THE LAND OF DREAMS.

- There is a strange, weird land, whose shore I have trod Full many and many a time;
 It is not of earth, nor the land of our God,
 not a faint and shadowy clime;
 It may not be seen in the glare of the day.
 When this semicht comes on us in steams,
 But only when darkness has shut out his ray;
 The the mystical land of Dreams.
- When wearied the bedy, and saddened the soul,
- When earth weems a dark value of gloom.
 When trisks like occun waves, ever me roll,
 And I almost long for the temb.
 Then enchantments of Sleep steals ever my sight
 And my vision with opulence teems.
 With golden flushed faces, and luminous light,
 In the my steal land of Breams.
- On the dim mistr above, of that phantom-like world,
 The baiminest brease blue;
 The fairest of somes in the say are unfarled,
 And the descret of rivers then;
 The inrightest of sams on those marient fields.
 Throws its warm and its chamiliess teams—
 The chainest of trust the rich sail every helds
 Of the mystical hand of breams.
- And when the spont son has withdrawn his fair face,
- And the downs of traight distill.
 When night wrops the scene in a mantle of grace,
 And silent are westland and rill.
 Then the tender-even stars in the blue raulted heaven
 Display in their clirer inness glessing
 Such glories respondent as only are given in the mystical hand of Breams.

- And sometimes I meet, on Abut penceful shore,
- Fair forms of these that I haveof these I shall secon the earth to moreThey are gone to the height secure above.
 And often with them do I wait suce again,
 When sanish to feeling its beaus
 (for the beautiful wale and for reaching plain,
 In the inystical land of Presum.
- Where the ills and the troubles of life are forgot,
- Where is found an eternal calm Where the washest for Fountain of Youth, long sought,
- Ripples forth its heating balm— it emblem indeed of that realm screen, Whenever refrigence of light ever gleams; here Purity deedle, and Heaven is seen, is the mystical land of freems.
