of Nippenose Valley have dedicated a large and substantial stone chapel in Bastres Tp.

Capt. Finn, a Democratic leader, was on Friday last sentenced for ballot-box stuffing in Scranton, to fifteen months in the county jail, five hundred dollars fine, the costs of court, and to stand committed until sentence should be complied with.

James Worrall, has been nominated for Congress by the Bell Everetters in the Dauphin and Lebanon Congressional District. Gallant John W. Killinger, the Republican candidate, will beat his competitors out of sight in that district.

Dr. Mitchell, of Bellefonte, was thrown from his buggy by a fractious horse, and broke one leg below the knee and bruised a foot by his fall.

Lincoln, Hamlin & Curtin Meetings!

BUFFALOE TP.—A good meeting was held last week in the Strawbridge School House—(David Henning, Chairman)—which was addressed by James Shields, Wm. Van Gezer, and J. A. Morris. It is time "Old Buffaloe" is waking up!

MILTON.—Monday evening, our neighboring town was the scene of an unusual, lively political night gathering. Lewisburg, Danville, Williamsport, and Muncy sent Wide-Awake delegations, which, in addition to that of Milton, made a beautiful display. The Ladies had a Flag presentation, and eloquent and stirring speeches were made by Messrs. Pollock and Hon. James H. Campbell, of Pottsville, People's candidate for Congress in that district.

WHITE DEER TP.—There was the largest collection of people ever seen at a political meeting in this township, Tuesday evening last, in Leiser's Grove, between Hightown and New Columbia. A Pole 111 feet high was raised in the afternoon, and banners and flags were numerous. Robert Candor Esq., was President of the meeting, which was ably addressed by Messrs. Lawson, Pollock, and Roney, of Milton. A delegation of 60 Wide-Awakes from Lewisburg, with a fife from Milton, made the woods brilliant with their lights, and honored Hightown with a visit.

MIDDLEBURG, Sept. 25, 1860.—This was quite an interesting day here—the day appointed for the Republican Mass Meeting for Snyder county. The morning was showery, but it cleared off brightly about 10 o'clock, A. M. giving a splendid hour for the entry of delegations from the different townships. The Beavers came in headed by a wagon drawn by twelve horses, on each horse a mounted boy with a blue sash and flag. The wagons were variously decorated with flags, rails, and maul and wedges. The Washington township (Freeburg) delegation made a brilliant entry, headed by the Freeburg Wide Awake Glee Club. They were received by the Wide Awakes of Middleburg, and as they paraded up and down the streets, the cheers of the crowd, the banners and ever flaunting flags, the wagons decorated with evergreens, and the ever-present maul and wedges, the scene was quite inspiring, giving a glow of satisfaction to the cheeks of every Republican. About 2 o'clock, A. M., the crowd assembled around a stand at the lower end of town, and were called to order by electing the veteran, NEB MIDDLESWARTH, Chairman, who addressed a few nervous remarks to the people. They were eloquent, and, coming from him, a veteran of political life, and touching on the great interests involved in the coming struggle, they started the depths of many a patriotic heart. It is not out of mere polite compliment that we say that FRANK BOUNER'S address was one that we have rarely listened to with such interest. He spoke for two hours and held the unwavering attention of the crowded gathering, and made a deep impression personally and politically. J. Moore Wilson of Danville, and A. M. Ingram, a farmer, of Mifflin county, followed. The Freeburg Glee Club enlivened the meeting with song and music. The Jackson Township Wide-Awake Club was also on hand.

About 5 o'clock, P. M., a large delegation of Wide-Awakes and others were in from Selinsgrove with band and banners. They had the rail-splitter as large as life, with the instruments of his labor, on one of their banners.

[The evening's proceedings we have not learned.]

☞ The Argus last week added to its reputation for veracity by asserting that "Republicans" threw the eggs at the Foster meeting. The Editor knows who performed that trick, or he does not know. If he does know, let him give the names, and the public will see who and what they are. If he does not know, he designedly bears false witness against our whole party. A Republican who was hit by an egg, says it did not seem to be designed for the speaker—it was so far from him—but for spectators. Judging from this fact, we are just as likely to be correct in assuming that the deed was executed by "Democrats" with a design to falsely throw blame upon their opponents.

