THE SHOEMAKER.

The shoemaker sat amid wax and leather,
With his implements of his trade,
Where, sang in the shop, he did all weather,
Drawing his quarters and sole together—
A happy, good man, was he.

This genial old man was so wise and knowing,
The world of his time he knew;
He bristled his ends and he kept them going,
And fell to each customer a stitch was owing,
Until he got round the shoe.

Of every shoe that his awl was sealing,
The closing was firm and fast;
The pegs of his awl never caused a feeling
Of pain to the foot, and his skill in heeling
Was perfect and true to the last.

When we put your gaiters on a fool to measure,
With gentle and skilful hand
He took its proportions, with looks of pleasure,
As if you were giving the costliest treasure,
Of fashioning him fond of the land.

And many a one did he save from getting
A fever, or cold, or crouch,
For many a foot did he save from wetting,
When, whether in water or snow 'twas setting,
His shoeing would keep them off.

When he had done with his making and mending,
With hone and a powerful breath,
Resigning his awl, as his thread was ending,
He passed from his bench to the grave descending,
As high as the king to rest.

GOOD HIT.—At a political meeting in Chicago, a certain Doctor Jones alluded to Lawyer Carter, whose business it was to keep rogues and thieves out of the Penitentiary, or send them there, according to their value as voters for or against the party. The lawyer retorted: "If he had ever disposed of voters for or against his party, he had done only his duty as an officer of the Court; and those voters, who had gone to the Penitentiary, would be restored to society with—it was to be hoped—a better understanding of their duties as citizens. But what shall I say of my learned medical friend, and the honest voters he has disposed of? If his conscience does not smite him, I will say nothing of reproach; but, my friends, we all know that those poor fellows will never again appear at the ballot-box, having been dispatched by my friend 'to that land from whose bourne no traveler returns.'" [Roars of laughter.]

☞We can imagine no more uncomfortable position than that in which the editor of a Democratic paper proposes to hang up any Secessionist who does what he threatens:

"Abe Lincoln we don't like—we are sorry he is President. But if any traitor dares raise one finger against him, North or South, as a Democrat, we say, hang the whelp to the first lamp post until Lincoln commits some overt act."

We hope there will be no "whelp" so foolish as to "raise one finger, North or South," under the proposed [illegible] to "the first lamp-post until Lincoln commits some overt act." It would be a long time to wait under such trying circumstances!

☞We are glad to find one Democratic paper that has the honesty and manliness to estimate South Carolina properly. The Berwick Gazette has the following most decided good hit:

"LET HER GO."—South Carolina seems determined to secede, and we feel very much toward her as the preacher felt toward the woman, who, becoming excited at a revival, declared that "if she had another feather in her wing of faith, she could fly to glory." "Good Lord," responded the preacher, "stick it in, and let her go—she is only a trouble here!" So we say to the Palmetto State: Let her go—she has always been a trouble in the Union, and the sooner we are rid of her the better.

COOL.—The Cincinnati Commercial says: "We have long known that the Rev. Dr. Wise, editor of the Israelite, was a philosopher, but were hardly prepared to see him take misfortune so coolly as he does in the following request to some burglars who have annoyed, rather than robbed him, on two late occasions: 'The thieves who, last Friday night, broke into our office for the second time, are politely requested to do so no more, as we feel heartily ashamed for any decent person to see how poor we are. Tell us beforehand your intention to pay us a visit, and we shall place some change somewhere within reach to save the credit of the establishment.'"

A modern Othello is reported to have bewitched nearly half a dozen Desdemonas lately. They are all daughters of one family, and threaten to elope if the slightest opposition to the perpetual union with the Moor is made by pater familias. The names of the young damsels are Misses S. Carolina, Flora Ida, Ally Bama, Miss Sissippi, and Miss Georgia. The others, Miss Virginia, Miss Louisa Anna, Miss Souri, Miss Della, and Miss Mary Land, are in love with the fellow, but won't leave Uncle Sam's comfortable home on his account. They are sensible.

The postmaster of Fredericksburg has returned us the Courier sent to Jacob Eshelman, at that office, with the information that it is not lifted. As Jacob owes us about eleven dollars on his subscription, we feel interested in his whereabouts.—Lebanon Courier.

