Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 4, 1861.

ADVERTISERS.—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics & Public-houses in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to convince themselves of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large number of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of wealthy, solvent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ A couple of columns of New Advertisements to day, which please read.

☞ Our Marriage Department shows a progress of the "Union" sentiment.

☞ Ice has been taken in good condition this year. Improve the first opportunities to secure it.

☞ Tunis H Fisher is appointed Railroad Agent at the Lewisburg Station. Mr Barrett is changed to Lock Haven.

☞ New Year's Day was uncommonly cold, but was made available for a good amount of "sledding," and a general "good time" in visiting, etc. etc.

☞ Thanks to our Member, Mr. Killinger, for Congressional Documents—The Congressional Globe, and the Mechanical portion of the Patent Office Report.

COOL.—The Selinsgrove Times says, "Northumberland county is entirely without a Democratic organ." Really, we thought there were two such organs, of uncommon ability and independence, printed in English, with each a German tender—four in all.

☞ During this month, Lindsay & Blakiston, of Philad., will publish "SINAI AND PALESTINE; a Pilgrimage through the Wilderness to the Land of Promise—with Illustrations. By Rev. Benj Bausman," late pastor of the Ger Ref Ch., Lewisburg. It will be sent by mail, free of postage, on receipt of the retail price, $1.25.

WHITTIER, the Poet, says in reference to the pro-slavery excitement—

"Southerners are setting fire to the clothes upon their backs, hoping that their neighbors may scorch their fingers trying to put it out.....Those fighting about Lincoln's election are fighting with the cause-takers and the arithmetic; they look like the figure 2 being angry because it isn't the figure 3."

☞ A no-party "Union" meeting was held at Crotz's hotel, Mifflinburg, last Monday evening. C H Shriner advocated the policy pursued by Washington in the Whiskey Insurrection, and by Jackson in Nullification times. J V Barber dissented. A complimentary resolution to the Union sentiments advocated by Andrew Johnson in the U. S. Senate, was adopted by acclamation, and the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Gen. Scott.

☞ In accordance with the recommendation of the President, there will be religious services held in the Presbyterian Church, Lewisburg, to-day, at 10½ A M.—in the Methodist house, and in the Ger Ref house, at 10, A M.....Other services will then be announced.

The Stores and other places of business will be closed.

In Mifflinburg, preaching in the Lutheran house, and the Stores will be closed.

☞ The 1st of January, 1861, is the day fixed upon by the Emperor of Russia for an advance in the social and political condition of between Twenty and Forty Millions of the people called "serfs"—not as degraded slaves as those in America—but people attached to the soil, and hitherto much oppressed. It is a very important step in advance....Louis Napoleon has been granting some additional rights to his people also....Thus all the civilized world appears to be moving for the advancement of Liberty and Law—all, except a portion of the United States.

[Correspondence of the Star & Chronicle.]

Letter from Philadelphia.

What man has been a school-boy can enter a Lyceum with it feeling the influence of an intellectual atmosphere playing upon his temples? How refreshingly it fans the wearied brow, recalling the earliest dreams of ambition, and awakening many pleasing memories of great names and of great speeches! Learned Greece, pictured in the glow of youthful fancy, once more appears on the panorama of the mind; Aristotle again comes forward among the great and living characters peopled in the brain; and philosophy, rhetoric and poesy lift the heart and mind from houses, lands and merchandise to the ideal fields and habitations of wondrous thought.

All enough of rhapsody. I know that your readers appreciate the worth of Lyceums. Those who feel an interest for them, may be pleased to hear something about the Philadelphia Lyceum, corner of Ninth and Spring Garden streets. I had the pleasure of attending their meeting last Saturday night. After the usual ceremonies of opening, curiosities were presented—a horned frog, and a chameleon. Questions given out to members at previous meetings, were then answered. A question was chosen, and a member called upon for an impromptu speech—unforewarned—in manner. This is argued, is good for the development of self-reliance in an emergency, and affords a great deal of amusement. Negroism the discussion of the question of the evening: "Is the American Union worth preserving?" Doctors, lawyers, merchants, mechanics, and one lady, engaged in debate. All the antagonistic elements of our confederacy were fairly represented. Free speech was most freely indulged. The Constitution, the Union, patriotism, liberty, slavery, oratory, eloquence, bravery, fun and faintness, and many other emotions of the mind and heart had a most glorious ventilation. The utmost good humor prevailed, and nobody was hurt. Were we compelled to give a decision, not upon the merits of the question, but according to the arguments adduced, we should unhesitatingly say the Union is not "worth preserving," because it is not the Union our fathers intended it to be, because it would call and compel us in certain contingencies to fight against certain "persons" battling for freedom, or brand us as disloyal and cowardly.

The parade, the martial music, the firing of guns, and other things remind me that it is the last night of the old year, and that "good-bye" must be said to you and to 1860.

Good-bye, disastrous, fading year,
Some of the memories we'll revere,
The wheat thou hast bro't, but not the "Buck,"
Who grew on "Wheatland" for a truck,
To be bartered and traded,
Scorned, withered and faded, &c.

The Trial List for Juniata county contains nine causes.

FOR THE STAR & CHRONICLE.