An elegant American flag suspended by the Republicans, between P. Beaver's and Dr. Wilson's, was torn down and destroyed at night. We do not know who did this miserable act, but will not so far imitate the Argus as to charge it upon the Democrats.

Whoever performed either contemptible, thoughtless, illegal trick, it is despised by the masses of both parties, and neither party is responsible for the misdeed.

A boatman from Lebanon, named Martin M'Carty, was instantly killed at Pittston, on Wednesday of this week, by sudden descent of a coal car, caused by the breaking of a rope, upon a boat which was taking in coal. The entire weight of the loaded car fell upon him crushing him horribly. He left a family.

Rev. Henry Harbaugh has accepted a call as pastor of the St. Johns German Reformed Congregation at Lebanon, which has recently erected a large and superior house for public worship.

Thomas Ewing has left the Bell Everetts and fallen in with the Republican current.

Fillibuster Walker and his Lieutenant, Kudler, report says, have been shot by the Honduras authorities. The news, which is almost too good to be true, comes by telegraph from New Orleans.

Senator Seward's Speech in the Capital of Wisconsin was on the Duties and Responsibilities of the North-West.

It is proposed in New York city by the pure Cottonites to get up the fourth Electoral Ticket "pledged against Lincoln" and for Nobody.

Gen. Scott protests against the use of his name in 'connection with a humbug "Union and Fusion" meeting in New York city. He is not afraid of Abraham Lincoln, nor need any other honest, sensible, intelligent man be.

UNION COUNTY COURT, last week, had but one Civil case submitted to a Jury—an attempt to break the widow's agreement as to the will of the late John Rishel, which failed.

Jesse Beaver was appointed Foreman of the Grand Jury, which was discharged on Thursday, having found ten True Bills, ignoring two and imposing costs upon prosecutors, and recommending repairs to two bridges on Buffaloe creek, and of Court House steps.

James Chamberlin of Union, and Samuel Alleman of Snyder, were admitted to practice in the courts of this county.

Lewis Teichman, John G. Doell, Michael Metz, Fred. Chas. Hofner, C. F. Lindig, Wm. Cox, W. James Cox, Henry Mitschke, Thomas Dailey, Lewis Jones, James Harvey, Thos. Job, and Job Harvey, were admitted to naturalization as full citizens of the United States.

Joseph Cummings and L. D Brewer plead guilty to former indictments for selling liquor illegally; each was fined $10 and costs.

Com'th vs. Lewis Sweetwood, assault and battery—not guilty, and prosecutor (Jos. P. Miller) for costs.

Com'th vs. Chas. Crotzer, for selling liquor to minors—a t guilty; County for costs.

Com'th vs. Wm. Rank, for selling liquor to minors—not guilty; prosecutor (Constable of Mifflinburg, to pay $11 costs, and the remaining costs to be paid by Deft.

Com'th vs. Jacob Deckard, for selling liquor &c.—not guilty, but to pay the costs.

Com'th vs. Simon Mader, malicious mischief for stabbing horse at banalion in Mifflinburg—guilty, and sentenced to $5 fine and costs.

Com'th vs. Samuel Bechtel, assault, &c., obstructing the Mifflinburg Constable in the execution of a warrant—guilty, and sentenced to $5 fine and costs.

Com'th vs. Henry Rugh, S. P. Masteller, Isaac Zellers and Thomas Griffin, indictment for riot, &c.—not pros. on payment of costs, except against Griffin, who is not taken.

—Adjourned Court ordered for the week commencing Monday, Dec. 3, 1860.

The "Fusion Ticket" of New York State was to be composed, a part of each faction, thus:

10 of Bell-metal, badly cracked,
10 of Little Giant, badly whacked,
10 of Breckinridge, badly racked,
Bell-Everett smith, badly blacked.

☞ Rocky—Lincoln beats the whole pack!

("Anything to beat Old Abe!")

A large quantity of iron ore is shipped, by canal, from Milton to Danville, by Messrs. J. & J. P. Groves, for their furnace. The ore is mined in Union county, about three miles from Milton, and is hauled there in wagons. It is of a good quality and well repays the expense of shipping.