Jacob, thou art an unmitigated scoundrel, and should be posted as such by every paper in the State. May you have corns and "hang-nails" on every toe, and may they be stepped on by every honest man in the land. Pass him 'round.—Tioga Agitator.

Henry Ward Beecher, in his Thanksgiving sermon, referring to Secession, stated that he seceded once himself from his father's house. He would not say his Catechism, and so went and sat out doors; but when night came on, and he saw the people inside eating their supper and enjoying themselves, he was glad enough to return, say his Catechism, and get his supper. And South Carolina may soon get enough of secession, and be glad enough to say her Catechism, though every article in it was liberty.

LET 'EM DISSOLUTE.—In a New York omnibus, the other day, a political discussion, rather grave in its tone, was turned into fun by the remark of an old man who had been listening in silence for a quarter of an hour. "They talk," said he, "about dissolution; for my part, I say let 'em dissolute—let's all dissolute!"

In respect to Secession, the President holds the same position the great Stebbin did on the Maine law. He was in favor of the law, but again the execution of it."

The U. S. Treasury having got rid of the Cold, will now probably contain more corn.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S
AROMATIC
SCHNAPPS
A SUPERLATIVE
TONIC, DIURETIC,
ANTI DYSPEPTIC
AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL

To the citizens of New Jersey and Pennsylvania, Apothecaries, Druggists, Grocery and Private Families:

Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy.
Wolfe's Pure Madeira, Sherry, and Port Wine.
Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum.
Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whiskey.

ALL IN BOTTLES.—I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the U. S. to the above WINES and LIQUORS, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says:

"I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of over thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser."

Every bottle has the Proprietor's name on the wax and a fac-simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at RETAIL by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

[Read the following from the N. Y. Courier:]

EXTENSIVE BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to infer to our fellow citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit UDOLPHO WOLFE'S extensive warehouses, Nos. 10, 20 and 22 Beaver st., and 11, 13 and 21 Marketfield st. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment would not have been less than 100,000 gallons; the Brandy, some in wine cases—Vintages of 1820 to 1850; and 10,000 cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He had also those large cellars filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bonding. Mr. WOLFE'S sales of Schnapps last year amounted to 300,000 gallons, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use, should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his host of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, poisons alike to human health and happiness.

TRICHUM
BALSAM
FOR THE PERMANENT
CURE OF CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS,
ASTHMA, COUGHS, COLDS,
GENERAL DEBILITY, &C.

THIS remedy is offered as affording a means of speedy cure for the large number that are annually cut off by consumption, and other diseases of the throat, chest and lungs, so many prevailing diseases exist. Young and old are alike subject to its ravages.

EVERY PERSON

can name one or more of his acquaintances who is subject to some form of lung or throat complaint, which, if not attended to in season, inevitably culminates the sad tale in consumption's grave. To such, before at hand if they will but avail themselves of it, and hope—the balm of hope—for this remedy is unknown without first trying it. Appearances are deceitful, and what is claimed by the Proprietor of this remedy does not deceive that people should be constantly doling themselves with medicines

TO PREVENT SICKNESS,

there are many cases where disease is too far advanced to remain unchecked in the system, and a slight cough, considered at first as simply an annoyance, comes with its attendant train of pulmonary symptoms, and through destruction of the lungs, fills the system with morbid humors, and pulsation becomes feeble or accelerated to a feverish intensity—the heart, liver, and kidneys participating in the functions of vital account, to our well being, are involved in their morbid action—the digestive organs, taken on their task and refuse to perform the process of separating the nutritious elements from food, and the whole mortal frame wastes away, to sink under the harness of life. The patient is advised, accounts his case a complication of disorders, and often refuses to resort to intoxication, from the thought its relief in any prospect of cure. To such

I ASK THE TRIAL

of the AMERICAN BALSAM, as thoroughly worthy the confidence of all. Every symptom of consumption is surely and speedily subdued by its use. Its effects are not some other but strengthening and renovating to the entire system. Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility are effectually cured by its use. Night Sweats, Loss of Flesh, and Wasting away of the Muscles, Loss of Appetite, Soreness of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, Liver Complaint, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain, Pains of Breathing—all these symptoms disappear in a remarkably short time after using Dr. O. Phelps Brown's American Balsam.

