Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 5, 1860.

ADVERTISE.—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics and Professional men in City and Country. Publishers of ... would do well to employ the ... of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a circulation ... in addition to a general ... and is extensively circulated in all parts of the State.

See New Advertisements.

☞ Tickets are ready for distribution at the Star for the Northern Districts.

☞ We issue our sheet a little in advance of the week, to be in time for the Fair, the Mass Meeting, &c. We will print Friday's doings Thursday's to order.

☞ The Foundry Firm, whose Advertisement appears in our columns today, possesses much of capital, enterprise, and experience in their business. They have repaired and refitted their premises and implements, and will add to them a large and permanent addition to our industrial resources and business.

☞ A vote for Curtin is a vote of Pennsylvania to pay a debt of $20,000 to $30,000 for Andrew G. Curtin. It's full vote he'll poll, his election seems certain. All the friends of Lincoln have to do, to make his election sure, is to pave the way by securing the well-earned triumph of Curtin.

☞ A New Staff seems to have entered many of the Democratic Editors in Berks and other strong Germ[an] Counties. They see that the right way to vote is to vote for Lincoln this time. It is to vote for Curtin and Jackson Curtin. Good idea isn't it?

ANSON BURLINGAME—the noble man of Massachusetts, who first impaled Bully Brooks on the pillory of public contempt—is expected to speak in Williamsport, this (Friday) evening—and to be in LEWISBURG ON SATURDAY forenoon. He is on his way, now, for this purpose, not knowing of any other arrangement, and ignorant of our Friday's meeting. The time and place of his speaking, on Saturday, will be announced in handbills.

☞ Possibly, FRIDAY EVENING.

☞ A piece of Jobwork absolutely promised one attending the Mass Meeting at New Berlin last Saturday, but all we have heard from there were well pleased. Messrs. Lawson, VanGezer, and Orwig made good speeches, and the Winfield and New Berlin Wide-Awakes—the latter rending their uniforms about 7, P. M., and still an hour turning out 60 strong!—made a pleasant performance.

☞ The Lewisburg Argus, two years ago promised that a certain issue should be its last before Election—nevertheless it appeared, on Election morning, pewing for our candidate, READ, was a tad Freeholder, and the Democracy all proper abhorrence—thus helping to swell Judge Read's maj. to 27,000? Should it try that trick again, and tell bigger whoppers than common, don't mind 'em—just remember the party is Niggerized, Tariffized, Kansasized, Bucksized, Forneyized, Rousseauized, and Brooksized, until it's "split to entirely," and "ain't well, to know it." Never mind its lies, but just go and vote for ABE LINCOLN AND HIS FRIENDS!

☞ At Reading, Gen. Foster peremptorily refused to respond to a respectful query who he supported for President. Are not the people of Pennsylvania entitled as a few politicians in Reading might know whether a candidate for Governor would favor the policy of Gerrit Smith? of Lincoln? or of Lane? or of Bell? or of Breckinridge? or of Douglas? Humbug! Have to APPOINT U. S. SENATORS, and yet he says it's nobody's business what man, indicative of a line of National policy, he supports! And he the man who sarcastically pounded us, "Polk and the Tariff of '42." Is not the fact of his allegiance suspicious? Andy Curtin has no disguise—he is openly for Abraham Lincoln!

☞ A Republican, who—being somewhat soreheaded—last year kicked over the traces and voted for Democrats, tells his experience: after hearing two speeches from Dist. Att. Barker, and seeing Capt. Barker's troop under his orders annoying the Republican meeting at New Berlin—after all this, our once-Democratic friend is sick of putting Democrats in positions to insult and abuse us at our own expense! He don't think it policy to give a man a knife to cut your own throat! That's our mind, per-cisely. Let private pique and prejudices go. Punish your political opponents, and not your friends. Honor and reward those on the right side—not those on the wrong side. Build up your party—don't tear it down, by piecemeal. Like brothers, stand or fall together—all!

FOSTER AND THE IRISH.—It has been charged as an argument against Col. Curtin, to have due weight with Catholics, that he is a renegade Catholic. This is a mistake. He and his father before him were always Protestants—members, we believe, of the Presbyterian church. It may be that some relatives of Col. Curtin were Catholics, as his father was Irish; but it is hardly fair to make him responsible for them. Gen. Foster, during the Irish Famine of 1847, was in Congress, and voted against a bill to provide relief for the starving people of Ireland. The bill, which appropriated $500,000, passed the Senate, was sent to the House, and lost by a vote of 57 to 102. In the Yeas we find the name of HANNIBAL HAMLIN. In the Nays that of HENRY D. FOSTER, the present candidate of the Democracy for Governor of Pennsylvania. The Whigs, generally, voted for the measure, and the Democrats against it. Gen. Irvin (Curtin's uncle) was among the most liberal contributors to the private fund sent to the suffering of Ireland.