Without any criticism of the motives or the previous course of His Excellency the President of the United States, the fact of his pausing in his career is cheering, and his official position clothes his recommendation with respect. And verily we as a people have merited humiliation. With a few noble exceptions, our treatment of the Indian and Negro races has been the reverse of Christianity. We have boasted of our might and wisdom as if there were no God in Heaven. We have despised His poor—profaned His name—violated Sabbaths—and deserved His displeasure. But let us return unto Him in sincerity, and He will return unto us.

JAMES v. 4.

☞ The Hartley and Lewis Teachers' Association convened, 26th ult, according to appointment.

"Orthography" was discussed by A.A.Oberlin, Miss Garret, Mr. Royer and others.

A number of the teachers gave their modes of teaching Composition, Declamation, &c., also their plans of stopping the larger pupils from chewing tobacco.

Miss Garret and Mr. Royer read the "Teachers Miscellany," a pamphlet into which were transcribed a number of creditable essays from members of the association. A short address was then delivered on "School Visitations by Parents."

The Executive Committee offered resolutions calling upon the friends of education in Lewis and Hartley townships to unite in elevating the standard of teaching and promoting the welfare of the schools—thanking the citizens of the school district for their attendance—Messrs. Yeager, Yarger, and the ladies for their delightful and appropriate music.

Adjourned to meet at the Laurelton schoolhouse, Saturday, Jan 12th.

PURITY OF MIND AND BODY, are equally attained by the influence of the human organization in perfect health; maladies, gloomy fears and depraved humors are in some measure cast from devout pilgrims, and thoughts inevitably by a well-ordered state of the system. It should never be forgotten that some of the most successful diseases to which the human flesh is heir, commence with indigestion, which, if timely attended to, may be checked in its first approach. Most Forms of Dyspepsia can be cured by judicious appetizers, some of weight and influence of the first class of stomachic, irregular bowels, tongue white, severe intervening pain, darting between the shoulders, flatulency, pulse quick and irritable, dizziness, heavy aching pain across the loins, excessive depression of spirits, despondency, no interest so often in the events of life which previously had been the chief source of pleasure, irritability, trembling sensations, disturbed rest, unrefreshing slumber, constipation, uncertain appetite, disagreeable sensations in the region of the stomach, sudden faintness, fluttering of the heart, sick headache, cold chills, flushings, alternate paleness and redness of the face, nervous affections in all their protean forms, and sometimes a tendency to tubercular deposition in the lungs.

THE OBTUNDENATED BITTERS.

For years medical science had been taxed and the skill of the physician exhausted in the hope of discovering some remedy available to cure that most distressing of all diseases—dyspepsia, as well as it long train of evils under their various names.

No medicine existed which would speedily, permanently, effectually, and reasonably cure and expel these diseases from the system until Dr. Green made know his discovery of

THE OBTUNDENATED BITTERS.

Such is its remarkable power and positivity, that cases which for years have baffled the most potent medicines and the highest professional skill, yield to this remedy as readily as if the disease were but of a day's standing. For an account of the Bitters and Digestive Organs, and for generous Details, it is equally salutary and certain.

Remarkable Case of an Aged Person.

RUSSELVILLE, Texas Co., Ky., Aug. 25, 1858.

Messrs. S. W. POWELL & Co.: Gentlemen—After suffering for thirty years with Dyspepsia, and trying many remedies recommended for that disease without any good result, I was induced to try H. W. White's, to give the Obtundenated Bitters a fair trial. I took two bottles, which gave me much relief. I continued to try two more which have nearly or quite effected a cure. I am now nearly seventy-five years of age, and for three months past have taken my food without experiencing the slightest inconvenience or suffering; and it is with pleasure that I recommend your remedy to my people. A. HEBARD.

FROM DR. WHITE.

MEXIA, Texas Co., Pa., Aug. 26, 1858.

I have used the Obtundenated Bitters in my practice with decided success in debility and general prostration, and confidentially recommend it in general debility and diseases of the digestive organs.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more like like than any thing they ever saw. Mr Phillips has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expression as this.

From Hon. E. Joy Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and richness of your portraits, originated with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, can not fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Col. James Page.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process of sepodyton, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, both early in the accuracy of the likeness, for its artistic finish in all respects, and cordially commend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. 723m6 James Page.

LINDSEY'S Improved

BLOOD SEARCHER,

A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical and effectual cure of ALL diseases arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD!

THIS medicine has never yet the most miraculous cures in the opposite name of

Scrofula	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes, Scald Head,
Old, stubborn Ulcers,	Rheumatic disorders,
Tetter affections,	Costiveness,
Dyspepsia, Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial diseases,	Female debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low spirits,	Foul Stomach,

Feverish conditions and inflammations having their origin in an impure state of the blood.

The above is a portrait of David M'Creary, of Naples Tex. who on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gentry that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Hartford county, and by Dr. Newton of the city of Memphis, Tenn., for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which the lip, nose, and a portion of the left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and "although sadly disfigured there is no question but this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in pamphlets to be had of the agents below.

We also refer by permission to Messrs. Shannon & Co., Armstrong Co., Pa., several of whom are also being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the cure of Cancer in Annandville, Churchill Co., who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the cure of Dr. Mussel, Cancer, Scrofula, Carrollton, Cambria co., Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat the entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than M'Creary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the "Blood Searcher"—may also be found in a Circular to be had of one of the Agents.

E. M. LEWIS, Proprietor.