It nourishes and strengthens the patient who is too much reduced to partake of ordinary food. It heals all internal sores, tubercles and inflammation. It strengthens, braces, and revitalizes the brain, and is without a rival as a tonic, supplying constituents or magnetic force to every part of the enfeebled and protracted body. It needs no lengthy trial to convince any that the AMERICAN BALSAM is truly the greatest remedy of the day, as its beneficial qualities are fully apparent in eight and forty hours after trial.

Let the invalid, then, no longer delay, but make the trial, and the result will surely be of the most gratifying character.

The AMERICAN BALSAM is prepared with the greatest care, and the best materials. No pains or expense are spared to make it what it is—the best known remedy of the age. It may be taken by either sex, of all ages, and at all seasons, with perfect safety; and it is now the most powerful to conquering those diseases which sap the foundations and destroy the life-cord so matter in our midst. Every family should have it, and regard it as a household treasure.

GREAT CURE OF SCROFULA.

The following letter from a highly respected member of the Society of Friends, affords strong evidence of the great superiority of DR. DAVIS'S over SARSAPARILLA and PANACEAS and MIXTURES, as well as the various other Medicines in general use for Scrofula.

CURE OF GAINER P. MOORE.

EARLSWOOD, Chester Co., Pa., June 31, 1851.

DR. WM. A. DAVIS—Respected Friend: I received a letter from thee a few days since, in which thou wished me to give thee the correct statement of Gainer's case from the first attack. He was taken in the fall of 1850, when in his 16th year, with severe pains in his hip and thigh, and was confined to his bed for five months. In the course of that time, an ulcer formed on his thigh, which discharged a great deal of bloody water; the sinew of his ankle to the instep became swelling, and was very painful, so as to prevent his using his foot; and for a long time, his whole body was covered with sores, and he was very much reduced in flesh. He was under medical treatment all the time, which I consider did him no good. He was also under the care of Dr. Phillips Bryan's Asorian Balsam, which I could not by any means say was beneficial to him. He then took pains in his arms, and had ulcers on both, which were very painful and deep, and previous to using Dr. Davis's Depurative, I had given him over as incurable. His leg was broken up, and could not be straightened, or rested of its last motion. He was attended by a physician for a long time, but got no relief. At length I prevailed on him to take Dr. Davis's Depurative, and before he had taken five bottles of Dr. Davis's Panacea, without any effect. We next applied to a physician of Lancaster who prescribed a great deal of dill root medicine without any improvement. I got a receipt for making Sarsaparilla, procured the ingredients from an Apothecary in Lancaster, and made a gallon, which he took, besides a great quantity of tea made of sarsaparilla root and Sassafras mixed; also Prickly Ash and Burdock Tea; but all did not avail until he took Dr. Davis's Depurative, which we heard of from the benefit it was doing to the son of a neighbor, Henry Brosius. In a very short time, an improvement was perceptible, and continued until he was cured, which was with the twelfth bottle. It has entirely changed him both in health and spirits, for which I feel very grateful indeed and am willing to do all I can, (consistent with truth) for the advancement of thy DEPURATIVE and the good of the suffering.

Thy sincere friend, LYDIA MOORE.

Thee may do as thee sees fit with this in welcome.

THROAT DISEASE.

This large class of diseases, including Ulcerations, Inflammations, Bronchial Irritations, &c., is most successfully treated by the use of Dr. Davis' Depurative and Dr. Davis' Throat Application. Read the following case of speedy cure after being continued suffering:

KEMBLE TOWN, Chester Co., July 2, 1859

DR. DAVIS—Dear Sir: About five years ago, I was attacked with a disease of the throat, which came on gradually, but at times when I would take cold the pain and suffering would be very distressing, accompanied with loss of voice to such an extent that I could not speak above a whisper. The disease continued getting worse, notwithstanding I was under medical treatment of four different physicians. Becoming alarmed at my condition, I concluded to go to Philadelphia and consult you, which you recollect I did in the winter of 1858, when you recommended me to take your Depurative; and by the use of four bottles of it, in connection with your throat application, I was entirely cured, and have remained well. It is now more than a year since the cure was effected. Respectfully, your friend,

MARIA ANNA F. BISHOP.