☞ Preaching in the Presbyterian church Sabbath evening next, by Rev. Dr. Dixon.

The Ladies of the Lewisburg M. E. Church intend giving two dinners—on Thursday and Friday of next week—on the Fair Ground. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Lewisburg Church.

"WHAT IS LIFE?"—Ask this question of the forests, which teem with stately life. There stand veterans of a century's age, rearing their rugged and far-reaching arms aloft as if in defiance of the ignorance of mankind as to the means of preserving health and establishing longevity. For the tree lives as surely and as distinctly as you do. To kill it you must attack it intelligently, as you do. It battles manfully and with many theoretical struggles. Life, everything has one, even to the poor sponge and the trodden earth pebble. How beautiful is the economy of health. How simple the methods of prolonging life, and preserving it from the assaults of the sublunaries of our arch enemy, Death! Unlike the lesser living things of the earth, we are endowed with the heart, and therein the life-fluid, the blood. Through it we feed, and therein it dies. Impoverish the blood, waste the flesh, stultify the mind, rob the nerves of their electrical forces, and, after keeping us invalids for years, sure finally consign us to premature graves. A life had lived out in like a fortune thrown into the bottomless ocean. It is a loss, irrecoverable. How careful then should we be never to neglect sickness, but if, by any misfortune, we have become ill, how earnestly should we seek to recover. Doctors who go exclusively to "the books," and who practice medicine as it was practiced when our great-mothers were children, are for persons in search of health, the progressive doctor—the man alive to the requirements of the age—the man who is neither too old nor too old-fogyish to study for the benefit of his fellows, and to give them a specific remedy—the result of his toil—that we must consult. And the product of such study and labor is Dr. O. Phelps Brown's "Anodyne Balsam." Almost everybody has heard of it—how it heals the infection in the lungs, strengthens the weak stomach, outlives the wasted muscles with their pristine fullness, imparts purity and color to the impoverished blood, rejuvenates the torpid and dying liver, electrifies into beautiful vigor and activity the shattered nerves at last, gives the mind its normal tone, imparts to the whole sound, buoyant, strong, cheerful, and useful. The Anodyne Balsam has done all this—does it every day—and there is not an invalid in the world who should neglect to give it a trial. Get a pamphlet, describing it, from the Doctor's agents. It is sold at $1 per large bottle, by J. BAKER & CO., Lewisburg, Sole Agents.

A number of specimen bottles, price 25 cents each may be obtained, as above, if speedily applied for.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of Medical Discoveries no remedy has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the various affections of the Throat, Lungs and Chest—of Colds, Coughs, Incipient Consumption, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, and of Consumption itself, as the far-famed, long-tried, and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy that but few of the many who have tested its virtues will experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for all the affections of the Throat, Lungs, &c. fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to control every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptoms of pulmonary complaint.

From Mr. J. C. Smith.

LEWISTOWN, Pa., May 7, 1860.

Some eight years since I was afflicted with a very severe cough, the long continuance of which alarmed me very much, and brought me to look for some remedy to relieve me from the condition in which I found myself. I applied to different physicians, but received no benefit. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry was recommended. I gave it a trial, and was relieved of my cough before using the first bottle. I feel myself a better man for having used The Balsam with astonishing results.

Yours truly, J. C. SMITH.

☞ Caution to Purchasers. The only genuine Wistar's Balsam has the written signature of "I. Butts" and the printed name of the proprietors on the outer wrapper; all other is the sale worthless.

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by P. S. Caldwell, and J. Wells & Co., Lewisburg.

Died.

☞ We learn, indirectly, of the sudden death, in Europe, of Mrs. SARAH E. DAVIS, some time a much beloved resident of Lewisburg.

In Lewisburg, 23d inst., GEORGE REITMEYER, Sr., aged 60 years, 8 months and 11 days—a native of Berks county, and a soldier in the War of 1812—for many years a respected citizen of this county.

In Hartland, Vt., 15th inst., Miss MARIA D. MASON, aged 20 years and 6 months. Miss Mason was a daughter of Rev. Francis Mason, D. D., long time a Missionary among the Burmans, and had herself been a Teacher of Painting and Drawing in the University Female Institute at Lewisburg, Pa., for four years past. A sudden cold contracted last summer, resulted in Consumption. Her accomplishments, her friendliness, and her piety, will long endear her memory to her many friends and acquaintances.

