☞[It is hardly fair that the Republicans should have all the fun, this year. We therefore select the two following items, as some consolation for our "split," mauled, and defeated Democratic brethren to laugh over.]

A Curtain Lecture, by a Wide Awake Wife

SCENE—In bed, face to the wall; a strong smell of coal oil. TIME—three in the morning.

A pretty time, indeed, for you to come home, sir! Where have you been, all night? You smell as if you had been in search of Symmes' Hole through a tar barrel. Talk of sulphurretted hydrogen, or superannuated eggs! they sin't anywhere. Say, where have you been? Here I've been lying awake for the last five hours, waiting for you to come. Now I want to know where you have been all this time? Wish I wouldn't bother you—tell me in the morning? I want to know now; it's near enough morning to know where one's husband has been all night, and particularly if he comes home perfumed clear through as you are. You mustn't good wife me—that won't answer. Suppose you were a woman, and your husband should go off every night in the week, and come home as you do, and—I wish you'd get up and let some fresh air into the room, or I shall certainly suffocate—what would you say? Don't you imagine there would be a row in the family? Been with the Wide Awakes? I should think as much. You're a wide-awake fool, that's what you are. I've always thought you had about sense enough to parade the streets with those nigger lovers. Why did I marry you? That's a pretty question. Didn't you swear that you'd shoot yourself if I didn't take pity on you? I'm sorry I didn't allow you to shoot, or hang, or drown yourself. It would have been the best thing I ever did in my life. What is it smells so? Nothing. Don't tell me nothing; it never smelled so in the world. Had to carry a torch! That's sweet business for a man who pretends to be the father of a large family. Next thing I shall expect to hear of you is, that you've been splitting rails for general circulation. I know nothing about politics? Don't,eh? I don't want to know nothing about politics, if I have to neglect my family and carry stinking torches for the benefit of a lazy man in Illinois who is trying to be President. Want to sleep? I thought you were a Wide Awake. I suppose you've kept awake to-night on whiskey, haven't you? Where have you been, all this time? Been to Tonawanda to raise a liberty pole! That's a sweet note. Why didn't the Wide Awakes of Tonawanda raise their own pole? I 'xpect Republicans are scarce in that section, and you've been trying to make a great splurge. Well, you can't fool anybody. I believe I know something about politics myself, and I know that you are drunk. That's what you are. Must go to sleep, must you? Why didn't you think of that before? I've had no sleep to-night, and you never once thought of me. You're a brute, and just such a man as ought to vote for an old rail splitter. Vote for Douglas if I let you alone? Eh! that would be well, indeed; a change without a difference, or a difference without a change. Really, how considerate you are! Douglas! Lincoln! Lincoln! Douglas! "Honest Abe!" "Little Giant!" "Goodness gracious," says Mrs. Cox. "Gracious goodness," says Mr. Cox. Oh! you politicianers will be the death of us poor affectionate creatures, your much abused wives!

GOOD JOKE.—The Intelligencer [Locofoco] says that when the Danville Wide-Awakes were returning, in a canal-boat, from a parade at Bloomsburg (it being very dark, and they rather exhausted and dis-"spirit"ed—in fact,almost "Fast-Asleeps," just then,) they lost overboard one of their implements—when one of the party cut a notch in the side of the boat, (and "sailed" on) so that they might know, when daylight came, just where they lost it! [Don't believe that story, nohow!]

The "Bell" party Cracked!

The Pennsylvania election proves that the last hope of Democrats—to cheat the people by a "third party" movement—is futile. The Bell Everett leaders sold themselves to Foster—their papers all came out openly for Foster, believing and scandalizing Curtin, shamefully—Bell leaders, in other States, impudently exhorted them to kill the Republican party: but all in vain. The people can not be deluded in that way. Their vile would-be leaders have exposed their strength, (which is only 5,000 in Philadelphia, and will not be 10,000 in the State,) and lost all power to harm any one but their new associates. Good riddance of very bad rubbish!

Douglas is to carry the following States: The State of ——, the State of ——, the State of ——, the State of ——, the State of ——, the State of ——, the State of ——, the State of ——, and the State of ——, which will give him 000,000,000 majority over all other candidates! Bell and Everett are to carry the New York Ledger, which James Buchanan "writes for."

The Philadelphia papers announce the death of the venerable painter, Rembrandt Peale, at his residence, on Thursday morning last. Mr. Peale was born on the birth-day of Washington, the 22d of February, 1778, and was therefore in his eighty-third year. His portrait of Washington is esteemed one of the best.

The income of John C. Fremont, from his gold mines, is set down at two thousand dollars per day. His establishment is something immense.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

HAVING PROOFS SO STRONG AND DIRECT

As to Expel the Doubts of All.

STATESMEN, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools, as well as new give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of weakness, and diseases of the scalp and brain. Did all who have used it, unite in testifying that it whitpreserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore. Read the following:

OAK GROVE, S. C., June 24, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to use your valuable article, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be the victim from my military spirit, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed every thing I could think of being a professional man myself, as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription attended.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result. Two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Send a bottle, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers, moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully, M. J. WRIGHT, M.D

OFFICE OF JEFFERSONIAN, PITTSBURG, Va., Dec 14, '58.

DEAR SIR: If I may deem as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been full ever since his early youth, so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he used very sparingly, and after using one or two bottles his hair grew out quite handsomely, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our community. If this statement can be of benefit to the truth of the above result, I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can send a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

DR. WOOD—Dear Sir: Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original colour about the time of my arrival in the United States, it was rapidly becoming grey, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative a very wonderful invention, quite otherwise will be without it.

S. GILLARD.

The Restorative is put up in Bottles of three sizes, viz large, medium, and small. The small holds 75 cents, but is not sold for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least 50 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quarter 50 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

SPRING PURIFIER.

THE warm spring weather succeeding the freezing atmosphere of winter, relaxes the entire muscular system, including that great muscle, the heart; the circulation of the blood becomes sluggish and irregular, not being propelled as actively as nature requires, through the lungs, there to exhale or cast off its impurities and become oxidized and purified; a fulness of the blood-vessels ensues, attended with dull, drowsy, languid feelings, and frequently dizziness and vertigo; the blood becomes loaded with corruptions, which sometimes finds a partial vent in humors and eruptions of the skin, and the liver partakes of the general inactivity of the system. Dr. DAVIS' DEPURATIVE quickens and equalizes the circulation of the blood, cleanses it of all morbific matter, stimulates the liver to healthy action, gives tone to the organs of digestion, and communicates remarkable energy to all the functions. One bottle of it, costing one dollar, will entirely prevent or remove all the above-described unpleasant symptoms, and, by strengthening and invigorating, as well as purifying the system, frequently be the means of preserving the health throughout the entire summer. Its effects as a Spring Purifier of the Blood are warranted and unfailing. For sale by

VITRIFIED CHIMNEY TOPS.

This is an article to which every Builder's attention should be particularly directed. At the present time, when any roof in our large cities, covered with slate, tin or shingles, is liable to be destroyed by fire, from the burning of the chimney, it is of the utmost importance that such roofs should be covered with an article that will not burn, and at the same time is cheap. This we now offer to the public. They are made from the best fire clay, and are perfectly vitrified, and therefore will not crack when covered by coal, which destroys all other tops. They are from 2 feet to 6 feet in length, and from 8 inches square to 2 feet square, (as in the first plate) and from 1 foot to 3 feet square, (as in the third plate) and are particularly adapted to the Anthracite coal region. Persons interested are requested to call at the Office, or address by mail, the manufacturers at the
