Tuesday, Nov. 6th,

Is the day of the Presidential Election. Let all who desire a change of policy at Washington, be prepared to CAST THEIR VOTE THAT DAY, and aid in making that change. The following are the candidates now in the field:

Republican Candidates.
President—ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois.
Vice President—HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Maine.

Northern Democratic Candidates.
President—STEPHEN ARNOLD DOUGLAS, of Illinois.
Vice President—HERSCHELL V. JOHNSON, of Georgia.

Southern Democratic Candidates.
President—JOHN CABELL BRECKINRIDGE, of Kentucky.
Vice President—JOSEPH LANE, of Oregon.

Constitutional Union Candidates.
President—JOHN BELL, of Tennessee.
Vice President—EDWARD EVERETT, of Massachusetts.

Abolition Candidates.
President—GERRIT SMITH, of New York.
Vice President—SAMUEL M'FARLAND, of Pa.

SMITH has no chance whatever. It is doubtful whether DOUGLAS will get even one State—BELL, not over half a dozen, at best. BRECKINRIDGE will get the majority in those States where the Slave Oligarchy would massacre a man running as a Lincoln Elector. LINCOLN will probably get most if not all the States where Elections are really free and the People can make an unbiased choice.

The only way to defeat the People's Will, and to give the General Government again into the hands of the Slave Power, is by a reckless combination and fraud in the Free States, to throw the election into Congress—thus deliberately (and not by accident, as in 1800 and in 1824) cheating the People out of their selection of President. In the House, neither Lincoln, Breckinridge, nor Bell could command a majority of the States, and Douglas and Smith will not be sent there. No election being made in the House, the Senate would choose the Vice President, and he become the President. That choice would undoubtedly be Joseph Lane—the picked man of Mr. Buchanan and the Slave Oligarchy from the outset—and the most unfit, corrupt and dangerous of all the candidates.

Your choice, voter! is really between LINCOLN and LANE. Be not deceived by side issues. Vote cautiously, wisely, and well!

The Work Half Done.

The election of CURTIN is half the election of LINCOLN. We may have the power, but we must use it to gain any end. A man may die of hunger if he will not or does not eat the food set before him. We may have a million majority of votes, but unless the votes be put in the ballot-box we shall have no majority.

Farmers plough and harrow, sow the seed, protect it from danger, reap, thresh out, and then realize, in bread or money, the reward for all their risk, labors and expense. So we Lincolnites have toiled and toiled—scattered wide the good seed—anxiously guarded the growing germs of truth and popular appreciation from all sorts of enemies—have seen the grain ripen—have done a "threshing" job—the goldenest harvest is well-nigh garnered—but we must see that it is taken to mill and the market, to realize our victory. ONE DAY MORE FOR THE CAUSE, and a glorious triumph is ours!

☞"One five more, boys! and the day is ours." There should be no half-way work in this issue. The majority should be such as for ever to crush the noxious doctrine of Slavery Extension and Cuba-robbing. It should be a stunner to the Free Traders. It should startle guilty extravagance and corruption at Washington. It should demonstrate to the Nullifying, Secession, Disunion crew, that the mighty mass of the People is opposed to their treason and will not allow it to be put in execution. Let the Free States back up their President and Congressmen by tremendous majorities, and the Reign of Terror at the Capitol is ended, and the Brookses, the Keitts and the Pryors will fume and fret for their supremacy no more, or be laughed at for their utter folly and impotence!

☞The real Bell-Everetts in Philad, disgusted with their brief fusion with Locofocoism, have resolved to support a Straight, clean Ticket, only. We respect men who pretend to believe in Bell-Everett, who vote for them: but there are no meaner, baser politicians than the tribe who are for sale to Democrats or Republicans, whoever will give them the most cash—who would sacrifice every principle to the direst foes to gain petty office—who in New York advocate Jersey advocate Breckinridge!

Pennsylvania in Full.

O'er the crags, Alleghenny! a blast has been blown;
Down the skies, Susquehanna! the murmure has gone;
From the Delaware's margo to the Lake of the West;
Wherever the foot of the Freeman hath pressed;
'Tis the voice of a PEOPLE spirited—awake;
Pennsylvania's watchword, with Freedom at stake,
Thrilling up from each valley, flung down from each height—
"OUR COUNTRY AND LIBERTY!—GOD FOR THE RIGHT!"