JOHN KILLINGER, Esq., died at his home in Annville, Lebanon Co., Pa., 17th inst., aged 70 years. Mr. Killinger was much esteemed as a liberal citizen, a good neighbor, and a worthy Elder in the German Reformed church. His death, and the previous protracted watchings by his bedside of his son, Hon. JOHN W. KILLINGER, Congressional nominee from this District, has prevented the latter from fulfilling some of his contemplated visits with the people—and this announcement will and should be his ample apology should he fail of reaching many points in his District.

In Hillsquaque, 20th inst., JOHN PHLEGER, aged 71 years.

In Norwich, Sept. 10, JOHN WRIGHT, Esq., aged 68 years.

On 8th inst., in Limestone Twp., a child of William Katherman, aged 2 months and 27 days.

On the 11th inst., in Mifflinburg, CATHARINE, consort of Joseph Fisher, dec'd., aged 77 years, 8 months and 8 days.

On the 13th inst., in Lewis township, THOMAS KATHERMAN, aged 54 years, 11 months and 7 days.

☞ Lively times in Muncy, last week—"Camp Cadwallader" calling together eleven small military companies, under command of Gen. Jackman, who remained from Monday until Saturday morning. Thursday evening, Wide-Awakes from Muncy, Milton, Lewisburg and Williamsport, paraded with 275 torches, and were addressed by Wm. H. Armstrong, Esq. Wednesday, the Odd Fellows from several neighboring towns marched the streets, and were addressed by Rev. Joshua Kelly.

THE ONLY PREPARATION
HAVING POWER TO RESTORE AND RENEW
As to Expel the Doubts of All.

STATESMEN, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the widest science as well as men after the most unparalleled exertions, and consequent ill-health in one or all of its forms of exhaustion, and diseases of the scalp and brain, for all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will restore the hair from being gray, and in recalling to any age, as well as restore. Read the Evidence.

[illegible] Bear Spring, Penn., June 26, 1860.
DR. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had some very perplexing cases, and give your Hair Restorative a superior trial.
During the year 1858 I was a most remarkable case to be seen from my colony against a cold near the middle of the winter, when my head received a most severe attack, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which the hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first received the dreadful wound, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, hoping a restoration of some kind, as I was naturally of a delicate nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription I procured.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your Hair Restorative, which I have used with perfect success in restoring the hair, and I have every reason to believe, I possessed a very large amount of the first quality. I feel confident that I can recommend your Restorative to all who are afflicted with baldness, and shall take pleasure in recommending it to my friends, which I have already done.
Yours very respectfully, M. J. SCHMITT, M. D.

Dear Sir,—I have used your Hair Restorative, and find it to be a first class article for the hair. It has restored the hair on my head, which had fallen off, and left me entirely bald. I have also used it for my children, and find it to be a good article for the hair. I have had a number of my friends to use it, and they all say it is a good article. I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are afflicted with baldness, as I feel confident it will restore the hair. Yours, &c., JOHN SCHNEIDER.

Dear Sir,—I have used your Hair Restorative for the last three months, and find it to be a good article for the hair. It has restored the hair on my head, which had fallen off, and left me entirely bald. I have also used it for my children, and find it to be a good article for the hair. I have had a number of my friends to use it, and they all say it is a good article. I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are afflicted with baldness, as I feel confident it will restore the hair. Yours, &c., JOHN SCHNEIDER.

A CARD.

AS much interest is manifested at present in Roaring and Moaning Machines, we desire to call the public that we are the exclusive owners of O. Hussey's Patents, for the construction of the only skilled manufacturer, and vest-owned duties for certain counties in the State of Pa.
All Reaping and Mowing Machines with an open slotted guard and scalloped knife are infringements on Hussey's Patents, for the truth of which we refer any one interested to the decision of the U. S. Court, at Chicago, Sept. 19, 1858, delivered by Hon. John McLean, and reported in the Scientific American of May 1st 1859, page 295.
Having purchased the exclusive rights of O. Hussey's Patents for this certain portion of the State, we shall insist upon having our rights protected. JAS. S. MARSH & CO.