☞ The Democrats of Juniata county, in fear of losing their County Ticket, have induced a sore-headed Doctor to put up his name as a candidate for Assembly—intending to trade enough votes with him for that office, to help them elect their local candidates. Wolfe and Boyer—the Union and Snyder nominees—were pitched overboard, and Leitzel of Snyder was substituted, with the understanding that he should withdraw for the ambitious pill-peddler: and he did. The Dr. said he should not spend his "time nor money" in his patriotic race; but we learn he has since traversed Union and Snyder, getting rid of somebody's money at Mifflinburg and elsewhere, and going home with several large fleas in his ear, and some flattering tales of noted filibusters political—Friends of HAYES and PATTERSON! you will find all sorts of mixed tickets against you, but you have only to stand together and elect them. Don't trade off a vote on any pretence. Zuluff of Juniata is the only one they will try to elect—this Dr. being only a dupe, whose votes and money they are using for their own benefit.

☞ We have been asked who is the Democratic nominee for Congress? Really, we don't know. In Lebanon, since one Dem. candidate (Boughter) has turned for Lincoln, and the other (Weidler) for Bell, they don't seem to think it worth while to run any. In Dauphin, they are inclined to "cuss" on Worrell, the K. N. nominee. In Snyder, we believe Jack Cummings sweeps the field; and in Union neighbor Purdy has no opposition on his side of the house, and deserves the votes of all friends of his sort of Democracy. For four years past, he has faithfully breakfasted on Niggerism, dined on Disunionism, and supped on a fusion of all the horrors a brilliant imagination could distill from the two sorceresses. Certainly, he has earned the honor of being beaten out of sight by John W. Killinger—and hope he may receive it.

☞ The Boston Pilot, a Roman Catholic paper, has several times during this campaign written bitter articles against Col. A. G. Curtin. What would be thought if a Presbyterian, Methodist, or Lutheran paper should attack Gen. Foster, and urge their church-members not to vote for him! Yet the like of this is just what that emissary of the Pope, residing in Boston, has done. Any sect which attempts to dictate to Americans who they should or shall not support, on sectarian grounds, shall be rebuked by the freedom-loving voters.

☞ Election-Day will be a good time to get and renew subscriptions for the STAR & CHRONICLE. See Terms, first page.

☞ Capt Whiskey made a bad row at a political meeting in Mifflinburg, Tuesday evening.

☞ SCOTT has a large assortment of Boots & Shoes on hand, just from Philad.

WILLIAMSPORT Mass Meeting, Thursday evening, Oct. 4. A special train will be run from Lewisburg at 5½, P.M., Thursday, and return early Friday morning. Fare, for the round trip, Ask Capt Forrest.

DANVILLE, Sept. 28.—A fire broke out about two o'clock this afternoon in a barn in the rear of Dr. Frick's residence on Market street. The wind being high, the fire spread with fearful rapidity, consuming most of the frame buildings on the square. But for the new fire engine recently purchased, the extent of the fire can hardly be calculated. Loss, estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000, of which the greater part falls on Mr. Houpt whose tannery was consumed.

James K. Kelly, Esq., formerly of Central Pennsylvania, has been appointed, by the President, U. S. District Attorney for the State of Oregon.

A. B. Putnam, Esq., late Superintendent of Common Schools in Montour Co., has been elected Principal of the Public Schools of Williamsport.

Gov. Seward and some of his family, have been visiting us for west as Leavenworth, in Kansas. Gov. Seward spoke at St. Joseph, St. Louis, &c., and was everywhere well received.

Garibaldi is still making progress in Italy, the Southern and Central parts of which seem to be now entirely with him. France, Austria, and Sardinia are puzzled to know what to do with the uprising millions.

A rope walker near New York recently fell and broke his neck. It is strange there are not more of the worthless fellows killed.

The Williamsport Press—L. Ulmer Esq., Editor, and published by C. H. Butt—has been enlarged into an eight-column paper.

John C. Weber, a well known merchant of Philadelphia, died on Wednesday evening very suddenly, while attending a prayer meeting in the lecture room of Rev. Albert Barnes' church.

Eleven men, principally Irish, have been taken up in Lock Haven for disturbing a Republican meeting.

The foundry of Adam Holman, in Liverpool, was accidentally burned on Saturday evening.

The Philadelphia Inquirer (Union) says the Republicans must have at least 38 maj on joint ballot in the next Penn'a Legislature, and thus elect a U. S. Senator.

Two men were sent to Jail in Sunbury on a charge of stealing from the shoe store of Wm. H. Miller.

Morrison Cortright, of Beach Grove, was horribly mutilated one day last week near Shickshinny, in attempting to jump from a coal train while in motion. He had an arm and leg cut off.

A CARD.

AS much interest is manifested at present in Reaping and Mowing Machines, we desire to inform the public that we are the exclusive owners of O. Hussey's Patents, for the combination of the open slatted guard finger, and scalloped cutter for eleven counties in the State of Pa.

All Reaping and Mowing Machines with an open slatted guard and scallop knife are infringements on Hussey's Patents, for the truth of which we refer any one interested to the decision of the U. S Court, at Chicago, Sept. 19, 1858, delivered by Hon. John McLean, and noticed in the Scientific American of May 1st 1859, page 225.

Having purchased the exclusive rights of O. Hussey's Patents for this certain portion of the State, we shall insist upon having our rights respected. JAS. S. MARSH & CO.