We have at length the full vote cast in Pennsylvania at the recent election. The totals are as follows:

Governor—A G. Curtin (Lincoln)		262,349
H. D. Foster (Fusion)		230,257
Curtin's majority		32,092
Congress—Total Lincoln		260,960
Total Democ.	212,135
Total Bell vote	7,067
Lincoln over all		41,758

The vote is about Thirty Thousand heavier than ever before cast in the State. Gen. Foster polls just about Mr. Buchanan's vote in 1856; while Col. Curtin exceeds that cast for Fremont and Fillmore together, by fully Thirty-Two Thousand.

Which is the "Genuine Old Dr. Jacob Townsend's Sarsaparilla?"

MORE CONFUSION.—A portion of the Douglas State Committee of Penn'a met last week, and a majority resolved, that—Douglas and Johnson being the "regular" nominees, and the Reading Electors (if elected!) bound to go for them—therefore they withdrew the Straight ticket. The Breckinridgers also claim to be 'regulars.' This step—so contrary to all of Douglas' teachings—will badly injure Douglas in the West, where Breckinridge is denounced as a Seceder, Disunionist, and worse than Lincoln. The Electors are Breckinridgers, mainly, and would never vote for Douglas. Some will not vote for Breckinridge, too. As it is, some of the true Douglas men will not vote at all—others will vote a Straight Ticket—and others will vote for Lincoln. There remaining no full test of the comparative strength of the two Democratic factions, it is really a Breckinridge victory.

"Douglas worked his way from cabinet-maker to U. S. Senator. Breckinridge will work his way from Senator up to Cabinet-maker."

We find the above in a late number of the Lewisburg (Pa) Argus, a milk-and-water Democratic paper. It hasn't spunk enough to come out for either Douglas, the regular nominee, or its pet bogus candidate, Breckinridge. There is about as much prospect of Breckinridge ever becoming a cabinet-maker, as there is of the devil turning saint. Come out with your colors, Truman. If you want to sustain and encourage bolters, fling out the Breckinridge banner at once—be a man or a mouse.—Cedar (Iowa) Democrat—David H. Roush.

☞All "bosh," boys, about Douglas being a cabinet-maker. The fact is (as his good mother tells it) he became tired of going to school, and proposed becoming a mechanic—was allowed to try it a few weeks—and was glad to get back to his books again—again became restless, and pushed off to Illinois when about of age.

Got His Answer.

In one of the central counties, a pro-slavery spouter was declaiming with great vehemence about "nigger equality," when he attempted an illustration, thus:

"Suppose the Republicans should win—what would be the result? Let me draw a picture. You, sir, (pointing to a well-dressed good looking man in the crowd,) at the next election, with your honest face and patriotic heart, would march up to the polls and deposit your vote for, say, Stephen A. Douglas, the people's choice. Following you would come a big, greasy, sweating, rank, kinkey-haired, thick-lipped, crooked-shinned negro, filled with the passions and ignorance common to his race, treading on your heels, and jostling you in the crowd. Holding a ballot in his hand he would deposit it in the box, for, say, Abraham Lincoln—thus neutralizing your vote, and doing so much to reduce you to a nigger level. What would you say to that, sir?"

"I would say," responded the man interrogated, "that the nigger had a blame sight the most sense!"

The Little Gianter "dried up!"

☞Wilmot's District is booked for 10,000 majority for Lincoln. Allegheny will try for 10,000. Lebanon, for 2,000. Lancaster, from 7,000 up. And so, nearly every county will probably "do better." Our friends in Union county all promise an increased majority. Turn out! turn out! and swell the omnipotent voice for Lincoln and Liberty! You will all be proud to say, next month and forty years hence, that you voted, and got your neighbors to vote, for Abraham Lincoln! Old Union gave old Hickory four to one of her votes—gave 1475 maj. to Old Zach, and can "spread herself" and give Old Abe 500 or 1000 more.
