Out of His Reckoning.

A good story is told of an Indiana man, who, on his way to Cincinnati, became somewhat elevated by sundry drinks, but, as good luck would have it, found a boat at the wharf and was quickly on his way. Soon after leaving the wharf, a man came around for his fare. Horrall handed out a five dollar bill, and received four dollars and ninety-five cents in change. He rammed it into his pocket book with great eagerness, supposing the clerk had made a mistake. That done, he leaned back into his chair and fell asleep. A little while, and he was plucked awake by the same man, who again demanded fare. "Discovered the mistake," thought he, holding out a handful of change. The man, as before, took only five cents, and Horrall again went into a doze. Ere he had got fairly to dreaming of home, and friends far away, around came the collector again, and thus it went on for a long time.

At last, Horrall thought it very inconvenient, and concluded to vote the conductor a nuisance, and give him a bit of advice besides—so said he, "Is (hic) this a danger(hic)ous bo(hic)boat?"

"By no means," said the man, "bran new."

"Then (hic) why do (hic) don't you collect all the (hic) fahair at once—not bother a fel(hic)heller for it every mile as it (hic) comes due?"

"Really," said the man, "where do you think you are going?"

"Cincin(hic)hinnati," said Horrall.

"Cincinnati," said the polite conductor, "why, you must be sadly out of your reckoning. This is the ferry-boat, and all this afternoon you have been riding to and fro between New Albany and Portland!"

That night, Horrall stayed in Louisville.

Autumcholy Reflections.

It is customary for country editors to write a pathetic article on the death of Summer. We approach this melancholy task with more than ordinary billiousness. The beautiful, genial, though sometimes very uncomfortable sunshine which we have had at short intervals ever since about the first of March last, is now only an occasional visitor. At its appearance, the birds sing again, and the mud holes "dry up" a little. When the thick, murky, dreary, drizzling, rainy clouds intervene, the birds cease their warbling—all except our neighbor's Shanghai rooster, which "bellers" at daybreak, as usual, rain or shine. The leaves—one by one, and sometimes two at a time—have fallen from the trees, and have left the branches, like skeleton arms, naked and bare. The predatory pigs stick their snouts under "the sere and yellow leaves," in hopes that perchance an apple, beech-nut or acorn may "turn up" and reward them for their labor. Gobblers may be seen stalking into our farmers' sitting-rooms to get a glimpse at the newspapers to see what day the Governor has appointed for Thanksgiving. South Carolina is going out of the Union, and boys of a tender age may be seen swilling sweet cider, and eating apples till they become sick, causing a run on the drug stores for Godfrey's Cordial. The summer schools are ended, and the school ma'am's smile at eventide no longer cheers the tired plow-boy. The mud is knee-deep in the roads and visiting is at an end. "The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year." But, friends, keep up your courage. Things and "natur" generally are not as blue as they look. In a few weeks the mud will freeze up, the snow will fly, sleighing will be good, rosy checked girls and boys (young men, you know) will go to apple cuts and singing schools, cheered on their way by the bewitching music of the sleigh-bells. We will have to worry through the winter in this and kindred ways till spring comes again with new leaves, and birds, and flowers, and so forth. But draw down your faces, for just now it is fashionable to feel melancholy.—Wellsborough (Pa.) Agitator.

A POPPED CHESNUT.—Mr. Chesnut, of S. C., has resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate. The report states that the "reading of the letter in the Legislature was followed by applause." This was rather an equivocal compliment. It certainly indicated that the Members were not depressed by the prospect of losing his services at Washington, or at the creation of a vacancy there for some one else to fill.

THE ONLY PREPARATION

HAVING PROOFS SO STRONG AND DIRECT

As to Expel the Doubts of All.

STATESMEN, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools, as well as new give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all excess of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore. Read the following:

Oak Grove, S. C., June 24, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulkey against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and, as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result: two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully, M. J. WRIGHT, M.D.

OFFICE OF JEFFERSONIAN, PITTSYE, Va., Dec. 12, '58.

Dear Sir: I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, a lawyer, has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative" which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement. I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

DR. WOOD—Dear Sir: Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color about the time of my arrival in the United States, it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative a very wonderful injention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least 50 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. O. PHELPS BROWN'S ACADIAN BALSAM FOR THE PERMANENT CURE OF CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, COUGHS, COLDS, & GENERAL DEBILITY, &C.

THIS remedy is offered as affording a means of speedy cure for the large number that die annually in our land of that fell scourge, Consumption, to which, unhappily, so many predisposing causes exist. Youth and age are alike subject to its ravages.

EVERY PERSON

can name one or more of his acquaintances who is subject to some form of lung or throat complaint, which, if not attended to in season, inevitably consigns the sufferer to a premature grave. To such, help is at hand if they will but avail themselves of it, and hope—the harbinger of brighter days—may be swallowed without fear of chilling disappointment. Dr. O. PHELPS BROWN'S ACADIAN BALSAM does just what is claimed for it, and may be relied upon by the sick as being the most successful in curing lung and throat disorders, of any remedy known at the present day. The many pilaces assailed by Consumption justifies the apprehension of those who have reason to fear its approach, either from constitutional or hereditary tendency.

While the discoverer of this remedy does not believe that people should be constantly dosing themselves with medicines

TO PREVENT SICKNESS,

there are many cases where disease is too long allowed to remain unchecked in the system, and a slight cough regarded at first as simply an annoyance, creeps on with the life of the patient. An impure state of the blood, through debilitation of the lungs, fills the system with morbid humors, and pulsation becomes feeble or accelerated to a feverish intensity—the heart, liver, and kidneys separately performing functions of vital necessity, to our well being, are impeded in their regular action—the digestive organs falter in their task, and refuse to perform the process of separating the nutritious elements from food, and the whole mental being is well nigh ready to sink under the burden of life. The patient so afflicted, accounts his case a complication of disorders, and often refuses to resort to medication from his thorough disbelief in any prospect of cure. To such of the ACADIAN BALSAM, as thoroughly worthy the confidence of all. Every symptom of Consumption is surely and permanently eradicated by its use. Its effects are none other but strengthening and renovating to the entire system. Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility, are effectually cured by its use. Night Sweats, Loss of Flesh, and Wasting away of the Muscles, Loss of Appetite, Soreness of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, Liver Complaint, Palpitation of the Heart, Difficulty of Breathing—all these affections disappear in an incredibly short time after using Dr. O. Phelps Brown's Acadian Balsam.

It nourishes and strengthens the patient who is too much reduced to partake of ordinary food. It heals all internal sores, tubercles and inflammation. It strengthens, braces, and revitalizes the brain, and is without a rival as a tonic, supplying electricity or magnetic force to every part of the enfeebled and prostrate body. It needs no lengthy trial to convince any that the ACADIAN BALSAM is truly the greatest remedy of the day, as its beneficial qualities are fully apparent in eight and forty hours after trial.

Let the invalid, then, no longer delay, but make the trial, and the result will surely be of the most gratifying character.

The ACADIAN BALSAM is prepared with the greatest care, and the best materials. No pains or expense are spared to make it what it is—the best known remedy of the age. It may be taken by either sex, of all ages, and at all seasons, with perfect safety; and it is none the less powerful in conquering those diseases which sap the foundation and destroy the lives of so many in our midst. Every family should have it, and regard it as a household treasure.
